

December 2011

Apollo 18

Rated PG-13. Anchor Bay Entertainment, produced in 2011, released in 2011, 87 minutes.

Decades-old found footage from NASA's abandoned Apollo 18 mission, where two American astronauts were sent on a secret expedition, reveals the reason the U.S. has never returned to the moon.

Cowboys & Aliens

Rated PG-13. Universal, produced in 2011, released in 2011, 119 minutes.

The Old West.. where a lone cowboy leads an uprising against a terror from beyond our world. 1873. Arizona Territory. A stranger with no memory of his past stumbles into the hard desert town of Absolution. The only hint to his history is a mysterious shackle that encircles one wrist. What he discovers is that the people of Absolution don't welcome strangers, and nobody makes a move on its streets unless ordered to do so by the iron-fisted Colonel Dolarhyde. It's a town that lives in fear.

The Debt

Rated R. Focus Features, produced in 2011, released in 2011, 114 minutes.

The story begins in 1997, as shocking news reaches retired Mossad secret agents Rachel and Stephan about their former colleague David. All three have been venerated for decades by Israel because of the secret mission that they embarked on for their country back in 1965-1966, when the trio tracked down Nazi war criminal Dieter Vogel, the feared Surgeon of Birkenau, in East Berlin. At great risk, and at considerable personal cost, the team's mission was accomplished - or was it?

Friends with Benefits

Rated R. Screen Gems, Inc., produced in 2011, released in 2011, 109 minutes.

While trying to avoid the clichés of Hollywood romantic comedies, Dylan and Jamie soon discover that adding the act of sex to their friendship does lead to complications.

Fright Night

Rated R. Touchstone Home Video, produced in 2011, released in 2011, 106 minutes.

Senior Charley Brewster finally has it all. He's running with the cool kids and dating the hottest girl in high school. But all hell breaks loose when charming Jerry Dandrige moves in next door. Charlie thinks there's something odd about him, although no one, including his mom seems to notice. But after too many of his classmates vanish under bizarre circumstances, Charley comes to an unmistakable conclusion: Jerry is a vampire preying on his neighborhood!

Glee - The Concert

Rated PG. 20th Century Fox, produced in 2011, released in 2011, 84 minutes.

Here's your front-row seat to a thrilling concert performed by the phenomenally talented cast of Glee. See your favorite stars from the hit TV show as they sing the songs you love and dance up a storm on stage. Get swept up in the energy of Glee Live, including performances not seen in theaters and exclusive interviews!

The Hangover Part 2

Rated R. Warner Home Video, produced in 2011, released in 2011, 102 minutes.

Two years after the bachelor party in Las Vegas, Phil, Stu, Alan, and Doug jet to Thailand for Stu's wedding. Stu's plan for a subdued pre-wedding brunch, however, goes seriously awry. Does not come with bonus features or extras.

Harry Potter and the Deathly Hallows - Part 2

Rated PG-13. Warner Home Video, produced in 2011, released in 2011, 130 minutes.

In the epic finale, the battle between the good and evil forces of the wizarding world escalates into an all-out war. The stakes have never been higher and no one is safe. But it is Harry who may be called upon to make the ultimate sacrifice as he draws closer to the climactic showdown with Lord Voldemort. It all ends here. Does not come with bonus features or extras.\

The Help

Rated PG-13. Touchstone Home Video, produced in 2011, released in 2011, 146 minutes.

Mississippi during the 1960s: Skeeter, a southern society girl, returns from college determined to become a writer, but turns her friends' lives, and a small Mississippi town, upside down when she decides to interview the black women who have spent their lives taking care of prominent southern families. Aibileen, Skeeter's best friend's housekeeper, is the first to open up, to the dismay of her friends in the tight-knit black community.

I Don't Know How She Does It

Rated PG-13. The Weinstein Company, produced in 2011, released in 2012, 90 minutes.

A comedy centered on the life of Kate Reddy, a finance executive who is the breadwinner for her husband and two kids. When Kate gets handed a major new account that will require frequent trips to New York, Richard also wins the new job he's been hoping for and both will be spreading themselves even thinner. Complicating matters is Kate's charming new business associate Jack Abelhammer, who begins to prove an unexpected source of temptation.

Kung Fu Panda 2 (Juvenile DVD)

Rated PG. DreamWorks Home Entertainment, produced in 2011, released in 2011, 90 minutes.

Po is now living his dream as the Dragon Warrior, protecting the Valley of Peace alongside his friends and fellow kung fu masters, the Furious Five. But Po's new life of awesomeness is threatened by the emergence of a formidable villain who plans to use a secret, unstoppable weapon to conquer China and destroy kung fu. Po must look to his past and uncover the secrets of his mysterious origins in order to able to unlock the strength he needs to succeed.

The Ledge

Rated R. IFC Films, produced in 2011, released in 2011, 101 minutes.

Gavin is on the ledge. Hollis, who just learned that he is not the biological father of his children, has the task of talking Gavin down. Gavin reveals his deep-rooted conflict with his fundamentalist Christian neighbor Joe, whose theological opposition to Gavin was intensified by Gavin's gay roommate and later by Joe's wife's infidelity. The negotiations take a dramatic turn when Hollis learns that Gavin has a deadline, and his life is not the only one hanging in the balance.

Margin Call

Rated R. Lions Gate Entertainment, produced in 2011, released in 2011, 107 minutes.

Set in the high-stakes world of Wall Street, Margin Call is an entangling thriller involving the key players at an investment firm during one perilous 24-hour period in the early stages of the 2008 financial crisis. When an entry-level analyst unlocks information that could prove to be the downfall of the firm, a roller-coaster ride ensues as decisions both financial and moral catapult the lives of all involved to the brink of disaster.

Midnight in Paris

Rated PG-13. Sony Pictures Classics, produced in 2011, released in 2011, 94 minutes.

A romantic comedy about a family traveling to the French capital for business. The party includes a young engaged couple forced to confront the illusion that a life different from their own is better.

Mr. Popper's Penguins

Rated PG. 20th Century Fox, produced in 2011, released in 2011, 94 minutes.

Tom Popper is a successful businessman who's clueless when it comes to the really important things in life, until he inherits six 'adorable' penguins, each with its own unique personality. Soon Tom's rambunctious roommates turn his swank New York apartment into a snowy winter wonderland, and the rest of his world upside-down. Adapted from the award-winning classic children's book, Mr. Popper's Penguins is a cool blast of fun for all ages.

Rise of the Planet of the Apes (2011)

Rated PG-13. 20th Century Fox, produced in 2011, released in 2011, 105 minutes.

Is a revolution... an action packed epic featuring stunning visual effects and creature unlike anything ever seen before. At the story's heart is Caesar, a chimpanzee who gains human-like intelligence and emotions from an experimental drug. Raised like a child by the drug's creator, Caesar intimately finds himself taken from the humans he loves and imprisoned. Seeking justice, Caesar assembles a simian army and escapes.

The Smurfs (2011)

Rated PG. Columbia Pictures, produced in 2011, released in 2011, 103 minutes.

When the evil wizard Gargamel chases the tiny blue Smurfs out of their village, they're forced through a portal, out of their world and into ours, landing in the middle of New York's Central Park.

Straw Dogs

Rated R. Screen Gems, Inc., produced in 2011, released in 2011, 110 minutes.

A young couple moves to a quaint southern town. Soon their perfect getaway turns out to become a living hell when dark secrets and lethal passions spiral out of control. Trapped by a pack of depraved locals led by a ruthless predator, they face a night of agonizing suffering and endless bloodshed. Now their only hope for survival is to become more savage than their merciless torturers.

The Tempest (2011)

Rated PG-13. Miramax Films, produced in 2010, released in 2011, 110 minutes.

This modern retelling of William Shakespeare's final masterpiece is an exciting, mystical, and magical fantasy. Exiled to a magical island, the sorceress Prospera conjures up a storm that shipwrecks her enemies, and then unleashes her powers for revenge.

November 2011

13

Rated R. Anchor Bay Films, produced in 2010, released in 2011, 90 minutes.

A man in desperate circumstances steals an envelope containing instructions for a mysterious job that promises a potential fortune. He assumes a false identity and participates, only to find himself a numbered participant in an underworld Russian roulette competition. The stakes are high, but the payout is more than he can resist. His only collateral is his life, and however long his luck can hold. What will it take to be the last man standing?

30 Minutes or Less

Rated R. Columbia Pictures, produced in 2011, released in 2011, 83 minutes.

Nick is a small-town pizza delivery guy whose mundane life collides with the big plans of two wannabe criminal masterminds. The volatile duo kidnaps Nick and forces him to rob a bank. With mere hours to pull off the impossible task, Nick enlists the help of his ex-best friend, Chet. As the clock ticks, the two must deal with the police, hired assassins, flamethrowers, and their own tumultuous relationship.

American Breakdown

Rated R. Phase 4 Films, produced in 2008, released in 2011, 90 minutes.

Ten individuals set out to find themselves in an alienating world, filled with heartbreak, deception, and tragedy. With so much at stake, these strangers struggle to overcome their fates and find their place in a frequently harsh and unforgiving world. Includes a trailer.

Arena

Rated R. Sony Pictures Home Entertainment, produced in 2011, released in 2011, 94 minutes.

How do you make a fortune from the bloodlust of millions? One sadistically savvy businessman has created an empire with his brutal, fight-to-the-death gladiator website. His newest warrior is David Lord, a kidnapped fireman, now imprisoned and forced to fight for his life. To buy his freedom, Lord agrees to do a series of lethal bouts. But as the body count escalates, and with his most challenging battle remaining, Lord unleashes a torrent of bloody carnage.

The Art of Getting By

Rated PG-13. 20th Century Fox, produced in 2011, released in 2011, 83 minutes.

Fatalistic teenager George Zinavoy is a master at just barely getting by. In fact, he's practically turned it into an art form, making it through the entire school year without doing a shred of work. But when George meets a beautiful and complicated girl named Sally, he discovers a kindred spirit who turns his slacker world upside down. Their quirky and unexpected romance may just inspire George to do the unthinkable: get off his butt and chase after his dreams.

Atlas Shrugged - Part 1

Rated PG-13. 20th Century Fox, produced in 2011, released in 2011, 97 minutes.

The year is 2016, and America is on the verge of economic disaster. The greatest citizens are being targeted, and dark forces are working to bring about America's final days. Our only hope for salvation lies with Dagny Taggart and Henry Rearden, rugged individualists whose bold ideas may have the power to spark a revolution and reclaim the American Dream.

Attack the Block

Rated R. Sony Pictures Home Entertainment, produced in 2011, released in 2011, 88 minutes.

A gang of tough inner-city kids tries to defend their turf against an invasion of savage alien creatures, which turns a South London apartment complex into an extraterrestrial warzone. Bonus features include five featurettes, plus commentaries.

Beginners

Rated R. Focus Features, produced in 2011, released in 2011, 104 minutes.

About how funny and transformative life can be. When graphic designer Oliver meets free-spirited Anna shortly after his father has passed away, Oliver realizes just how much of a beginner he is when it comes to long-lasting romantic love. Memories of his father, who, following the death of his wife of 45 years, came out of the closet at age 75 to live a full, energized, and wonderfully tumultuous gay life, encourage Oliver to open himself up to the potential of a true relationship.

Cars 2 (Juvenile DVD)

Rated G. Disney, produced in 2011, released in 2011, 106 minutes.

Star racecar Lightning McQueen and the incomparable tow truck Mater take their friendship on the road from Radiator Springs to exciting new places when they head overseas to compete in the first-ever World Grand Prix to determine the world's fastest car. But the road to the championship is filled with plenty of potholes, detours, and hilarious surprises when Mater gets caught up in an intriguing adventure of his own: international espionage!

The Change-up

Not Rated. Universal, produced in 2011, released in 2011, 113 minutes.

Growing up together, Mitch and Dave were inseparable best friends, but slowly drifted apart. While Dave is an overworked lawyer, husband, and father of three, Mitch has remained a single, quasi-employed man-child. Both guys seem to think the other has it made. Following a drunken night out together, Mitch and Dave's worlds are turned upside down when they wake up in each other's bodies. The guys soon discover that each other's lives are nowhere near as rosy as they once seemed.

Conan the Barbarian (2011)

Rated R. Lions Gate Entertainment, produced in 2011, released in 2011, 112 minutes.

A quest that begins as a personal vendetta for the fierce Cimmerian warrior soon turns into an epic battle against hulking rivals, horrific monsters, and impossible odds, as Conan realizes he is the only hope of saving the great nations of Hyboria from an encroaching reign of supernatural evil.

Crazy on the Outside

Rated PG-13. 20th Century Fox, produced in 2010, released in 2011, 96 minutes.

When Tommy gets released from the big house, he discovers living on the outside is even crazier than it was behind bars. Tommy's eccentric sister won't get off is back, his sexy ex-girlfriend won't leave him alone, and his former partner in crime won't take no for an answer. Through it all, Tommy just might find the girl of his dreams and get convicted of love in the first degree.

Crazy Stupid Love

Rated PG-13. Warner Home Video, produced in 2011, released in 2011, 118 minutes.

Fortysomething Cal Weaver is living the dream: good job, nice house, great kids, and marriage to his high school sweetheart. So when Cal learns that she has cheated on him and wants a divorce, his 'perfect' life quickly unravels. Cal, who hasn't dated in decades, stands out as the epitome of un-smooth, so handsome player Jacob Palmer takes him on as wingman and protégé. Does not come with bonus features or extras.

The Devil's Double

Rated R. Lions Gate Entertainment, produced in 2011, released in 2011, 108 minutes.

Summoned to Saddam Hussein's palace, Iraqi army lieutenant Latif Yahia is thrust into the highest echelons of the 'royal family' when he's ordered to become the body double of Saddam's son, the notorious 'Black Prince' Uday Hussein, a reckless, sadistic, party-boy with a rabid hunger for sex and brutality. With his and his family's lives at stake, Latif must surrender his former self forever. But nothing could have prepared him for the horror of the Black Prince's psychotic, drug-addled life.

Flypaper

Not Rated. IFC Films, produced in 2011, released in 2011, 87 minutes.

A nervous bank customer has a crush on beautiful teller. They and the other staff and customers become hostages when two very different groups of crooks hit the bank simultaneously. When people begin mysteriously dying one by one, everyone involved begins to wonder if there's someone else in the bank up to no good.

The Future

Rated R. Lions Gate Entertainment, produced in 2011, released in 2011, 91 minutes.

The story of a thirtysomething couple whose decision to adopt a cat changes their perspective on life, literally altering the course of time and testing the

Good Neighbors

Rated R. Magnolia Home Entertainment, produced in 2010, released in 2011, 99 minutes.

In the dead of winter, a serial killer is on the loose in a small neighborhood in Montreal. The tenants of an old apartment house must figure out who they can trust and who they can't.

Griff the Invisible

Rated PG-13. Vivendi Entertainment, produced in 2010, released in 2011, 93 minutes.

Ryan Kwanten of TV's 'True Blood' stars in this charming, quirky and totally unpredictable romantic comedy about the superhero in all of us. Griff, a shy and awkward office worker by day, finds escape from his ordinary life by assuming the identity of a fantastic superhero each night. Griff's secret is jeopardized when he meets Melody, a cute but unconventional daydreamer. She quickly becomes fascinated by his idiosyncrasies, which are equal only to her own.

Hottie Booma Lottie

Rated PG-13. SunWorld Pictures, produced in 2008, released in 2011, 80 minutes.

A cheerfully clueless teen named Ethan channels his every ambition into an obsession with a beautiful brunette named Madison Sweet. At the same time he fends off the advances of his over-affectionate cousin. To Ethan, it seems like his overbearing mother and older brother are hellbent on sabotaging his entire life. The only person who seems to understand him is Madison - not the real Madison, but the life-sized cutout of her that is affixed to his closet door.

An Invisible Sign

Rated PG-13. MPI Home Video, produced in 2010, released in 2011, 96 minutes.

Mona Gray is a quirky young woman who hides in a private world of numbers after her beloved mathematician father falls ill. But when Mona is offered a job as an elementary school math teacher, she will introduce the students to her own eccentric gift for numerical obsession. Can the joys of arithmetic multiplied by a shy romance with the school science teacher help Mona discover a new life she can count on?

The Kennedys

Muse Entertainment Production, produced in 2011, released in 2011, 360 minutes.

Chronicles the saga of America's first 'royal' family during the 1960s, providing an intimate look at how Joseph Kennedy Sr. shaped his sons, John and Robert, to become two of the most influential men in the country's history. Told by Joe Kennedy, an ambitious and egocentric father, recounting the scandal, tragedy, public greatness, and private frailty of our nation's most fabled political family.

Larry Crowne

Rated PG-13. Universal, produced in 2011, released in 2011, 99 minutes.

When he suddenly finds himself without his long-standing blue-collar job, Larry Crowne enrolls at his local college to start over. There he becomes part of an eclectic community of students and develops a crush on his teacher. Now this simple guy will discover that when you think everything worth having has passed you by, you just might find your reason to live.

Me & Orson Welles

Rated PG-13. Warner Home Video, produced in 2008, released in 2011, 114 minutes.

What a whirl, what a world! High schooler Richard Samuels lucks into a role in a daring Broadway production of Julius Caesar. Cues, staging, rehearsals, romance, and rivalries: he has a lot to learn. And the first thing to learn is never to upstage Mercury Theatre's genius director, 22-year-old Orson Welles.

One Day

Rated PG-13. Focus Features, produced in 2011, released in 2011, 108 minutes.

After one day together, July 15th, 1988, their college graduation, Emma Morley and Dexter Mayhew begin a friendship that lasts a lifetime. She's a working-class girl who dreams of making the world a better place. He's a wealthy charmer who thinks the world is his playground. Somewhere over the next two decades, these two very different people realize that the love they've been hoping for has been there for them all along.

The Perfect Host

Rated R. Magnolia Home Entertainment, produced in 2010, released in 2011, 93 minutes.

Warwick Wilson is the consummate host. John Taylor is a career criminal. John just robbed a band and needs to get off the streets. Finding himself on the door step of Wilson posing as a friend of a friend, new to Los Angeles, who's been mugged and lost his luggage. As the evening progresses, we become deeply intertwined in the lives of these two men and discover just how deceiving appearances can be.

Pirates of the Caribbean - On Stranger Tides

Rated PG-13. Disney, produced in 2011, released in 2011, 136 minutes.

A tale of truth, betrayal, youth, demise, and mermaids! When Jack crosses paths with a woman from his past, he's not sure if it's love, or if she's a ruthless con artist using him to find the fabled Fountain of Youth. Forced aboard the ship of the most feared pirate ever, Jack doesn't know who to fear more, Blackbeard or the woman from his past.

Pound of Flesh

Odyssey Moving Images, produced in 2010, released in 2011, 97 minutes.

Professor Noah Melville teaches the most popular Shakespeare class at Barden College. Seemingly a model family man, his young daughter and lovely wife adore him, as do the beautiful girls who take his class. But Noah Melville has a secret. Between lectures, Noah, a proponent of sexual freedom, runs an escort service using his brightest students who cannot afford the steep tuition.

The Princess of Montpensier

Not rated. StudioCanal, produced in 2010, released in 2011, 140 minutes.

Against the backdrop of the savage Catholic/Protestant wars, Marie de Mezieres, a beautiful young aristocrat, finds herself married to a young prince she does not love, haunted by a rakish suitor from her childhood, and advised by an aging nobleman, harboring his own forbidden desire for her. The Princess of Montpensier must struggle passionately to stay alive in the intrigue of this corrupt political and romantic web of duty, passion, religion, and war.

Queen to Play

Not rated. Zeitgeist Films, produced in 2011, released in 2011, 97 minutes.

Lovely, repressed, and quietly intelligent, French chambermaid Helene comes upon a couple engaged in an intensely sensual chess match, and discovers she has a knack for the game. This obsession, much to the chagrin of her husband and teenage daughter, leads her to seek the clandestine tutelage of a reclusive American doctor, a liaison that radically transforms both of their lackluster lives.

The River Why

Rated PG-13. Image Entertainment, produced in 2010, released in 2011, 104 minutes.

Sick of living in a home shrouded with secrets, lies, and a smothering sense of competition, Gus runs away from home and the shadow of his famous fly-fishing father. Determined to live life like he wants it, Gus makes his new home in a secluded cabin on the banks of a river where he plans to fish all day. Instead, he is propelled into a quest for self-discovery. Based on a book that has become a cult classic and set in the breathtaking wilds of Oregon, this movie will cast a spell on your heart.

Sarah's Key

Rated PG-13. Anchor Bay Entertainment, produced in 2011, released in 2011, 111 minutes.

In modern-day Paris, a journalist finds her life becoming entwined with a young girl whose family was torn apart during the notorious Vel d'Hiv roundup, which took place in Paris, in 1942. She stumbles upon a family secret which will link her forever to the destiny of a young Jewish girl, Sarah.

Snow Flower and the Secret Fan

Rated PG-13. 20th Century Fox, produced in 2011, released in 2011, 104 minutes.

Centuries ago, two 'sworn sisters' are isolated by their families, but stay connected through a secret language written in the folds of a white silk fan. Now, in modern-day Shanghai, their descendents must draw inspiration from the past as they struggle to maintain their own eternal bond in the face of life's complications. What unfolds are two stories, generations apart, but everlasting in their universal notion of love, hope and friendship.

Spy Kids - All the Time in the World (Juvenile DVD)

Rated PG. Anchor Bay Entertainment, produced in 2011, released in 2011, 88 minutes.

Marissa Cortez Wilson has it all: she's married to a famous spy-hunting television reporter, with a new baby and intelligent twin stepkids, Rebecca and Cecil. When maniacal Timekeeper disrupts her domestic bliss, threatening to take over the planet, Marissa comes out of retirement as a top secret agent. With Armageddon quickly approaching, Rebecca and Cecil are thrust into action!

Submarine

Rated R. Anchor Bay Entertainment, produced in 2010, released in 2011, 98 minutes.

Young Oliver Tate's coming of age is coming even sooner than expected. Prone to daydreaming, listening to French crooners, and indulging other self-absorbed fantasies, Oliver suddenly finds himself submerged in real-life, dual challenges, plotting to lose his virginity with a quirky new girlfriend, while also struggling to reconcile his parents' marriage, even though his mom seems smitten with the self-help guru next door.

Super 8

Rated PG-13. Paramount Home Entertainment, produced in 2011, released in 2011, 111 minutes.

In the summer of 1979, a group of friends in a small Ohio town witnesses a catastrophic train crash while making a super 8 movie and soon they suspect that it was not an accident. Shortly after, unusual disappearances and inexplicable events begin to take place in town, and the local deputy tries to uncover the truth, something more terrifying than any of them could have imagined. Special features include commentary and featurettes.

Transformers - Dark of the Moon

Rated PG-13. Paramount, produced in 2011, released in 2011, 154 minutes.

The Autobots learn of a Cybertronian spacecraft hidden on the moon and race against the Decepticons to reach it and to learn its secrets.

Trespass

Rated R. Millennium, produced in 2011, released in 2011, 90 minutes.

A husband and wife are kidnapped by extortionists and held for ransom. As the situation gets worse and the pressure gets higher, they begin to uncover a web of deceit and betrayal.

Trust

Rated R. Millennium Entertainment, produced in 2010, released in 2011, 106 minutes.

When a young girl is assaulted by an older man she meets on the Internet, her family's bonds are ripped apart as her father searches across the country in an effort to track down her attacker and exact revenge.

Water for Elephants

Rated PG-13. 20th Century Fox, produced in 2011, released in 2011, 120 minutes.

Against all odds, a veterinary student and a beautiful circus performer from a bygone era meet and fall in love through their shared compassion for a special elephant. But their secret romance incurs the wrath of her dangerously volatile husband. Bonus features included.

Wrecked

Rated R. IFC Films, produced in 2011, released in 2011, 90 minutes.

A man wakes up trapped in a crashed car in the middle of nowhere, surrounded by two dead passengers, a pile of cash, and a gun. He has no recollection of who he is or how he got there. Is he an innocent victim? A dangerous criminal? All he knows is he's fighting for his life and his sanity in the middle of the deep woods.

OCTOBER 2011

Blitz

Rated R. Millennium Entertainment, produced in 2011, released in 2011, 97 minutes.

A tough cop is dispatched to take down a serial killer who has been targeting police officers. A fast-paced thriller set in contemporary London reflects the challenges faced by a group of police officers working in a modern, multicultural society.

Bride Flight (Dutch)

Rated R. Music Box Films, produced in 2008, released in 2011, 130 minutes.

A lavish romantic drama that charts the lives of three women who escape the gloom of post-WWII Holland for what they hope will be a better life in New Zealand. Ada, Marjorie, and Esther become fast friends during the long flight taking them to their waiting husbands. Upon arrival, they part ways to start their new lives, but their paths continue to cross with chance meetings resulting in adultery, betrayal, and near tragedy leading up to a reunion 50 years later.

Bridesmaids

Not rated. Universal, produced in 2011, released in 2011, 131 minutes.

Annie's life is a mess. But when she finds out her lifetime best friend is engaged, she simply must serve as Lillian's maid of honor. Though lovelorn and broke, Annie bluffs her way through the expensive and bizarre rituals. With one chance to get it perfect, she'll show Lillian and her bridesmaids just how far you'll go for someone you love. Theatrical version includes digital video service.

Carmel - A Film by Amos Gitai

Kino International, produced in 2010, released in 2011, 95 minutes.

Charting his own course through Israeli history, Gitai (who is only two years younger than Israel) becomes a lively symbol for the country itself. A child of the kibbutz, a young soldier wounded during the Yom Kippur War, a sometimes testy but always honest artist whose works are more often welcomed abroad than at home - Gitai has led a life as dense, rich, and complex as the nation of his birth.

Clash of Empires

Rated R. Image Entertainment, produced in 2011, released in 2011, 105 minutes.

In 120 AD, a warrior and descendant of Alexander the Great named Merong is tasked with accompanying a Roman prince through the dangerous regions of Asia ruled by the expanding Han Dynasty. Their destination will lead them to a beautiful princess whose kidnapping will set them on a course that will alter the fate of the entire world. Includes a trailer.

Conan O'Brien Can't Stop

Rated R. Magnolia Home Entertainment, produced in 2011, released in 2011, 89 minutes.

After a much-publicized departure from hosting NBC's Tonight Show, O'Brien hit the road with a 32-city music and comedy show to exercise his performing chops and exorcise a few demons. An intimate portrait of an artist trained in improvisation, captured at the most improvisational time of his career. It offers a window into the private writers' room and rehearsal halls.

Everything Must Go

Rated R. Lions Gate Entertainment, produced in 2011, released in 2011, 97 minutes.

Nick is a career salesman who loses his wife and his job in the worst day of his life. Faced with his life imploding, Nick puts it all on the line, or, rather, on the lawn, as he moves himself and all his possessions to his front yard.

Hesher

Rated R. Lions Gate Entertainment, produced in 2010, released in 2011, 106 minutes.

Loud music. Pornography. Lighting fires. These are a few of Heshher's favorite things. And they are what he brings into the lives of TJ and his father Paul when he takes up residence in their garage uninvited. Grief-stricken by the loss of TJ's mother, Paul can't muster the strength to evict the strange squatter, and soon the long-haired, tattooed Heshher becomes a fixture in the household. Heshher's anarchy shakes the family out of their grief and helps them embrace life once more.

The High Cost of Living

Tribeca Film, produced in 2010, released in 2011, 98 minutes.

What do you do when the best and the worst moment of your life happens at the exact same time? One fateful night, the lives of Henry and Nathalie tragically collide. As Nathalie's life unravels, Henry becomes her unlikely guardian angel, but the inevitable impact of his choices forces both Henry and Nathalie to confront loss, love, and life, and to ultimately decide whether the high cost of living is worth the price.

Jolene

Rated R. e one, produced in 2008, released in 2010, 115 minutes.

At the age of fifteen, Jolene, a free-spirited orphan, embarks on a decade-long cross-country adventure, where she experiences life, love, heartbreak, and freedom.

Me Too (Yo, Tambien)

OLIVE FILMS, produced in 2009, released in 2011, 103 minutes.

Daniel is the first European with Down's syndrome to graduate from a university. He starts a social services job as an office worker and embarks on a romance with Laura, a neurotic but 'normal' co-worker, drawing the attention of both their co-workers and families. But these rebellious souls refuse to give in to the rules as they find friendship and love as they've never known.

Priest

Rated PG-13. Screen Gems, Inc., produced in 2011, released in 2011, 87 minutes.

A legendary Warrior Priest from the last Vampire War lives in obscurity among the other downtrodden human inhabitants in walled-in dystopian cities ruled by the Church. When his niece is abducted by a murderous pack of vampires, Priest breaks his sacred vows to venture out on a quest to find her before they turn her into one of them. He is joined by his niece's boyfriend, a trigger-fingered young wasteland sheriff, and a former Warrior Priestess who possesses other worldly fighting skills.

Son of Morning

Rated R. e one, produced in 2011, released in 2011, 80 minutes.

As an environmental catastrophe threatens the world, stressed-out copywriter Phillip is mistakenly christened the next messiah and instantly becomes the most famous man on the planet. Bonus features included.

Super

Rated R. IFC Midnight, produced in 2010, released in 2011, 96 minutes.

When sad-sack loser Frank, a short-order cook, sees his ex-addict wife willingly snatched away by a seductive drug dealer, he finds himself bereft and unable to cope. But he decides to fight back under the guise of a do-it-yourself superhero called Crimson Bolt. With a red handmade suit, a wrench, a crazed sidekick named Boltie, and absolutely nothing in the way of superpowers, Crimson Bolt beats his way through the mean streets of crime in hopes of saving his wife.

Thor (2011)

Rated PG-13. Universal, produced in 2011, released in 2011, 114 minutes.

When the arrogant warrior Thor is banished to Earth from his homeworld of Asgard, he must fight to reclaim his lost powers. Pursued by an invasion force sent to destroy him, the fallen God of Thunder must rise to the battle and learn what it takes to become a true hero. Includes commentary and deleted scenes.

True Legend - A Film by Yuen Woo Ping

Rated R. Vivendi Entertainment, produced in 2010, released in 2011, 116 minutes.

A well-respected martial arts teacher and a good husband and father, Su Can's journey begins when his vengeful brother, Yuan, returns from war. Seeking revenge from a dark family history, Yuan, armed with the Five Venom Fist, destroys Su Can's family and ultimately his dignity. Reduced to a beggar, Su Can finds apprenticeship from Lord Wushu and adapts to a new form of martial arts, the Drunken Fist. Eventually, Su Can returns home to claim retribution and his family honor.

X-Men First Class

Rated PG-13. 20th Century Fox, produced in 2011, released in 2011, 132 minutes.

The thrilling, eye-opening chapter you've been waiting for. Witness the beginning of the X-Men universe. Before Charles Xavier and Erik Lensherr took the names Professor X and Magneto, they were two young men discovering their superhuman powers for the first time, working together in a desperate attempt to stop the Hellfire Club and a global nuclear war.

September 2011

The 5th Quarter

Rated PG. 20th Century Fox, produced in 2010, released in 2011, 89 minutes.

In the spirit of The Blind Side comes this inspiring true story of family, faith, and football. Jon Abbate is a rising football star at Wake Forest University. Lives are suddenly shattered when the family's youngest son, Luke, is killed in a tragic accident. Inspired by Luke's memory, Jon courageously leads the Wake Forest team to a series of last-minute victories - leading to a thrilling climax.

American Loser

Rated R. Lionsgate, released in 2011, 94 minutes.

A hilarious comedy about a young man from the Upper East Side of Manhattan and the gold-digging girl who inspires him to try to get it together.

Bad Teacher

Unrated. Columbia Pictures, produced in 2011, released in 2011, 97 minutes.

Elizabeth is a foul-mouthed, ruthless junior high teacher who can't wait to marry her meal ticket and get out of her bogus day job. When she's dumped by her fiance, she begins to woo a rich, handsome substitute. Competing for his affections is overly energetic colleague Amy. Elizabeth also finds herself fighting off the advances of a sarcastic gym teacher. The consequences of her outrageous schemes give her students, her coworkers, and herself an education like no other.

Beautiful Boy

Rated R. Anchor Bay Films, produced in 2010, released in 2011, 101 minutes.

Bill and Kate hopelessly try to find some hint of an explanation after finding out that their only son committed a mass shooting at his university before taking his own life. They struggle numbly through the funeral, the media onslaught, and the awkward pity from relatives and friends. Their already strained marriage is tested as they realize all they have left with each other is their shared grief and confusion, and the unfortunate legacy of their son.

A Better Life

Rated PG-13. Summit Entertainment, produced in 2011, released in 2011, 98 minutes.

Carlos Galindo always dreamed of a better life for his wife and newborn son when he crossed the border into the U.S. But when his wife left him, Carlos's only goal became to make sure his son Luis was given the opportunities he never had. A story that follows father and son as they embark on a physical and spiritual journey where they discover that family is the most important part of the American dream.

Brand New Day

Rated PG-13. 20th Century Fox, released in 2011, 85 minutes.

A hilariously devout minister is chasing a runaway seminary student named Willie across the land down under. As Willie tries to make it back to the girl of his dreams, he embarks on a glorious, uproarious road trip filled with music, magic and foot-stomping fun.

Captain America - The First Avenger

Rated PG-13. Paramount Home Entertainment, produced in 2011, released in 2011, 123 minutes.

After being deemed unfit for military service, Steve Rogers volunteers to participate in an experimental program that turns him into Captain America, a Super Soldier. Now, as Captain America, Rogers joins forces with Bucky Barnes and Peggy Carter to wage war on the evil HYDRA organization, led by the villainous Red Skull. Special features include commentary, featurettes, and trailers.

A Cinderella Story - Once Upon a Song (Juvenile DVD)

Rated PG. Warner Premiere, produced in 2011, released in 2011, 88 minutes, sales rank: 142

It's a modern and enchanting twist on an enduring classic! Katie dreams of being a recording artist but is continually thwarted by her cruel stepmother and stepsister. When Katie falls hard for Luke, the new boy at her Performing Arts school, she tries to get his attention with her singing. But when her stepsister takes credit for Katie's amazing voice and Luke falls for the wrong girl, Katie must learn to stand up for her dreams. Special features included.

The Entitled

Rated R. Anchor Bay Films, produced in 2010, released in 2011, 91 minutes.

Without the security of the job he wants or the future he dreamed of, Paul Dynan plans the perfect crime to help his struggling family extort a fortune from three wealthy men. The plan: to abduct their socialite children and collect a healthy ransom of three million dollars. Once blood is shed and things go horribly wrong, Paul must fight to stay one step ahead of his own twisted game.

Fast Five (Extended Edition)

Unrated. Universal, produced in 2011, released in 2011, 132 minutes.

After Brian and Mia break Dom out of jail, they find themselves trapped in Rio de Janeiro and on the run from the law. Now one last job stands between them and freedom, but will they make it before the corrupt businessmen, or the feds, catch up to them?

Father of Invention

Rated PG-13. Anchor Bay Films, produced in 2010, released in 2011, 93 minutes.

Robert Axle, an eccentric inventor turned egomaniacal infomercial guru, loses it all when one of his inventions maims thousands of customers. After eight years in prison, Axle is ready to redeem his name and rebuild his billion-dollar empire. But first he must convince his estranged 22-year-old daughter to let him live with her and her quirky, overprotective roommates.

Green Lantern

Rated PG-13. Warner Home Video, produced in 2011, released in 2011, 114 minutes.

In a universe as vast as it is mysterious, a small but powerful force has existed for centuries. Protectors of peace and justice, they are called the Green Lantern Corps. A brotherhood of warriors sworn to keep intergalactic order, each Green Lantern wears a ring that grants him superpowers. When a new enemy called Parallax threatens to destroy the balance of power in the universe, their fate and the fate of Earth lie in the hands of their newest recruit, the first human ever selected.

The Heart Specialist

Rated R. 20th Century Fox, produced in 2011, released in 2011, 100 minutes.

Suave Harvard Medical School grad Ray Howard seems destined to specialize in womanizing. That is, until he heads to Florida to intern under the tutelage of chief resident Dr. Sidney Zachary. With help from his girlfriend, 'Dr. Z' sets out to mold Ray into a caring, responsible doctor. Along the way, he shares some important truths and a whole lot of humor in this sexy romantic comedy.

Horrible Bosses

Rated R. New Line Cinema, produced in 2011, released in 2011, 98 minutes.

For Nick, Kurt, and Dale, the only thing that would make the daily grind more tolerable would be to grind their intolerable bosses into dust. Quitting is not an option, so, with the benefit of a few too many drinks and some dubious advice from a hustling ex-con, the three friends devise a convoluted and seemingly foolproof plan to rid themselves of their respective employers, permanently. There's only one problem: even the best laid plans are only as foolproof as the brains behind them.

Monte Carlo

Rated PG. 20th Century Fox, produced in 2011, released in 2011, 109 minutes.

Get ready for an awesome adventure of a lifetime in Monte Carlo! Grace, a high-spirited high school grad, is looking forward to a vacation in Paris with her best friend Emma and stepsister Meg. Just as the girls think their trip is ruined when their hyperactive tour guide leaves them behind, Grace is mistaken for a wealthy socialite and the trio is whisked away to Monte Carlo for a thrilling week of glitz, glam, and unforgettable fun.

Poetry - A Film by Lee Chang-dong

Kino International, produced in 2011, released in 2011, 139 minutes.

Mija is a beautiful woman in her sixties who moves gracefully through life, contemplating a trivial daily routine that is ill-suited to her refined persona. On a whim, Mija enrolls in a poetry class at the local cultural center and begins a personal quest to find the perfect words to describe her feelings. She appreciates the wonders of the natural world, but a schoolgirl's suicide initiates a chain of tragic events that will change her life forever.

Red State

Rated R. Lions Gate Entertainment, produced in 2011, released in 2011, 88 minutes.

Three teenage boys are lured to the town of Cooper's Dell with the promise of a party. But instead of enjoying the night of their dreams, the teens are plunged into the nightmarish world of Pastor Abin Cooper and the Five Points Trinity, a fundamentalist group with a stockpile of weaponry and a deadly moral agenda. When word of the teens' disappearance reaches the authorities, a military task force is mobilized.

Scream 4

Rated R. Anchor Bay Entertainment, produced in 2011, released in 2011, 111 minutes.

The newest installment in the acclaimed franchise that ushered in a new wave of horror in the 1990s. In Scream 4, Sidney Prescott, now the author of a self-help book, returns home to Woodsboro on the last stop of her book tour. There she reconnects with Sheriff Dewey and Gale, who are now married, as well as her cousin Jill. Unfortunately, Sidney's appearance also brings about the return of Ghost Face, putting her friends and the whole town of Woodsboro in danger.

Skateland

Rated PG-13. 20th Century Fox, produced in 2011, released in 2011, 98 minutes.

For Ritchie Wheeler, a carefree teenager growing up in a small Texas town, Skateland is more than just a local roller rink, it's a fading symbol of friendship and good times. Now, everything's changing and the only thing Ritchie can hang on to is his budding romance with the sweet and beautiful Michelle. But one fateful night will force Ritchie to face the future and make the most important decision of his life

The Strange Case of Angelica

Not Rated. Cinema Guild, produced in 2010, released in 2011, 97 minutes.

A magical tale about a young photographer who falls madly in love with a woman he can never have, except in his dreams. Late one night, Isaac is summoned by a wealthy family to take the last photograph of a young bride, Angelica, who mysteriously passed away. Arriving at their estate, Isaac is struck by Angelica's beauty. But when he looks through his lens, the young woman appears to come to life. From that moment, Isaac will be haunted by Angelica day and night.

The Trip

Not rated. IFC Films, produced in 2010, released in 2011, 112 minutes.

When Steve Coogan is asked by The Observer to tour the country's finest restaurants, he envisions it as the perfect getaway with his beautiful girlfriend. But when she backs out on him, he has no one to accompany him but his best friend and source of eternal aggravation, Rob Brydon.

Zookeeper

Rated PG. Columbia Pictures, produced in 2011, released in 2011, 102 minutes.

The animals at the Franklin Park Zoo love their kindhearted caretaker, Griffin Keyes. Finding himself more comfortable with a lion than a lady, Griffin decides the only way to get a girl in his life is to leave the zoo and find a more glamorous job. The animals, in a panic, decide to break their time-honored code of silence and reveal their biggest secret: they can talk! To keep Griffin from leaving, they decide to teach him the rules of courtship, animal style.

August 2011

BangBang Club

Rated R. e one, produced in 2011, released in 2011, 108 minutes.

As apartheid comes to a violent end, four fearless photographers, bonded by their friendship and a sense of purpose, risk their lives to capture the bloody struggle and expose the truth.

The Beaver

Rated PG-13. Summit Entertainment, produced in 2011, released in 2011, 91 minutes.

Walter, once a successful and happy family man, has hit rock bottom. But, in his darkest hour, he finds a rather unusual savior: a beaver hand-puppet that takes over Walter's life in an attempt to change things for the better.

Bloodworth

Rated R. Sony Pictures Home Entertainment, produced in 2010, released in 2011, 95 minutes.

After forty years of roaming, E.F. Bloodworth returns to Tennessee. Once home he discovers the wife he deserted has withered and faded, and his three sons are now grown and deal with extreme anger issues. The only person who gives him the respect his age deserves is his grandson Fleming, who sees how hatred has poisoned more than one man's soul. Ultimately, Fleming will meet Raven Lee, a beauty from another town, who will give him the courage to reject the family curse.

Cell 211 (Spanish)

Not rated. Kim Stim, produced in 2009, released in 2011, 111 minutes.

On his first day on the job, prison officer Juan Olivier is knocked unconscious in a freak accident and his co-workers carry him to an empty cell. When he awakens, Juan discovers that he has been abandoned in the middle of a riot in a high-security cellblock, home to the prison's most dangerous criminals. If they discover he's a guard, he's dead meat. To survive, Juan must pose as a prisoner and conspire with the riot's vicious leader, Malamadre.

The Conspirator

Rated PG-13. Lions Gate Entertainment, produced in 2010, released in 2011, 122 minutes.

Behind the story you've always heard about Abraham Lincoln's assassination, comes the thrilling true story about the people accused of conspiring to take down a government. In the wake of Abraham Lincoln's assassination, seven men and one woman are arrested and charged with conspiring to kill the president, vice president, and secretary of state. The lone woman charged, Mary Surratt, owns a boarding house where John Wilkes Booth planned the simultaneous attacks.

Grace Card

Rated PG-13. Sony Pictures Home Entertainment, produced in 2010, released in 2011, 102 minutes.

Police officer Mac McDonald's life is shattered when a tragic accident takes the life of his son. Years later, Mac's bitterness and pain have eroded his love for his family, strained his relationships on the force, and left him angry with God. When Mac gets partnered up in the squad car with Sam Wright, an African-American ordained minister turned cop, will the two be able to join forces and help one another when it's impossible to look past their differences? Includes commentary, and more.

Henry's Crime

Rated R. 20th Century Fox, produced in 2010, released in 2011, 108 minutes.

Henry Torne is a wrongly accused man who winds up behind bars for a bank robbery he didn't commit. After befriending a charismatic lifer in prison, Henry finds his purpose" having done the time, he decides he may as well do the crime. But his outlandish plan to rob the very same bank spins wildly out of control, as he finds himself performing in a stage play and falling in love with the production's seductive leading lady.

Hoodwinked Too! Hood vs. Evil (Juvenile)

Rated PG Anchor Bay Entertainment, produced in 2011, released in 2011, 87 minutes.

Red is training with a mysterious covert group called the Sisters of the Hood. But she is forced to cut her training short when she gets an urgent call from Nicky Flippers, the head of the super secret Happily Ever After Agency. A wicked witch has abducted two innocent children, Hansel and Gretel, and Nicky needs the whole Hoodwinked gang, Red, Granny, the ever-clueless Wolf, and his over-caffeinated little partner, Twitchy, for the search and rescue mission.

I Will Follow

Not rated. One Village Entertainment, produced in 2011, released in 2011, 80 minutes.

Maye is a success with a hot career and very hot boyfriend. But when her world is turned upside down by tragedy, she must struggle to keep her balance.

Jane Eyre (2011)

Rated PG-13. Universal, produced in 2011, released in 2011, 121 minutes.

When orphaned governess Jane Eyre arrives at imposing Thornfield Hall, she's intrigued by her brooding, wealthy employer, Rochester. His dark moods and the strange occurrences in the house lead her to discover a terrible secret that he had hoped to hide from her forever.

Jumping the Broom

Rated PG-13. Tri Star, produced in 2011, released in 2011, 112 minutes.

On a weekend wedding in Martha's Vineyard, two African-American families from divergent socioeconomic backgrounds clash during their first meeting before the big event. Special features include commentary, behind the scenes, and more.

Lebanon. PA.

Rated PG-13. Monarch Home Entertainment, produced in 2010, released in 2011, 100 minutes.

When Will leaves Philadelphia to bury his recently deceased father in small-town Lebanon, he forms an unexpected friendship with CJ, his bright, newly pregnant 17-year-old cousin. As Will becomes interested in CJ's married teacher and CJ confronts her conflicted father, both struggle with decisions about the future paths their lives will take. Lebanon, PA tenderly explores the cultural divide in America through the lives of one extended family.

Lou

Not rated. Monarch Home Entertainment, produced in 2010, released in 2011, 86 minutes.

Is a tender story about the relationship between Lou and her grandmother. Not long after eleven-year-old Lou's father walks out of her life, her irascible and befuddled grandfather crashes in. But when Doyle comes to stay, Lou discovers, against all her expectations, the healing power of love.

Mars needs Moms (Juvenile)

Rated PG. Disney, produced in 2011, released in 2011, 88 minutes.

Take out the trash, eat your broccoli. Who needs moms, anyway? Nine-year-old Milo finds out just how much he needs his mom when she's nabbed by Martians, who plan to steal her mom-ness for their own young. Milo's quest to save his mom involves stowing away on a spaceship, navigating an elaborate, multi-level planet, and taking on the alien nation and their leader.

No Eres Tu Soy Yo (It's Not You, It's Me)

Rated PG-13. Pantelion Televisa / Lionsgate, produced in 2010, released in 2011, 100 minutes.

A romantic comedy that tells the hilarious story of Javier, whose marriage is perfect until his wife suddenly decides to leave. What's a lonely romantic to do? Join Javier as he seeks counseling from professionals, ex-girlfriends, and potential new girlfriends. You'll cry mostly from laughing at this classic Derbez comedy.

The Other Woman

Rated R. IFC Films, produced in 2009, released in 2011, 102 minutes.

Emilia, a law school graduate, falls in love with her married boss, Jack. After they marry, her happiness turns unexpectedly to grief following the death of her infant daughter. Devastated, Emilia nonetheless carries on, attempting to forge a connection with her stepson William and to resist the interference of Jack's jealous ex-wife.

Outside the Law

Rated R. Cohen Media Group, produced in 2010, released in 2011, 139 minutes.

Three brothers. One destiny. Freedom at all costs. The story of three brothers fighting for Algeria's independence from France after World War II. Nominated for the Best Foreign Language Film Academy Award,

Paul

Rated R. Universal, produced in 2011, released in 2011, 110 minutes.

Two sci-fi geeks take a pilgrimage to America's UFO heartland. There they meet a smart-aleck alien, Paul, who takes them on an insane road trip. As they struggle to return Paul home, the little green man might just take the outcasts from misfits to intergalactic heroes.

Phantom Pain

Not rated. e one, produced in 1996, released in 2011, 98 minutes.

A passionate cyclist and urban slacker sees his life change in an instant when he loses his left leg. But through love, willpower, and introspection, he overcomes the challenge.

Rango

Rated PG. Paramount Home Entertainment, produced in 2011, released in 2011, 107 minutes.

Rango, a kooky pet chameleon, accidentally winds up in the gritty, gun-slinging town of Dirt, a lawless outpost populated by the desert's most wily and whimsical creatures. Welcomed as the last hope the town has been waiting for, new Sheriff Rango is forced to play his new role to the hilt, until he starts to become the hero he once only pretended to be. Special features: commentary, deleted scenes with an all-new ending, a featurette, and previews.

Rio

Rated G. 20th Century Fox, produced in 2011, released in 2011, 96 minutes.

A comedy-adventure that centers on Blu, a flightless macaw who acts more human than bird. When Blu, the last of his kind, discovers there's another, and that she's a she, he embarks on an adventure to magical Rio. There he meets Jewel and a menagerie of vivid characters who help Blu fulfill his dream and learn to fly.

Something Borrowed

Rated PG-13. Alcon Entertainment, produced in 2011, released in 2011, 112 minutes.

Rachel is a generous and loyal pal to her engaged best friend Darcy. But after celebrating her 30th birthday, perpetual good girl Rachel unexpectedly ends up in the arms of Dex, the guy she's had a crush on since law school, and who happens to be Darcy's fiance. In the frantic weeks leading up to Darcy's wedding, Rachel finds herself caught between her longtime friendship with Darcy and the prospect of losing the love of her life.

Soul Surfer

Rated PG. Sony Pictures Home Entertainment, produced in 2011, released in 2011, 106 minutes.

Teen surfer Bethany Hamilton loses her arm in a shark attack and courageously overcomes all odds to become a champion again, through her sheer determination and unwavering faith. Special features include: deleted scenes, documentary, and featurettes.

Stake Land

Rated R. Dark Sky Films, produced in 2010, released in 2011, 98 minutes.

America has fallen. A vampiric scourge sweeps the nation, turning brother on brother and parent on child as the blood-hungry beasts take deeper and deeper hold upon the land. It's hard for the survivors to know whether to be more afraid of the creatures themselves or the violent religious groups that have sprung up in response, but there is clearly only one choice: fight or die.

Tyler Perry's Madea's big happy family

Rated PG-13. Lions Gate Entertainment, produced in 2011, released in 2011, 107 minutes.

Madea, everyone's favorite wise-cracking, take-no-prisoners grandma, jumps into action when her niece, Shirley, receives distressing news about her health. All Shirley wants is to gather her three adult children around her and share the news as a family. It's up to Madea, with the help of the equally rambunctious Aunt Bam, to gather the clan together and make things right the only way she knows how: with a lot of tough love, laughter, and the revelation of a long-buried family secret.

White Irish Drinkers

Rated R. Screen Media Films, produced in 2010, released in 2011, 109 minutes, sales rank: 931 ,

A coming-of-age story set in 1975 working-class Brooklyn, in which two teenage brothers living with their abusive father and their well-meaning but ineffective mother are caught up in a life of petty crime. Older brother Danny concocts a daring scheme to steal enough money for the two to escape, timed around the chaos of an upcoming Rolling Stones concert.

Win Win

Rated R. 20th Century Fox, produced in 2011, released in 2011, 106 minutes.

Mike Flaherty is a lovable yet long-suffering lawyer and high school wrestling coach. When he comes across a teenage runaway who also happens to be a champion wrestler, Mike's luck turns around in spectacular fashion. But his win-win situation soon becomes more complicated than he ever imagined when the boy's family affairs come into play.

Your Highness

Not rated. Universal, produced in 2011, released in 2011, 106 minutes.

Two royal princes - weed-smoking slacker Thadeous and the noble Fabious - join with an elusive warrior on a quest to free a princess from an evil wizard. Along the way, they'll have to vanquish horrific creatures and traitorous knights in this raunchy trip loaded with footage too outrageous for theaters. Contains the R rated version as well as the Unrated version.

JULY 2011

3 Backyards

Rated R. Screen Media Films, produced in 2010, released in 2011, 88 minutes.

The story of three residents of the same suburban town over the course of one seemingly perfect yet curious autumn day.

Arthur (2011)

Rated PG-13. Warner Home Video, produced in 2011, released in 2011, 110 minutes.

Lovable billionaire Arthur Bach has always relied on his limitless fortune and nanny Hobson to keep him out of trouble. Now he faces his biggest challenge. He must choose between an arranged marriage that will ensure his lavish lifestyle or an uncertain future with the one thing money can't buy: Naomi, the only woman he has ever loved. With Naomi's inspiration and some unconventional help from Hobson, Arthur will finally learn what it means to become a man. Includes gag reel and more.

The Boy Next Door

Rated PG-13. First Look Studios, released in 2010, 89 minutes.

World-renowned murder-mystery writer Sara Wylde travels to the small town of Christina Lake in search of inspiration to write her next novel. Sara gets more than she bargained for when she meets her neighbor, a young, handsome, and wealthy man who quickly becomes her muse. Her novel develops effortlessly as she spies on him from her upstairs window each night. But when the man mysteriously turns up dead, Sara becomes the lead suspect in his murder case.

Desert Flower

Rated R. Virgil Films, produced in 2009, released in 2011, 120 minutes.

It tells the story of a girl who, at the age of 13, runs away from home across the Somali desert after being promised to be a man's fourth wife. She is eventually discovered by famous fashion photographer Terry Donaldson, who, after taking some photographs of her, launches her career as an international supermodel. Marie Claire magazine arranged an interview to uncover the day that changed Waris' life. The story that they were told is one they did not suspect.

Dylan Dog - Dead of Night

Rated PG-13. 20th Century Fox, produced in 2010, released in 2011, 108 minutes.

Dylan Dog is a world famous private detective who specializes in the supernatural. Armed with an edgy wit and carrying an arsenal of silver and wood-tipped bullets, Dylan must track down a dangerous artifact before a war ensues between his werewolf, vampire, and zombie clients living undercover in the monster-infested backstreets of New Orleans.

Insidious

Rated PG-13. Sony Pictures Home Entertainment, produced in 2010, released in 2011, 102 minutes.

Insidious is the terrifying story of a family who, shortly after moving, discovers that dark spirits have possessed their home and that their son has inexplicably fallen into a coma. Trying to escape the haunting and save their son, they move again only to realize that it was not their house that was haunted.

Limitless

Rated PG-13. 20th Century Fox, produced in 2011, released in 2011, 105 minutes.

Eddie Morra, a burnt-out writer, discovers a top-secret pill that unlocks 100% of his brain's capacity. He instantly acquires mind-bending talents and mesmerizing visions that bring him big money, beautiful women, and limitless success. But his dream life soon becomes a waking nightmare, as the drug's brutal side effects take their toll and Eddie finds himself entangled with a cunning Wall Street power broker who wants everything Eddie has and more.

The Lincoln Lawyer

Rated R. Lionsgate, produced in 2011, released in 2011, 119 minutes.

Michael 'Mick' Haller is a slick, charismatic Los Angeles criminal defense attorney who operates out of the back of his Lincoln Town Car. Having spent most of his career defending petty, gutter-variety criminals, Mick unexpectedly lands the case of a lifetime. However, what initially appears to be a straightforward case with a big money payoff swiftly develops into a deadly match between two masters of manipulation and a crisis of conscience for Haller.

Peep World

Not rated. IFC Films, produced in 2010, released in 2011, 79 minutes.

At a dinner celebrating their father's 70th birthday, tensions among four siblings explode, thanks to the success of the youngest son's new novel, a thinly veiled portrait of the family. The best selling expose reveals the oldest, 'responsible' son as a porn addict, the daughter as a catty drama queen, and the third son as a living disaster with a loony plan to change his life around. And things aren't exactly going so great for the hot writer due to a bad reaction to a certain men's medication.

Potiche (Trophy Wife)(French)

Rated R. Music Box Films, produced in 2011, released in 2011, 103 minutes.

A housebound 'trophy housewife' (or 'potiche') steps in to manage the umbrella factory run by her tyrannical husband after the workers go on strike. To everyone's surprise, Suzanne proves herself a competent and assertive woman of action

Rango

Rated PG. Paramount Home Entertainment, produced in 2011, released in 2011, 107 minutes.

Rango, a kooky pet chameleon, accidentally winds up in the gritty, gun-slinging town of Dirt, a lawless outpost populated by the desert's most wily and whimsical creatures. Welcomed as the last hope the town has been waiting for, new Sheriff Rango is forced to play his new role to the hilt, until he starts to become the hero he once only pretended to be. Special features: commentary, deleted scenes with an all-new ending, a featurette, and previews.

Secret of Arrow Lake

Not rated. Pure Flix Entertainment, produced in 2009, released in 2011, 83 minutes.

Raised at the family bed and breakfast by a single mom, Mia grows up believing her father was lost, M.I.A. in the Gulf War. With her mother's sudden death, Mia has to care for the B&B by herself. A hard-edged businessman from New York arrives at the B&B and Mia suspects he may be her lost father. Bonus features include: a making-of featurette, behind the scenes, and trailers.

Source Code

Rated PG-13. Summit Entertainment, produced in 2011, released in 2011, 94 minutes.

When Captain Colter Stevens wakes up in the body of an unknown man, he discovers he's part of an experimental government program that enables him to cross over into another man's identity in the last eight minutes of his life. In order to identify the bomber of a Chicago commuter train, he must relive the incident over and over again, gathering clues to prevent an even deadlier second terrorist attack.

Take me Home Tonight

Rated R. 20th Century Fox, produced in 2011, released in 2011, 97 minutes

When Matt Franklin's high school crush Tori shows up at his dead-end mall job, he and his buddy Barry devise a wild scheme for Matt to finally win the girl of his dreams. But only time will tell if Matt can seduce this gorgeous goddess at a wild party and survive an outrageous night of seduction, destruction, and debauchery.

JUNE 2011

The Adjustment Bureau

Rated PG-13. Universal, produced in 2011, released in 2011, 106 minutes.

A man glimpses the future fate has planned for him and chooses to fight for his own destiny. Battling the powerful Adjustment Bureau across, under, and through the streets of New York, he risks his destined greatness to be with the only woman he's ever loved.

Battle : Los Angeles

Rated PG-13. Columbia Pictures, produced in 2011, released in 2011, 116 minutes.

For years, there have been documented cases of UFO sightings around the world. But in 2011, what were once just sightings will become a terrifying reality when Earth is attacked by unknown forces. As people everywhere watch the world's great cities fall, Los Angeles becomes the last stand for mankind in a battle no one expected. It's up to a Marine staff sergeant and his new platoon to draw a line in the sand as they take on an enemy unlike any they've ever encountered before.

Beastly

Rated PG-13. Sony Pictures Home Entertainment, produced in 2011, released in 2011, 86 minutes.

Kyle Kingson has it all, including a wicked cruel streak. He zeroes in on goth classmate Kendra, inviting her to the school's extravagant bash. After she accepts, he blows her off in a very cruel fashion. She retaliates by casting a spell that physically transforms him into everything he hates. Enraged by his horrible appearance he confronts Kendra and learns that the only way to break the curse is to find someone that will love him as he is, which is something he considers impossible.

Bending all the rules

Rated R. Lions Gate Entertainment, released in 2011, 87 minutes.

Smart, sexy and free-spirited, Kenna drifts from one boyfriend to the next, leaving any relationship that threatens to distract her from her dream: having an exhibition of her photography. But just as Kenna is offered her first show, her cool and casual personal life turns hot and heavy! Suddenly, Kenna is being pursued by two very special and very different men: Jeff, a sensitive, struggling DJ, and Martin, a slick and powerful businessman.

Big Momma's Like Father Like Son

Rated PG-13. 20th Century Fox, produced in 2011, released in 2011, 107 minutes.

After stints as an undercover grandmother and an undercover nanny, FBI agent Malcolm Turner adds 'undercover housemother' to his resume. In this hefty new comedy, Big Momma is hired to go deep undercover as the Headmistress of the Atlanta Girls' School for the Arts. Turner brings along his son to go undercover as a student in the school with hilarious results.

Cedar Rapids

Rated R. 20th Century Fox, produced in 2011, released in 2011, 87 minutes.

A small-town, naive, Midwestern insurance agent must represent his company at a regional insurance convention in Cedar Rapids, Iowa, where his mind is blown by the big-city experience. Before long, he is crashing parties, skinny-dipping in the hotel pool, and being seduced by a sexy soccer mom. If he can survive the weekend, he might just change his life forever!

The Company Men

Rated R. The Weinstein Company, produced in 2010, released in 2011, 105 minutes.

Bobby Walker is living the proverbial American dream: great job, beautiful family, shiny Porsche in the garage. When corporate downsizing leaves him and co-workers Phil Woodward and Gene McClary jobless, the three men are forced to redefine their lives as men, husbands, and fathers. Bobby soon finds himself enduring enthusiastic life coaching, a job building houses for his brother-in-law that does not play to his executive skill set, and perhaps there is more to life.

Diary of a Wimpy Kid - Rodrick Rules

Rated PG. 20th Century Fox, produced in 2011, released in 2011, 99 minutes.

Back in middle school after summer vacation, Greg Heffley and his older brother Rodrick must deal with their parents' misguided attempts to have them bond.

The Eagle

Unrated. Universal, produced in 2011, released in 2011, 114 minutes.

In 140 AD, twenty years after the unexplained disappearance of the entire Ninth Legion in the mountains of Scotland, young centurion Marcus Aquila arrives from Rome to solve the mystery and restore the reputation of his father, the commander of the Ninth. Accompanied only by his British slave Esca, Marcus sets out across Hadrian's Wall into the uncharted highlands of Caledonia to confront its savage tribes, make peace with his father's memory, and retrieve the lost legion's golden emblem.

Hall Pass

Rated R. New Line Cinema, produced in 2011, released in 2011, 105 minutes.

Rick and Fred are best friends who have a lot in common, including the fact that they have each been married for many years. But when the two men begin to show signs of restlessness at home, their wives take a bold approach to revitalizing their individual marriages: granting them a 'hall pass,' one week of freedom to do whatever they want, no questions asked.

Happythankyoumoreplease

Rated R. Anchor Bay Films, produced in 2010, released in 2011, 98 minutes.

A sharp comedy centered on a group of 20-something New Yorkers struggling to figure out themselves, their lives, and their loves. Featuring a brilliant young cast and music from breaking indie musicians, it deftly captures the uncertainty and angst of what it is to be young, vulnerable, and desperate to find out who you are - or, perhaps more importantly, who you want to be.

Immigration Tango

Rated R. Lions Gate Entertainment, produced in 2010, released in 2011, 92 minutes.

An American couple and a foreign couple test the limits of friendship and love when they switch partners and get married for green cards in this fun and flirty romantic comedy that earned Best Picture at the Boston International Film Festival.

Just go with it

Rated PG-13. Columbia Pictures, produced in 2011, released in 2011, 116 minutes.

A plastic surgeon who is romancing a much younger schoolteacher enlists his loyal assistant to pretend to be his soon-to-be ex-wife in order to cover up a careless lie. When more lies backfire, the assistant's kids become involved, and everyone heads off for a weekend in Hawaii that will change all their lives. Special features include: commentary, and featurettes.

Kill the Irishman : the war that crippled the Mafia

Rated R. Anchor Bay Films, produced in 2011, released in 2011, 106 minutes.

Over the summer of 1976, thirty-six bombs detonate in the heart of Cleveland while a turf war rages between Irish mobster Danny Greene and the Italian mafia. Chronicles Greene's heroic rise from a tough Cleveland neighborhood to become an enforcer in the local mob. Turning the tables on loan shark Shondor Birns and allying himself with gangster John Nardi, Greene stops taking orders from the mafia and pursues his own power.

A Matador's Mistress

Not rated. Xenon Pictures, produced in 2008, released in 2011, 92 minutes.

The story of legendary Spanish matador Manolete and his romantic quest for his hot-tempered girlfriend Lupe Sino's heart, which continued until 1947, when he died in the bull ring at age 30.

Red Riding Hood

Rated PG-13. Warner Home Video, produced in 2011, released in 2011, 100 minutes.

Valerie is a beautiful young woman torn between two men. She is in love with a brooding outsider, Peter, but her parents have arranged for her to marry the wealthy Henry. Unwilling to lose each other, Valerie and Peter are planning to run away together when they learn that Valerie's older sister has been killed by the werewolf that prowls the dark forest surrounding their village.

Sanctum

Rated R. Universal, produced in 2011, released in 2011, 109 minutes.

A thrilling underwater adventure based on true events. Master diver Frank McGuire leads a team - including his 17-year-old son - to explore the largest, most beautiful, and least accessible cave system on Earth. But when a tropical storm cuts off their only escape route, the team must work together to find their way through an uncharted and dangerous underwater labyrinth to make it out alive. With time running out, can they survive, or will they be trapped forever?

Season of the Witch

Rated PG-13. 20th Century Fox, produced in 2011, released in 2011, 95 minutes.

Fourteenth century Crusaders return to a homeland devastated by the Black Plague. A beleaguered church, deeming sorcery the culprit of the plague, commands two knights to transport an accused witch to a remote abbey, where monks will perform a ritual in hopes of ending the pestilence.

Shadows and Lies

Rated R. Millennium Entertainment, produced in 2011, released in 2011, 100 minutes, sales rank: 847

Vincent, a criminal with a past shrouded in mystery, falls in love with a notorious gangster's call girl. He is forced to leave the city when his affair is exposed, but four years later he returns with a plan to save his true love from her life in the mobster's underworld.

Sucker Punch

Rated PG-13. Warner Home Video, produced in 2011, released in 2011, 110 minutes.

Set in the 1950s, it tells the story of Baby Doll in a mental institution, where she creates an alternate reality. She plans to escape from that imaginary world, but to do that she needs to steal five objects before she is captured by an unknown adversary.

True Grit (2011)

Rated PG-13. Paramount Home Entertainment, produced in 2010, released in 2011, 110 minutes.

Mattie Ross is determined to avenge her father's blood by capturing Tom Chaney, the man who shot and killed him for two pieces of gold. Just fourteen, she enlists the help of Rooster Cogburn, a one-eyed, trigger-happy U.S. Marshal with an affinity for drinking, and hardened Texas Ranger LaBoeuf to track the fleeing Chaney. Despite their differences, their ruthless determination leads them on a perilous adventure that can only have one outcome: retribution. Special features include featurettes.

Undertow

Not rated. Wolfe Video LLC, produced in 2009, released in 2011, 100 minutes.

In a tiny Peruvian seaside village where traditions run deep, Miguel, a young fisherman, and his beautiful bride, Mariela, are about to welcome their first child. But Miguel harbors a scandalous secret. He's in love with Santiago, a painter, who is ostracized by the town because he's gay. After a tragic accident occurs, Miguel must choose between sentencing Santiago to eternal torment or doing right by him and, in turn, revealing their relationship to Mariela and the entire village.

Wake Wood

Rated R. Dark Sky Films, produced in 2011, released in 2011, 90 minutes.

Still grieving the death of nine-year-old Alice, who was killed by a savage dog, Pat and Louise relocate to the remote town of Wake Wood where they learn of a pagan ritual that will allow them three more days with Alice. The couple find the idea disturbing and exciting in equal measure, but once they agree to the terms with the village's leader, a far bigger question looms: what will they do when it is time for Alice to go back?

The Warrior's Way

Rated R. 20th Century Fox, produced in 2010, released in 2011, 100 minutes.

A samurai warrior-assassin is forced to hide in a small Western town in the American Badlands. Soon the hunter becomes the hunted and now the warrior must wage a fierce, all-out battle against a renegade gang of outlaws and a pack of murderous assassins from his own past.

White Lightnin'

Not rated. Sundance Selects, produced in 2009, released in 2011, 92 minutes, sales rank: 8965 ,

Despite his father D-Ray's efforts to reign the boy in, Jesco White was bound for a life spent bouncing among reform school, mental institutions, and prison, securing his place in the underground hall of fame.

MAY 2011

3 Idiots

Rated PG-13. 20th Century Fox, produced in 2009, released in 2011, 164 minutes.

Rascal. Joker. Dreamer. Genius. You've never met a college student quite like 'Rancho.' From the moment he arrives at India's most prestigious university, Rancho's outlandish schemes turn the campus upside down - along with the lives of his two newfound best friends. Together, they make life miserable for 'Virus,' the school's uptight and heartless dean. But when Rancho catches the eye of the dean's sexy daughter, Virus sets his sights on flunking out the three idiots, once and for all.

Anton Chekhov's The Duel

Music Box Films, produced in 2010, released in 2011, 95 minutes.

Escalating animosity between two men with opposing philosophies of life is played out against the backdrop of a decaying seaside resort along the Black Sea coast. Laevsky is a dissipated romantic given to gambling and flirtation. He has run off to the sea with beautiful, emotionally empty Nadya, another man's wife. Laevsky has now grown tired of her, but two obstacles block his route to escape: he is broke, and he faces the absolute enmity of Von Koren.

Army of Crime

Not rated. Lorber Films, produced in 2010, released in 2011, 138 minutes.

In Paris, 1941, Armenian poet Missak Manouchian leads a motley crew of foreign-born resistance fighters in clandestine battle against the Nazi occupation. An initially reluctant Manouchian and his team must resort to guerilla tactics and radical measures in the name of liberty. News of their daring attacks, including the assassination of an SS general, eventually reaches Berlin.

Biutiful

Rated R. Lions Gate Entertainment, produced in 2010, released in 2011, 147 minutes.

Uxbal is a man on the wrong side of the law who struggles to provide for his children on the dangerous streets of Barcelona. As fate encircles him, Uxbal learns to accept the realities of life, whether bright, bad, or biutiful.

Black Death

Rated R. Magnet, produced in 2010, released in 2011, 102 minutes.

The year is 1348. Europe has fallen under the shadow of the Black Death. As the plague decimates all in its path, fear and superstition are rife. There are rumors of a village, hidden in marshland that the plague cannot reach. There is even talk of a necromancer who leads the village and is able to bring the dead back to life. Ulric, a fearsome knight, is charged by the church to investigate these rumors.

Blue Valentine

Rated R. Anchor Bay Entertainment, produced in 2010, released in 2011, 112 minutes.

An honest, moving, and uninhibited love story. The uncompromising portrait of Dean and Cindy, a young married couple who have grown apart, taking one night away from their daughter to try to save their relationship. Highlighted by provocative scenes alternately intimate and intense, the film captured audiences and critics alike.

Burning Palms

Rated R. Image Entertainment, produced in 2010, released in 2011, 112 minutes.

Five stories so twisted, they could only take place in Los Angeles. A father's relationship with his precocious teenage daughter is too close for comfort for his fiancée. A woman becomes undone by her boyfriend's kinky bedroom request. A gay couple brings home the ultimate lifestyle accessory: an African child. An unsupervised young boy leads his brothers in disturbing games. A lonely woman confronts her attacker with a bizarre request.

Cougars Inc.

Rated R. Lionsgate, produced in 2010, released in 2011, 82 minutes.

Sam has been kicked out of every school across the country. When he learns that his mother can no longer afford to keep him in school, he and his friends start their own escort service, Cougars, Inc., to help pay for his tuition. Through this hilarious new job, Sam and his friends explore the generation of 'Cougars' who are desperately trying to stay young, and love every lesson they are taught. Special features include commentary, a featurette, and a trailer gallery.

Cross

Rated R. Sony Pictures Home Entertainment, produced in 2011, released in 2011, 105 minutes.

Callan was given extraordinary power through an ancient Celtic cross. Along with a team of weapons experts, he will use that power to battle evil and an unstoppable empire in Los Angeles. Special features include commentary, alternate ending, deleted scenes, and more.

Cutback

Bridgestone Multimedia Group, produced in 2010, released in 2011, 87 minutes.

High school senior Luke Harris has dreams of being a pro surfer, but his parents want him to focus on picking a college. So, when Luke learns that a spot is opening on the local surf team, he sees his big chance to prove to them that he can make it as a surfer. However, Luke must first beat out the new surfing sensation, Matt, who has his own set of eyes on the open spot.

Daydream Nation

Rated R. Anchor Bay Entertainment, produced in 2010, released in 2011, 98 minutes.

Seventeen-year-old Caroline Wexler is facing a teenager's nightmare: her widowed father has moved them from the city to a tiny nowhere town. When Caroline realizes she has nothing in common with the permanently stoned kids that populate her new school, she pursues the one person she connects with, her handsome young teacher, Mr. Anderson. A bizarre love triangle ensues between Caroline, Mr. Anderson, and a stoner classmate.

Dean Spanley

Alliance, produced in 2008, released in 2011, 100 minutes.

Set in Edwardian England, where upper lips are always stiff and men from the Colonies are not entirely to be trusted, Fisk Senior has little time or affection for his son, but when the pair visits an eccentric Indian, they start a strange journey that eventually allows the old man to find his heart.

Desert Son

Not rated. Breaking Glass Pictures, produced in 2010, released in 2011, 93 minutes.

High school student Phillip finds himself cruelly cast into a game of life or death. Left for days without food or water, he eventually collapses and gives up hope, until a beautiful orphan girl named Lucy comes to his rescue. Lucy welcomes Phillip into her makeshift home in a decaying ghost town where she lives with her boyfriend Jack. Far from society, the three runaways patrol the desert on bike and live as petty thieves.

The Dilemma

Rated PG-13. Universal, produced in 2011, released in 2011, 112 minutes.

Ronny's world is turned upside down when he inadvertently sees something he should not have and makes it his mission to get answers. As the amateur investigation dissolves his world into comic mayhem, he learns that his best friend Nick has a few secrets of his own. Now, Ronny must decide what will happen if he reveals the truth.

Drive Angry

Rated R. Summit Entertainment, produced in 2011, released in 2011, 105 minutes.

An undead felon breaks out of Hell to avenge his murdered daughter and rescue her kidnapped baby from a band of cult-worshipping savages. Joined by tough-as-nails Piper, the two set off on a rampage of redemption, all while being pursued by an enigmatic killer who has been sent by the Devil to retrieve Milton and deliver him back to Hell.

Fish Tank

Mongrel, produced in 2009, released in 2010, 123 minutes.

Fifteen-year-old Mia Williams is at war with the world. She's been kicked out of school and spends her days drinking and dancing to hip-hop tunes in an abandoned apartment. Music feels like Mia's only escape from fueding with her sister and scornful mother.

Four Lions

Rated R. Alamo Drafthouse Films, produced in 2010, released in 2011, 102 minutes.

A whip-smart, laugh-out-loud comedy that takes aim at the war on terror. Follow five clueless buffoons as they plan to strike a blow on their own turf, showing that while terrorism is supposed to be about ideology, it can also be about idiots.

From Prada to Nada

Rated PG-13. Lionsgate, produced in 2011, released in 2011, 106 minutes.

Nora and Mary only know the good life in Beverly Hills - shopping, posh parties, and more shopping - but they're in for a big shock when Daddy's fortune suddenly disappears. Thankfully, an aunt takes them under her wing but she lives on the other side of town. Laugh out loud as these princesses embark on the biggest adventure of their lives, without designer labels!

Gnomeo & Juliet

Rated G. Touchstone Home Video, produced in 2011, released in 2011, 84 minutes.

Caught up in a feud between neighbors, Gnomeo and Juliet must overcome as many obstacles as their namesakes. But with flamboyant pink flamingoes and epic lawnmower races, can this young couple find lasting happiness? Complete with hilarious never-before-seen bonus features, an out-of-the-ordinary animated comedy your entire family will love. We just gnome it! Features music from Sir Elton John.

God Went Surfing with the Devil

Not rated. Cinema Libre Studio, released in 2011, 84 minutes.

An inspirational film that charts the difficulties and dangers encountered by surfers in Gaza and how a non-profit group would attempt to deliver 23 surfboards into the region. Along the way, Israelis, Arab-Israelis, and Palestinians who are affected by the violence speak candidly about their daily struggle to supersede the conflict through the pure joy of surfing.

The Green Hornet (2011)

Rated PG-13. Columbia Pictures, produced in 2011, released in 2011, 119 minutes.

Britt Reid is a rich playboy with a directionless life. After his father dies, Britt inherits his vast media empire, where he meets employee Kato. The two realize that they have a chance to do something worthwhile with their lives by fighting crime, so Britt becomes the Green Hornet. With the help of Britt's secretary, the two begin hunting down Benjamin Chudnofsky, the man who controls LA's gritty underworld. But Chudnofsky has plans of his own: to swat down the Green Hornet once and for all.

The Hit List

Rated R. Sony Pictures Home Entertainment, produced in 2011, released in 2011, 90 minutes.

A disgruntled man creates a hit list with a stranger during a drunken night out and must then race to try to save those he marked for extermination as the bodies begin to pile up and all fingers point to him.

How I ended this Summer

Not rated. Film Movement, produced in 2010, released in 2011, 130 minutes.

On a desolate island in the Arctic Circle, two men work at a small meteorological station, taking readings from their radioactive surroundings. Sergei, a gruff professional in his fifties, takes his job very seriously. His new partner, bright-eyed college grad Pavel, retreats to his MP3 player and video games to avoid Sergei's imposing presence. One day while Sergei is out, inexperienced Pavel receives terrible news for Sergei from HQ. When the truth is revealed, the consequences explode.

I Am Number Four

Rated PG-13. Touchstone Home Video, produced in 2011, released in 2011, 109 minutes.

Three are dead. Who is number four? John Smith is an extraordinary teen masking his true identity to elude a deadly enemy sent to destroy him. Living with his guardian in the small town he now calls home, John encounters unexpected life-changing events, his first love, powerful new abilities, and a secret connection to the others who share his incredible destiny. Complete with deleted scenes and more.

I Saw the Devil

Unrated. Magnet, produced in 2010, released in 2011, 142 minutes.

A psychotic serial killer murders the daughter of a retired police captain and fiance of a special agent. Obsessed with tracking the killer down, the agent realizes he might become a monster himself as he loses his sense of good vs. evil.

Justin Bieber – Never Say Never

Rated G. Paramount Home Entertainment, produced in 2011, released in 2011, 105 minutes.

Justin Bieber's odds were a million to one, until millions of fans found him online. Now revealed is the story of his journey from average teen to global superstar, culminating with a dream sold-out show at the famed Madison Square Garden. Special features include featurettes.

Lemonade Mouth

Rated TV-G. Disney, produced in 2011, released in 2011, 107 minutes.

When five ragtag freshmen first meet in detention, it seems they have nothing in common. But, through music, they form an unbreakable bond and discover they have the makings of the greatest high school garage band in history! In the face of incredible odds, Olivia, Stella, Wen, Mohini, and Charlie find they can make a real difference when they learn to lean on each other and let go of everything holding back their dreams.

Made in Dagenham

Rated R. Sony Pictures Classics, produced in 2010, released in 2011, 113 minutes.

In 1968, the female workers at the Ford Dagenham car plant walked out in protest against sexual discrimination. Their actions played a major role in the battle for equal pay, both nationally and internationally. Special features include commentary, outtakes, and a making-of featurette.

Mao's Last Dancer

Rated PG. 20th Century Fox, produced in 2010, released in 2011, 117 minutes.

Based on an inspiring true story, this emotionally powerful crowd-pleaser emerged as one of the year's most talked about independent films. It's the fascinating and epic tale of Li Cunxin, a peasant boy from rural China who beats impossible odds to become a world-renowned ballet dancer. Through breathtaking talent and sheer determination, Li makes his way to the United States; but when he falls in love with an American woman, he must risk everything to remain in the land of the free.

The Mechanic

Rated R. Sony Pictures Home Entertainment, produced in 2011, released in 2011, 93 minutes.

Arthur Bishop is an assassin with a unique talent for cleanly eliminating targets. It's a job that requires professional perfection and he is the best in the business. But when Harry, his mentor and friend, is murdered, Bishop wants those responsible dead. After Harry's son approaches him with the same vengeful goal, Bishop takes the impulsive student deep into his world and a deadly partnership is born. However, deceptions will surface, and those hired to fix problems soon become the problem.

No Strings Attached

Rated R. Paramount, produced in 2011, released in 2011, 107 minutes.

Emma and Adam are lifelong friends who almost ruin everything by having sex one morning. To protect their friendship, they make a pact to keep their relationship strictly 'no strings attached.' That means no jealousy, no expectations, no fighting, no flowers, and no baby voices. They can do whatever they want, whenever they want, wherever they want, as long as they don't fall in love. The question becomes: who's going to fall first? And can their friendship survive? Bonus: commentary and more.

The Rite

Rated PG-13. New Line Cinema, produced in 2011, released in 2011, 114 minutes.

Inspired by true events, this supernatural thriller follows a seminary student sent to study exorcism at the Vatican in spite of his own doubts about the controversial practice and even his own faith. Only when sent to apprentice with legendary Father Lucas, who has performed thousands of exorcisms, does his armor of skepticism begin to fall. Drawn into a troubling case that transcends even Father Lucas's skill, the young seminarian glimpses a phenomenon science can't explain or control.

The Roommate

Rated PG-13. Screen Gems, Inc., produced in 2011, released in 2011, 91 minutes.

After college student Sara discovers that her roommate has become obsessed with her, things quickly take a violent turn.

A Somewhat Gentle Man

Strand Releasing, produced in 2010, released in 2011, 103 minutes.

Ulrik is a somewhat gentle man, as far as gangsters go. Reluctantly back on the streets following a stint in prison, Ulrik's boss greets him with open arms and a plan to settle an old score. With a demented sense of professional pride, Ulrik's boss sets in motion a plan to right the wrong done to his star employee. The problem is, Ulrik would rather go about his own business, however mundane, than get involved with his ragtag colleagues again.

Summer Eleven

Rated PG. Image Entertainment, produced in 2010, released in 2011, 93 minutes.

Four inseparable eleven-year-old girls share the last summer before middle school in this charming coming-of-age story. Vanessa is an aspiring actress up for her first feature film. Lizzie tries to help her brother adjust to life at home after he returns from the war. Jess struggles to cope with her parents' separation. Peri, the new girl, hides a desperate secret. But as the summer unfolds, each girl finds the strength to face each challenge, knowing that best friends are always there for you.

Waiting for Forever

Rated PG-13. 20th Century Fox, produced in 2010, released in 2011, 99 minutes.

Will is the quirky street performer with a free spirit and a heart of pure gold. The object of Will's lifelong affection is Emma, the beautiful young actress whom he has never stopped loving since they were childhood sweethearts. But when they reunite, and Will gets swept up in Emma's complicated past, his innocence and all-consuming passion could cost him everything he's ever wanted.

April 2011

Born to Raise Hell

Rated R. Paramount Home Entertainment, produced in 2010, 96 minutes.

A hardcore Interpol agent is assigned to an Eastern European task force to target gun trafficking and dope running throughout the Balkans. While investigating a Russian gun dealer, his team is caught in a bloody street war between a Gypsy gang and the Russians, leaving one task force member dead. Fueled with vengeance, he leads viewers on an action-packed thrill ride while avenging his friend's death.

Casino Jack

Rated R. 20th Century Fox, produced in 2010, released in 2011, 109 minutes.

Jack Abramoff, the real-life Washington power player, resorted to jaw-dropping levels of fraud and corruption. High-rolling excess and outrageous escapades are all in a day's work for Abramoff as he goes to outrageous lengths to promote the Indian gambling industry, earning him the nickname 'Casino Jack.' But when Jack and his womanizing protege Michael Scanlon enlist a dimwitted business partner for an illegal scheme, they find themselves ensnared in a web of greed and murder.

Chain Letter

Rated R. New Films International, produced in 2010, released in 2011, 87 minutes.

Six high school friends are bound together again by a sinister chain letter passing into their lives through emails and text messages. If the deadly letter isn't passed on, the recipient faces a grisly, unexpected death - and nothing can stop it. As time runs out and the deadly letter's rules become more challenging, the survivors must untangle the chilling secret, or die trying. Features trailer.

Chronicles of Narnia - The Voyage of the Dawn Treader (Juvenile)

Rated PG. 20th Century Fox, produced in 2010, released in 2011, 113 minutes.

When Lucy and Edmund Pevensie, along with their cousin Eustace, are swallowed into a painting and transported back to Narnia, they join King Caspian and a noble mouse named Reepicheep aboard the magnificent ship the Dawn Treader. The courageous voyagers travel to mysterious islands, confront mystical creatures, and reunite with the Great Lion Aslan and a mission that will determine the fate of Narnia itself!

Country Strong

Rated PG-13. Screen Gems, Inc., produced in 2010, released in 2011, 117 minutes.

Soon after a rising young singer-songwriter gets involved with a fallen, emotionally unstable country star, the pair embarks on a career resurrection tour steered by her husband/manager that includes a beauty queen turned singer. Between the concerts, romantic entanglements and old demons threaten to derail them all. Special features include: deleted scenes, music videos, featurettes, and more

Due Date

Rated R. Warner Home Video, produced in 2010, released in 2011, 95 minutes.

Expectant first-time father Peter Highman looks forward to his new child's due date five days away. As Peter hurries to catch a flight home from Atlanta to be at his wife's side for the birth, his best intentions go completely awry. An encounter with aspiring actor Ethan Tremblay forces Peter to hitch a ride with Ethan on a cross-country trip that will ultimately destroy several cars, many friendships, and Peter's last nerve.

The Girl. A Film by Fredrik Edfeldt

OLIVE FILMS, produced in 2009, released in 2011, 95 minutes.

In the summer of 1981, a 9-year-old girl is left behind in her aunt's care while the rest of her family goes to Africa as aid workers. The aunt is soon courted by a man and leaves the girl with the promise to return in a few days. The abandoned girl keeps this a secret from everyone and uses her freedom to discover the world around her as the summer passes by. With sharpening senses she gradually discovers the often absurd and careless world of adults.

Goodnight for Justice

Not rated. e one, produced in 2011, released in 2011, 88 minutes, sales rank: 765

When John Goodnight was a boy he watched in the weeds as his entire family was killed in a ruthless outlaw attack. Now, as a Circuit Judge of the Western Territories, Goodnight travels the West, protecting the innocent from injustice.

Gulliver's Travels (2011)

Rated PG. 20th Century Fox, produced in 2010, released in 2011, 85 minutes.

When a shipwreck lands a lowly mailroom clerk named Gulliver on the fantastical island of Lilliput, he transforms into a giant, in size and ego! Gulliver's tall tales and heroic deeds win the hearts of the tiny Lilliputians, but when he loses it all and puts his newfound friends in peril, Gulliver must find a way to undo the damage. Through it all, Gulliver may just learn that it's how big you are on the inside that counts.

Harry Potter and the Deathly Hallows - Part 1

Rated PG-13. Warner Home Video, produced in 2010, released in 2011, 146 minutes.

Part 1 begins as Harry, Ron, and Hermione set out on their perilous mission to track down and destroy the secret to Voldemort's immortality and destruction - the Horcruxes. On their own, without the guidance of their professors or the protection of Professor Dumbledore, the three friends must now rely on one another more than ever. But there are dark forces in their midst that threaten to tear them apart. Harry's only hope is to find the Horcruxes before Voldemort finds him.

Heartless

Not rated. IFC Films, produced in 2010, released in 2011, 114 minutes.

Jamie is a talented young photographer who has a disfiguring birthmark that makes him feel like an outsider. While he is developing pictures, Jamie sees a hooded figure peering from behind a window. Investigating, he stumbles into a horrific world of reptilian monsters posing as street gangs, violence inflicted on the most innocent, and a demon with the power to offer Jamie everything he has ever dreamed of, but at a deadly price.

I Love You Phillip Morris

Rated R. Lions Gate Entertainment, produced in 2010, released in 2011, 98 minutes.

A true story of a spectacularly charismatic con man's journey from small-town businessman to flamboyant white-collar criminal, who repeatedly finds himself in trouble with the law and on the lam, all in the name of love.

The King's Speech

Rated R. The Weinstein Company, produced in 2010, released in 2011, 119 minutes.

The story of King George VI of Britain, his impromptu ascension to the throne, and the speech therapist who helped the unsure monarch become worthy of it.

Like Dandelion Dust

Rated PG-13. 20th Century Fox, produced in 2009, released in 2011, 104 minutes.

Wendy and Rip Porter are a working-class couple fighting to regain custody of Joey, the young son Wendy gave up for adoption when Rip went to prison seven years earlier. But Joey's adoptive parents will stop at nothing to ensure that the small boy stays in the only home he's ever known.

Line in the Sand

Not rated. Film Works Entertainment, inc., produced in 2009, released in 2011, 85 minutes.

Two U.S. Marines find themselves stranded in the desert after their unit is destroyed in a routine mission. One of their team is taken hostage in the attack. Corporal Kapler is injured in the ambush and wants to return back to the base as he has already given up on the captured marine. Lance Corporal Miller wants to track the enemy down, believing 'no man should be left behind.' Injured and exhausted, the two men must battle the elements and put aside their differences to make it out alive.

Little Fockers

Rated PG-13. Universal, produced in 2010, released in 2011, 98 minutes.

Greg Focker has finally begun to earn the respect of his ex-CIA father-in-law, Jack Byrnes, but one important test still lies ahead. Will Greg prove that he has what it takes to be the family's next 'Godfather' or will the circle of trust be broken for good?

Mesrine: killer instinct

Rated R. Music Box Films, produced in 2008, released in 2011, 113 minutes.

The first of two parts charts the outlaw odyssey of Jacques Mesrine, the legendary French gangster of the 1960s and 1970s who came to be known as French Public Enemy No. 1 and the Man of a Thousand Faces. Infamous for his bravado and outrageously daring prison escapes, Mesrine carried out numerous robberies, kidnappings, and murders in a criminal career that spanned continents until he was shot dead in 1979 by France's notorious anti-gang unit.

Mesrine Part 2: Public Enemy #1

Rated R. Music Box Films, produced in 2010, released in 2011, 134 minutes.

In the climactic second part of the Mesrine saga, Jacques Mesrine is back in France after his brazen assault on the maximum-security prison from which he daringly escaped. Once again in police custody and facing stern justice for his crime, 'the man of a thousand faces' escapes directly from the courtroom after kidnapping the judge at gunpoint. The life of Jacques comes once and for all to a full bloody circle.

Rabbit Hole

Rated PG-13. Lions Gate Entertainment, produced in 2010, released in 2011, 92 minutes.

Becca and Howie Corbett are returning to their everyday existence in the wake of a shocking, sudden loss. Just eight months ago, they were a happy suburban family with everything they wanted. Now they are caught in a maze of memory, longing, guilt, recrimination, sarcasm, and tightly controlled rage from which they cannot escape. The journey is an intimate glimpse into two people learning to re-engage with each other and a world that has been tilted off its axis.

Sharpay's Fabulous Adventure (Juvenile)

Rated G. Disney, produced in 2011, released in 2011, 89 minutes.

After a talent scout spots her performing with her dog Boi at a charity gala, Sharpay Evans sets off for the bright lights of NYC, convinced instant fame and fortune are in the bag. But the theatre is a dog-eat-dog world, as she and Boi discover when they encounter a scheming Broadway starlet who will do anything to crush the competition. Bonus features include bloopers, behind the scenes, and The Evolution of Sharpay.

Somewhere

Rated R. Focus Features, produced in 2010, released in 2011, 98 minutes.

A witty, moving, and empathetic look into the orbit of actor Johnny Marco. You have probably seen him in the tabloids; Johnny is living at the legendary Chateau Marmont hotel in Hollywood. He has a Ferrari to drive around in, and a constant stream of girls and pills to stay in with. Comfortably numbed, Johnny drifts along. Then his 11-year-old daughter Cleo from his failed marriage arrives unexpectedly at the Chateau. Their encounters encourage Johnny to face up to where he is in life.

Stone

Rated R. Anchor Bay Entertainment, produced in 2010, released in 2011, 105 minutes.

Jack Mabry, a parole officer days away from retirement, is asked to review the case of Gerald 'Stone' Creeson, in prison for arson. Now eligible for early release, Stone needs to convince Jack he has reformed, but his attempts to influence the older man's decision with his wife Lucetta have profound and unexpected effects on them both.

A Summer in Genoa

Rated R. e one, produced in 2008, released in 2011, 93 minutes.

After his wife dies in a tragic accident, Joe moves with his two daughters to Genoa to help them cope. Seduced by the mysterious city and haunted by their past, the family soon finds themselves in terrible danger.

Tron – Legacy

Rated PG. Disney, produced in 2010, released in 2011, 126 minutes.

When Flynn, the world's greatest video game creator, sends out a secret signal from an amazing digital realm, his son discovers the clue and embarks on a personal journey to save his long-lost father. With the help of the fearless female warrior Quorra, father and son venture through an incredible cyber universe and wage the ultimate battle of good versus evil.

The Way Back

Rated PG-13. Image Entertainment, produced in 2010, released in 2011, 133 minutes.

Inspired by an incredible true story beginning in 1940 when seven prisoners attempt the impossible: escape from a brutal Siberian gulag. Thus begins a treacherous 4,500-mile trek to freedom across the world's most merciless landscapes. They have little food and few supplies. They don't know or trust each other. But together, they must withstand nature at its most extreme. Their humanity is further tested when they meet a teenage runaway who begs to join them on their quest.

Your Love Never Fails

Rated G. Anchor Bay Entertainment, produced in 2011, released in 2011, 96 minutes, sales rank: 665

The story of Laura, a working mother who just wants to spend more time with her daughter Kelsey. Unfortunately, her demanding boss Paul has other ideas. When Kelsey's father Dylan files for joint custody, Laura is forced to take Kelsey to Texas, where she confronts the lifestyle, church, and father that she left behind. With the help of the local church minister, Pastor Frank, Laura and Dylan will find their way back to the commitment they made to each other and to Kelsey.

March 2011

127 Hours

Rated R. 20th Century Fox, produced in 2010, 94 minutes.

The powerfully uplifting true story of one man's struggle to survive against mountainous odds. Aron Ralston has a passion for all things outdoors. But when a falling boulder traps him in a remote Utah canyon, a thrill-seeker's adventure becomes the challenge of a lifetime. Over the next five days, Ralston embarks on a remarkable personal journey in which he relies on the memories of family and friends as well as his own courage and ingenuity to turn adversity into triumph!

Adventures of a Teenage Dragonslayer (Juvenile)

Rated PG. Screen Media Films, produced in 2010, released in 2011, 88 minutes.

Branded as a 'nerd' and harassed by the school bully, 12-year-old Arthur is rescued by a magical troll who knows that the boy unwittingly holds the secret to defeat an evil dragon. Arthur's loving mom, struggling to keep her devious ex-husband from gaining custody of Arthur, dismisses her son's 'fantasies' until she realizes the all-too-real immediate danger and joins forces with Arthur, the troll, and a dashing but washed-up video game master. Together, they hope to conquer the dragon.

Alien vs Ninja

Rated 17UP. Nikkatsu, released in 2011, 81 minutes.

The fiercest ninjas of the Iga clan face their toughest enemies - and they aren't from this planet! A fiery mass crashes in the forest and soon horrifyingly savage creatures reduce the warriors to tasty snacks. But these extraterrestrials have bitten off more than they can chew: swords and throwing stars may fail against unearthly goons, but ninja skills don't stop at sharp stuff. Special features included.

All Good Things

Rated R. Magnolia Home Entertainment, produced in 2010, released in 2011, 101 minutes.

A love story and murder mystery set against the backdrop of a New York real estate dynasty in the 1980s. Based on the true story and still unsolved 1982 disappearance of Kathie McCormick, wife of real estate heir Robert McCormick, who was linked to the disappearance and deaths of three people

The Big I Am

Rated R. E1 Entertainment, produced in 2010, released in 2011, 106 minutes, sales rank: 13578

When small-time crook Mickey is made the head of an underworld crime family, he is thrust into the middle of a brutally violent turf war.

Black Swan

Rated R. 20th Century Fox, produced in 2010, released in 2011, 108 minutes.

In this psychological thriller set in the world of New York City ballet, an insecure ballet dancer wins the lead in Swan Lake. But she slowly loses her grip on reality with the ever-increasing pressures of perfection and direct competition from a seductive newcomer.

Burlesque

Rated PG-13. Screen Gems, Inc., produced in 2010, released in 2011, 119 minutes.

Ali, a small-town girl with a big voice, escapes hardship to follow her dreams to LA. After stumbling upon the Burlesque Lounge, a majestic but ailing theater that is home to an inspired musical revue, Ali lands a job from the club's proprietor and headliner. After Ali finally makes her way from the bar to the stage, things take a dramatic turn when her larger-than-life voice causes a charismatic entrepreneur to make an enticing proposal. Bonus includes commentary, blooper reel, and more.

Every Day

Rated R. Image Entertainment, produced in 2010, released in 2011, 93 minutes.

Ned is a loving husband and devoted father dealing with life's curveballs. He's got a stressed-out wife, an independent teenage son, and an embittered father-in-law who's turning his home upside down. Ned's job writing a scandalous TV series for a demanding boss is unfulfilling, and late night rewrites with a sexy co-worker might just push him over the deep end. Features cast interviews, deleted scenes, and trailer.

Fair Game

Rated PG-13. Summit Entertainment, produced in 2010, released in 2011, 108 minutes.

A suspense-filled glimpse into the dark corridors of political power, and a riveting action-thriller based on the autobiography of real-life undercover CIA operative Valerie Plame, whose career was destroyed and marriage strained to its limits when her covert identity was exposed.

Faster

Rated R. Sony Pictures Home Entertainment, produced in 2010, released in 2011, 98 minutes.

A veteran cop and an egocentric hitman are on the trail of an ex-con who is determined to avenge the death of his brother, which occurred during a bank robbery years ago. Special features include alternate ending, and deleted scenes.

The Fighter

Rated R. Paramount Home Entertainment, produced in 2010, released in 2011, 115 minutes.

Micky Ward is a struggling boxer long overshadowed by his older brother and trainer, Dicky, a local legend battling his own demons. Their explosive relationship threatens to take them both down. However, the bond of blood may be their only chance to redeem their pasts and, at last, give their hard-luck town what it's been waiting for: pride. Special features include commentary and a featurette.

Hemingway's Garden of Eden

Rated R. Lions Gate Entertainment, produced in 2008, released in 2011, 97 minutes.

While on an extended honeymoon across Europe, a young American writer and his wife become players in a tantalizing game of seduction that threatens to destroy their relationship and change their lives forever.

Hereafter

Rated PG-13. Warner Home Video, produced in 2010, released in 2011, 129 minutes.

George is a blue-collar American with a special connection to the afterlife dating from his childhood. French journalist Marie has a near-death experience that shakes her reality. When London schoolboy Marcus loses the person closest to him, he desperately needs answers. Each seeking the truth, their lives will intersect, forever changed by what they believe might, or must, exist in the hereafter.

Hideaway (La Reduge - French)

Not rated. Strand Releasing, produced in 2009, released in 2011, 90 minutes.

Mousse and Louis are young, beautiful, rich, and in love, but drugs have invaded their lives. After Louis' fatal overdose, Mousse soon learns she is pregnant. Feeling lost, Mousse escapes to a beautiful beach house far from Paris and is soon joined in her refuge by Louis' gay brother, Paul. The two strangers gradually develop an unusual and deeply moving relationship as Ozon continues his unique exploration of the nature of family and blood ties.

How do you Know

Rated PG-13. Columbia Pictures, produced in 2010, released in 2011, 121 minutes.

A woman discovers she is in the middle of a love triangle after she falls for two different men and wonders, when it comes to love, how do you know? Special features include commentary, deleted scenes, blooper reel, and more.

Jackass 3

Unrated. Paramount Home Entertainment, produced in 2010, released in 2011, 99 minutes.

The Jackass guys are back for their wildest round of mischief and mayhem yet! Laugh until it hurts as Knoxville goes head-to-head with an angry bull, Bam stumbles through a tunnel of high-voltage tasers, and Steve-O takes to the skies in a fully loaded porta-potty. Get ready to jack stuff up with uncensored, unbelievable, and totally explicit stunts, plus outrageous footage not shown in theaters. Special features: deleted scenes, outtakes, featurette, and trailer.

Let It Rain (French)

Not rated. IFC Films, produced in 2008, released in 2010, 99 minutes.

Feminist writer Agathe returns to France to help her sister, Florence, sort out their deceased mother's affairs. While there, Agathe decides to test the political waters and run in a local election. She also agrees to be interviewed for a documentary about successful women by two blundering reporters. As romantic entanglements, class resentments, and the uncooperative weather intrude, Agathe's life hysterically unravels, and the bumbling filmmakers are there to capture it all.

Looking for Palladin

Rated R. Monterey Video, produced in 2008, released in 2011, 115 minutes.

Arrogant Hollywood talent agent Josh Ross is sent to Guatemala to find Oscar-winning actor Jack Palladin. Having never met, the search is emotionally complicated as the long-retired star was once married to Josh's late mother. Josh's contempt for the 'old' actor mirrors his comedic distaste for the local community whose help he desperately needs to find him. What he hopes will be a quick and lucrative deal turns into a soul-searching journey for both of them.

Love and Other Drugs

Rated R. 20th Century Fox, produced in 2010, released in 2011, 112 minutes.

Free-spirited Maggie meets her match in a charming Viagra salesman named Jamie. Maggie and Jamie leap into a no-strings-attached affair, but no matter how hard they try to keep things 'casual,' they can't help falling under the influence of the ultimate drug: love!

The Man from Nowhere (Korean)

Rated R. Well Go USA Entertainment, produced in 2010, released in 2011, 119 minutes.

Tae-shik is an ex-special agent with a tragic past. He runs a small pawnshop, and So-mi, the young girl who lives next door, is his only friend. When So-mi's mother becomes involved in a major crime, mother and daughter are kidnapped. To save So-mi, Tae-shik makes a certain arrangement with the crime mob. With So-mi missing, the police begin to chase Tae-shik. With the police and the underground mob closing in, Tae-shik continues his frantic search as his hidden past slowly becomes revealed.

Megamind

Rated PG. DreamWorks Pictures, produced in 2010, released in 2011, 96 minutes.

Over the years, Megamind has tried to conquer Metro City in every imaginable way. Each attempt is a colossal failure thanks to the caped superhero known as 'Metro Man,' until the day Megamind actually defeats him in the throes of one of his botched evil plans. Suddenly, the fate of Metro City is threatened when a new villain arrives and chaos runs rampant, leaving everyone to wonder if the world's biggest 'mind' can actually be the one to save the day. Includes commentary, previews, and more.

Morning Glory

Rated PG-13. Paramount Home Entertainment, produced in 2010, released in 2011, 107 minutes.

For Becky, running a TV show in New York City was the big break she dreamed of, until star co-anchors Mike and Colleen declare an all-out, on-air war. Making the show work with its cast of eccentric characters and outrageous story angles will take a major miracle, but Becky is ready to rise and outshine. Special features include commentary and a deleted scene.

My Girlfriend's Back

Rated PG-13. Lions Gate Entertainment, released in 2011, 81 minutes.

This romantic comedy shows how a man's perfect life can unravel when a beautiful ex-girlfriend shows up out of the blue. The journey to love can be worth revisiting if the feelings are brought to life once again in this hilarious romp through the reality and complexity of relationships past and present.

The Next Three Days

Rated PG-13. Lions Gate Entertainment, produced in 2010, released in 2011, 133 minutes.

Life seems perfect for John Brennan until his wife, Lara, is arrested for a murder she says she didn't commit. Three years into her sentence, John is struggling to hold his family together, raising their son and teaching at college while he pursues every means available to prove her innocence. With the rejection of their final appeal, Lara becomes suicidal and John decides there is only one possible solution: to break his wife out of prison.

Robert Kennedy and His Times

Not rated. Sony Pictures Home Entertainment, produced in 1985, released in 2011, 315 minutes.

Provided is a personal portrait of Robert Kennedy, who was one of the most controversial men of the century. Featured are the turbulent times in which he lived including the fight for civil rights, the Cuban Missile Crisis, the American entry into Vietnam, and how the eventual protest against it were all shaped by Bobby Kennedy.

A Shine of Rainbows

Rated PG. 20th Century Fox, produced in 2009, released in 2011, 101 minutes.

A truly inspiring story of one ordinary family's extraordinary journey. An orphaned boy named Tomas is adopted by Maire O'Donnell to live on a whimsical Irish isle filled with new friends, secret caves, and a lost seal pup stranded on the coast. But when Maire's reluctant husband Alec refuses to accept Tomas as his own son, the boy drifts down a fateful path of adventure and self-discovery, illuminating how rainbows can shine around, and within, us all.

Skyline

Rated PG-13. Universal, produced in 2010, released in 2011, 94 minutes.

It was supposed to be a simple birthday weekend in Southern California. But when sunrise arrives two hours early in the form of a haunting light from an unknown source, a group of friends watches in terror as people across the city are drawn outside and swept into massive alien ships that have blotted out the LA skyline. From tankers to drones and hydra-like extraterrestrials, the aliens are inescapable and seemingly indestructible.

Spooner

Rated R. Maya Entertainment, produced in 2009, released in 2011, 83 minutes.

Facing eviction from his parent's home on his 30th birthday, a socially awkward guy meets the girl of his dreams and creates his own rules for growing up.

The Switch

Rated PG-13. Lions Gate Entertainment, produced in 2010, released in 2011, 101 minutes.

Kassie is a smart, fun-loving single woman. Despite her neurotic best friend Wally's objections, she decides it's time to have a baby, even if it means doing it herself, with a little help from a charming sperm donor. Unbeknownst to her, Kassie's plans go awry because of a last-minute switch that isn't discovered until seven years later, when Wally gets acquainted with Kassie's cute, though slightly neurotic, son.

Tangled (Juvenile)

Rated PG. Disney, produced in 2010, released in 2011, 100 minutes.

When the kingdom's most wanted bandit, Flynn Rider, hides in a mysterious tower, the last thing he expects to find is Rapunzel, a spirited teen with an unlikely superpower: 70 feet of magical golden hair! Together, the unlikely duo sets off on a fantastic journey filled with surprising heroes, laughter, and suspense. Disney's 50th animated film includes two original storybook openings, an animated countdown, deleted scenes, extended songs, and more.

Time for Drunken Horses

Not rated. Lorber Films, produced in 2000, released in 2011, 75 minutes.

After their father dies, a family of five is forced to survive on their own in a Kurdish village on the border of Iran and Iraq. Matters are made worse when twelve-year-old Ayoub, the new head of the family, is told that his handicapped brother Madi needs an immediate operation in order to remain alive. The family must go to any lengths to survive in the harshest of conditions, where even the horses are fed liquor to get them to work.

The Tourist

Rated PG-13. Sony Pictures Home Entertainment, produced in 2010, released in 2011, 103 minutes.

During an impromptu trip to Europe to mend a broken heart, Frank unexpectedly finds himself in a flirtatious encounter with Elise, an extraordinary woman who deliberately crosses his path. Against the breathtaking backdrop of Paris and Venice, their whirlwind romance quickly evolves as they find themselves unwittingly thrust into a deadly game of cat and mouse. Special features include commentary, outtake reel, and featurettes.

Valhalla Rising

Rated NR. IFC Midnight, produced in 2009, released in 2010, 93 minutes.

One Eye is a chained prisoner forced to fight to the death for the entertainment of his captors. When One Eye escapes, he stumbles upon a group of warriors headed to the Crusades. But fate has something else in store, as the men drift into the New World, where savages stalk them one by one in increasingly violent ways. Is One Eye an avenging angel or just the guiltiest of them all?

February 2011

Alpha and Omega (Juvenile)

Rated PG. Lions Gate Entertainment, produced in 2010, 78 minutes.

What makes for the ultimate road trip? Hitchhiking, truck stops, angry bears, prickly porcupines, and a golfing goose with a duck caddy. Just ask Kate and Humphrey, two wolves who are trying to get home after being taken by park rangers and shipped halfway across the country. Humphrey is an Omega wolf, whose days are about quick wit. Kate is an Alpha: duty, discipline, and sleek Lara Croft eye-popping moves fuel her fire.

Beauty and the Briefcase

Not rated. ABC Family, produced in 2010, 86 minutes.

Lane, a fashion journalist, gets the assignment of a lifetime when Cosmopolitan magazine hires her to write a story about finding love in the workplace. Posing as a corporate assistant, Lane finds herself torn between the office's eligible men in suits and a dashing stranger who sweeps her off her feet. Will she find the 'magic man' who fulfills her fantasy checklist, or will her story have an ending as unexpected as love itself?

Buried

Rated R. Lions Gate Entertainment, produced in 2010, 95 minutes.

Paul Conroy is not ready to die. But when he wakes up six feet underground with no idea of who put him there or why, life for the truck driver and family man instantly becomes a hellish struggle for survival. Buried with only a cell phone and a lighter, his contact with the outside world and ability to piece together clues that could help him discover his location are maddeningly limited. Paul has only ninety minutes to be rescued before his worst nightmare comes true.

Conviction

Rated R. 20th Century Fox, produced in 2010, 103 minutes.

Betty Anne Waters is a young woman whose world is shattered when her beloved brother Kenny is convicted of murder and sentenced to life in prison. Steadfastly convinced of his innocence, Betty Anne embarks on an 18-year journey to set Kenny free, using state-of-the-art forensic technology. The unshakable bond between a brother and sister at the heart of this real-life drama will stir your emotions and inspire you.

For Colored Girls

Rated R. Lions Gate Entertainment, produced in 2010, 134 minutes.

A vibrant world where friends and strangers dream, fear, cry, love, and laugh out loud in an attempt to find their true selves. Adapted by writer/director Tyler Perry from Ntozake Shange's acclaimed choreopoem, this gripping film paints an unforgettable portrait of what it means to be a woman of color in the modern world.

Get Low

Rated PG-13. Sony Pictures Classics, produced in 2009, released in 2011, 103 minutes

Felix Bush, a Tennessee hermit, is either feared or hated by most of the people that live in the town. One day, he gets the idea to throw one big bash before he kicks the bucket. While he is still alive and kickin' he plans his very own rollicking funeral party. Includes commentary, and featurettes.

It's Kind of a Funny Story

Rated PG-13. Focus Features, produced in 2010, 102 minutes.

Sometimes what's in your head isn't as crazy as you think. That's certainly true for Craig, a stressed-out teenager who checks himself into a mental health clinic for some time out. What he finds instead is an unlikely mentor, a potential new romance, and an opportunity to begin anew. Charming, witty, and smart, it's a coming-of-age story that's kind of a funny story.

Kites - The Remix (Bollywood & Hollywood Versions)

Not rated. Reliance Big Pictures, produced in 2010, released in 2011, 123 minutes.

A Las Vegas hustler is engaged to the daughter of the city's most powerful and dangerous casino owner. But all bets are off when he falls in love with the ravishing Natasha, an illegal immigrant engaged to J's jealous and violent future brother-in-law. When their illicit romance is discovered, J and Natasha flee for the border with the police and relentless hired killers on their trail.

Life as we Know it

Rated PG-13. Village Roadshow Pictures, produced in 2010, 115 minutes.

Holly is an up-and-coming caterer and Messer is a promising network sports director. After a disastrous first date, all they have in common is their dislike for each other and their love for their goddaughter Sophie. But when they suddenly become all Sophie has in this world, Holly and Messer must set their differences aside. Juggling career ambitions and competing social calendars, they'll have to find common ground while living under the same roof.

Liverpool

Kino International, produced in 2009, released in 2010, 85 minutes.

In the middle of the Atlantic Ocean, Farrel asks the captain of the freighter he works on to go ashore once they reach the port of Ushuaia, a town in southern Argentina. He wants to return to his birthplace and see if his mother is still alive. For the past twenty years he has worked as a seaman. Having reached the cluster of houses where he grew up, Farrel discovers his mother is indeed still alive, but someone else has become part of the family. Included is an interview and stills gallery.

Machete

Rated R. 20th Century Fox, produced in 2010, 105 minutes.

Set up, double-crossed, and left for dead, Machete is a tough-as-nails ex-Federale who lays waste to anything that gets in his path. As he takes on hitmen, vigilantes, and a ruthless drug cartel, bullets fly, blades clash, and the body count rises. Any way you slice it, vengeance has a new name; Machete.

Mean Girls 2

Rated PG-13. Paramount Home Entertainment, produced in 2011, 96 minutes.

Confident senior, Jo, begins the new school year by breaking her own cardinal rule: don't get involved in girl drama. But when she sees timid Abby preyed upon by Queen Bee Mandi and her minions, she takes sides in a viciously funny girl-world war that turns the whole school upside down. Included are featurettes, gag reel, and more.

Monsters

Rated R. Magnet, produced in 2010, 93 minutes.

Six years ago, NASA discovered the possibility of alien life within the solar system. Soon after, new life forms began to appear and half of Mexico was quarantined. A probe was launched to collect samples, but crashed upon re-entry over Central America. Today, the American and Mexican military still struggle to contain 'the creatures.' Now a U.S. journalist has agreed to escort a shaken American tourist through the infected zone in Mexico to the safety of the U.S. border.

My Soul to Take

Rated R. Universal, produced in 2010, 108 minutes.

On the day the Riverton Ripper vanished without a trace, seven children were born. Today, they're all turning 16...and turning up dead. Keep your heart racing with this suspense thriller filled with twists, turns, and a dark secret that will send your soul searching for cover.

Never Let Me Go

Rated R. 20th Century Fox, produced in 2010, 104 minutes

Kathy, Ruth, and Tommy are best friends who grow up together at an English boarding school with a chilling secret. When they learn the shocking truth that they are genetically engineered clones raised to be organ donors, they embrace their fleeting chance to live and love. Based on the acclaimed novel by Kazuo Ishiguro.

Paranormal Activity 2

Unrated. Paramount Home Entertainment, produced in 2010, 98 minutes.

Just as Dan and Kristi welcome a newborn baby into their home, a demonic presence begins terrorizing them, tearing apart their perfect world and turning it into an inescapable nightmare. Security cameras capture the torment, making every minute horrifyingly real. Director's cut includes never-before-seen, newly found bonus features.

The Romantics

Rated PG-13. Paramount Home Entertainment, produced in 2010, 96 minutes.

Alliances are tested when seven college pals reunite to watch two of their own say 'I do' at a seaside wedding. But the maid of honor and the groom share a passionate history, and the bride isn't the only one who's wondering if it's all in the past, proving that nothing complicates friendship like love. Included is a featurette.

Secretariat

Rated PG. Disney, produced in 2010, released in 2011, 123 minutes, $60M, sales rank: 9, 🍌🍌

Behind every legend lies an impossible dream. Witness the spectacular journey of an incredible horse named Secretariat and the moving story of his unlikely owner, a housewife who risked everything to make him a champion.

Skin

Rated PG-13. e one, produced in 2008, released in 2011, 107 minutes, sales rank: 282, 🍌🍌

Despite being born to Afrikaner parents, Sandra faces prejudice from her community due to her dark skin and African features. Torn between her family and the man she loves, Sandra must overcome the racial intolerance of her society in this uplifting true story.

Suck

Rated R. E1 Entertainment, produced in 2009, 96 minutes.

After their bass player becomes a vampire, down and out rock band the Winners are launched into the spotlight. Stalked by creepy producers, wild groupies, and the legendary vampire hunter Eddie Van Helsing, the Winners soon find fame to be a fate worse than death.

Takers

Rated PG-13. Screen Gems, Inc., produced in 2010, 107 minutes.

A notorious group of criminals continues to baffle police by pulling off one perfectly executed bank robbery after another. They are in and out like clockwork, leaving no evidence behind, and laying low between heists. But when they attempt to pull off one last job with more money at stake than ever before, the crew may find their plans interrupted by a hardened detective who is hellbent on solving the case. Special features include commentary and a music video.

Tamara Drew

Rated R. Sony Pictures Classics, produced in 2010, 111 minutes.

Tamara Drewe was an ugly duckling when she left town. Years later, she is a sexy swan who has returned to her hometown after the death of her mother. Her plans are to refurbish the family home and put it on the market. It isn't long before Tamara finds herself pursued by three men from her past: Andy, her former boyfriend, Ben, the drummer with a local rock band, and Nicholas, the boy she was infatuated with in her teens. Included are featurettes, and commentary.

Unstoppable

Rated PG-13. 20th Century Fox, produced in 2010, 98 minutes.

A runaway train, transporting deadly, toxic chemicals, is barreling down on Scranton, Pennsylvania, and only two men can stop it: a veteran engineer and a young conductor. Thousands of lives hang in the balance as these ordinary heroes attempt to chase down one million tons of hurtling steel and prevent an epic disaster.

Wild Target

Rated PG-13. 20th Century Fox, produced in 2010, 98 minutes.

Rose is a free-spirited thief who finds herself in the crosshairs of a world-class assassin named Victor. But when Victor spares Rose's life, the lonely-hearted hitman sets off an outrageous chain of events that turns both their worlds upside down. Joined by a gun-toting apprentice, the unlikely trio teams up to thwart the murderous intentions of Victor's unhappy client.

Year of the Fish

Not rated. Gigantic Pictures, produced in 2010, 96 minutes.

Wide-eyed Ye Xian, a servant at a massage parlor, falls for a musician and transcends her oppressive reality with a magic koi. Special features include commentary.

You Again

Rated PG. Touchstone Home Video, produced in 2010, 105 minutes.

For Marnie, high school was a horror movie, and her brother's wedding is the sequel when her archrival comes back to haunt her as his bride. It's nice girl versus mean girl in this hysterical reunion with the one person Marnie would really like to forget. And if that weren't enough, Marnie's mom reunites with her own high school nemesis. Bonus features include bloopers, deleted scenes, behind the scenes, and more.

You Will Meet a Tall Dark Stranger

Rated R. Sony Pictures Classics, produced in 2010, 99 minutes.

After Alfie leaves his wife, Helena, to pursue his lost youth with a free-spirited call girl named Charmaine, Helena abandons rationality and surrenders her life to the loopy advice of a charlatan fortune teller. Meanwhile, daughter Sally develops a crush on her handsome boss, Greg, while her husband, Roy, becomes moonstruck over Dia, a mystery woman who catches his gaze through a nearby window. These four will find out how easy it is for their illusions to make fools of them.

January 2011

Alamar

Not rated. Film Movement, produced in 2009, released in 2010, 73 minutes.

Jorge has only a few weeks with his five-year-old son Natan before he leaves to live with his mother in Rome. Intent on teaching Natan about their Mayan heritage, Jorge takes him to the pristine Chinchorro reef and eases him into the rhythms of a fisherman's life. As the bond between father and son grows stronger, Natan learns to live in harmony with life above and below the surface of the sea.

And Soon the Darkness

Rated R. Anchor Bay Entertainment, produced in 2010, released in 2010, 91 minutes.

When two American girls on a bike trip in a remote part of Argentina split up and one of them goes missing, the other must find her before her worst fears are realized.

Animal Kingdom

Rated R. Sony Pictures Classics, produced in 2010, released in 2011, 113 minutes.

Seventeen-year-old J is in the process of becoming initiated into a gang of armed robbers known as the Cody brothers. J quickly comes to believe that he is a player in this world, but soon discovers that the entire situation is far larger and more menacing than he could ever imagine. Meanwhile, senior police officer Nathan Leckie recognizes that J's youth and inexperience may prove to be the key to finally conquering the Codys, and hopes to lure him into the fold after the death of a partner.

The Assistants

House of Film, released in 2010, 89 minutes.

It begins as a joke as producer Jack Ryder's friends write fake coverage on a nonexistent screenplay entitled Journey's End and attach the name of reclusive screenwriting legend Harlin W. Keyes. But when the press coverage falls into the omnipotent hands of playboy dealmaker Gary Greene, all hell breaks loose. A dealmaker looking for respect, a trophy wife desperate not to be forgotten, and a famous screenwriter who has disappeared, all in a dilemma only The Assistants can solve.

Beautiful Kate

Rated R. e one, produced in 2009, released in 2010, 100 minutes.

Writer Ned Kendall is asked to return to the family home by his sister Sally, to say goodbye to his father who is dying. The family home is in a very remote and isolated area. While back home, Ned starts having memories of his beautiful twin sister and himself when they were children. These memories awaken long-buried secrets from the family's past.

Beverly Hills Chihuahua 2

Rated G. Disney, produced in 2010, released in 2011, 84 minutes.

Puppy mayhem turns the lives of newlywed Chihuahua parents Papi and Chloe upside down when their rambunctious, mischievous puppies present one challenge after another. But when their human owners end up in trouble, the tiny pups will stop at nothing to save them, because in good times and hard times, the family always sticks together. Bonus materials include This Is My Paradise; music video performed by Disney Channel's Bridit Mendler; and bloopers.

The Bird Can't Fly

Not rated. Vanguard, produced in 2007, released in 2011, 89 minutes.

Melody returns home to Fairlands for the funeral of her estranged daughter June. But the town has almost disappeared under the encroaching desert. She also has to confront the fact she has a 10-year-old grandson, River, whose existence she knew nothing about. Melody decides to take River away with her but he is resistant. He has worked out an ambitious plan to survive by breeding the ostriches he and his mother used to feed.

Case 39

Rated R. Paramount Vantage, produced in 2010, released in 2011, 109 minutes.

Emily, a social worker, is assigned to the unusual and disturbing case of ten-year-old Lilith Sullivan, a girl with a strange and mysterious past. When Emily opens her home in an attempt to help Lilith, it turns into a deadly nightmare she may not survive. Special features include additional scenes and a featurette.

Catfish

Rated PG-13. Universal, produced in 2010, released in 2011, 88 minutes.

In late 2007, filmmakers Ariel Schulman and Henry Joost sensed a story unfolding as they began to film the life of Ariel's brother, Nev. They had no idea that their project would lead to the most exhilarating and unsettling months of their lives. A reality thriller that is a shocking product of our times, Catfish is a riveting story of love, deception, and grace within a labyrinth of online intrigue.

The Chief

Redhead Productions, produced in 2008, released in 2010, 22 minutes.

Honolulu, Hawaii; the cross roads of the Pacific. It's the place you go if your own island isn't big enough. It's the place you go to disappear. Semu Fatutoa drives a taxi cab in Honolulu. Once he was a Samoa Chieftain, but tragedy compelled him to cover his tattoos and flee from home. Now he drives in circles, slowly forgetting his old life. But his old life is looking for him, a young girl separated from her family on the eve of a disastrous day desperately needs his help.

The Client List

Not rated. Sony Pictures Home Entertainment, produced in 2010, released in 2011, 88 minutes.

When an injury leaves her husband unable to work, and her family faces foreclosure on their home, a former beauty queen is forced to take a job in a massage parlor. She soon realizes that her clients expect more from her than just a rubdown.

Coco Chanel & Igor Stravinsky

Rated R. Sony Pictures Classics, produced in 2009, released in 2010, 119 minutes.

By the 1920s, Coco Chanel has established herself in the world of fashion. After a disastrous reaction to an early production of his ballet, Igor Stravinsky has become a penniless refugee living in exile. When the two are introduced, the attraction is immediate and together they embark on a passionate affair, which results in a period of great artistic achievement for both artists. Includes is a making-of featurette.

Coyote County Loser

Rated PG. Monarch Home Video, released in 2010, 92 minutes.

Can losers find love? Southwest desert radio station K-RAP is struggling to pay the bills when suave radio jock Jack Proctor zooms through Coyote County on his way to LA to take the gig of a lifetime. When the deal stalls, Jack temps on-air for small town K-RAP. Dr. Lauren Hartford, local on-air relationship expert, gets under Jack's skin by questioning his love advice and prompts him to initiate a high-stakes contest to find Coyote County's biggest loser.

Death Race 2

Unrated. Universal, produced in 2011, released in 2011, 101 minutes.

In the world's most dangerous prison, a new game is born: Death Race. The rules of this adrenaline-fueled blood sport are simple, drive - or die. When repentant convict Carl Lucas discovers there's a price on his head, his only hope is to survive a twisted race against an army of hardened criminals and tricked-out cars. Tells the explosive story of how the legendary race began. Strap yourself in for an insane thrill ride!

Dinner for Schmucks

Rated PG-13. Paramount Home Entertainment, produced in 2010, released in 2011, 114 minutes.

Tim is a guy on the verge of having it all. The only thing standing between him and total career success is finding the perfect guest to bring to his boss' annual Dinner for Extraordinary People, an event where the winner of the evening brings the most eccentric character as his guest. Enter Barry, a guy with a passion for dressing mice up in tiny outfits to recreate great works of art. When the duo shows up to dine, the lunacy kicks into high gear. Includes deleted scenes, outtakes, and more.

Dirty Tricks

Not rated. Acorn Media, released in 2011, 146 minutes.

Part bawdy bedroom farce, part zany crime caper. The story about a charming underachiever on the run from the law. Sure, he's manipulative, money-grubbing, and completely amoral. But is he a murderer? Absolutely not, he insists - despite the pesky corpses piling up. After befriendng an accountant, he beds the man's randy wife Karen before a wealthy widow next catches his eye. When Karen meets an untimely demise, a plodding police detective gets involved, and things take a decidedly dicey turn

The Dogfather

Rated PG. Image Entertainment, produced in 2010, released in 2011, 88 minutes.

Sonny, a mobster's bulldog, swallow's the master's precious ring and runs away. With two bird-brain henchmen on his tail, Sonny finds a new home in the suburbs with the Franks family. Twelve-year-old Josh and his mom thinks Sonny is super cool and super smart, but his stressed-out dad Brian, wants to get rid of him. Brian has a change of heart when Sonny is dog napped and he realizes how much Sonny means to his heartbroken family.

Girl who Kicked the Hornet's Nest

Rated R. Music Box Films, produced in 2009, released in 2011, 129 minutes.

The final installment of Stieg Larsson's Millennium trilogy. Lisbeth Salander is fighting for her life in more ways than one. In an intensive care unit and charged with three murders, she will have to not only prove her innocence, but also identify and denounce the same corrupt government institutions that nearly destroyed her life. Once upon a time, she was a victim. Now, Lisbeth Salander is fighting back.

Handsome Harry

Rated R. Screen Media Films, produced in 2009, released in 2010, 94 minutes.

'Handsome' Harry Sweeney, a 52-year-old Vietnam veteran, is convinced to seek forgiveness from a comrade he betrayed long ago, David Kagan. As the road stretches out before Harry, we see the full effect that this long ago crime has had on his life. Only through confronting the events of his distant past, and finally confronting David himself, can Harry truly begin to live again.

Happy Ever Afters

Not rated. IFC Films, produced in 2009, released in 2011, 101 minutes.

It's two weddings and somebody's funeral when a pair of just-married couples discovers that both parties have booked the same reception hall on the same day at the same time. In this delightful screwball comedy, the bride and the groom are falling in love. Which is great, except that they've just tied the knot with someone else.

The Haunting of Amelia

Rated PG-13. Artist View Entertainment, released in 2010, 92 minutes.

Ten years after a tragic train accident killed his girlfriend, Josh finds himself haunted by disturbing visions from somewhere between the world of the living and the dead-haunting memories that keep him from moving on. His buddy, Rusty back in town for their high school reunion, tries to wake Josh from his painful past, but a mysterious young waitress offers a seductive alternative.

The Heavy

Rated R. Lions Gate Entertainment, released in 2010, 102 minutes.

During a routine hit, 'Boots' Mason learns a hit has been placed on his own life when a crooked cop, Dunn, tries to kill him. While he seeks his revenge, secrets kept hidden are exposed and no innocent bystander is safe as bullets fly. In this world where you can trust no one, all bets are off!

Howl

Rated R. Oscilloscope Laboratories, produced in 2010, released in 2011, 84 minutes.

Allen Ginsberg recounts the road trips, love affairs, and search for personal liberation that led to the most timeless, electrifying, and controversial work of his career. Pushing the limits and challenging the mainstream, the passionate and provocative Howl and its publisher find themselves on trial for obscenity, with prosecutor Ralph McIntosh setting out to have the book banned, while defense attorney Jake Ehrlich fervently argues for freedom of speech and creative expression.

Jack Goes Boating

Rated R. Anchor Bay Entertainment, produced in 2010, released in 2011, 91 minutes.

Jack and Connie are two single people who on their own might continue to recede into the anonymous background of New York City, but in each other begin to find the courage and desire to pursue a budding relationship. As Jack and Connie cautiously circle commitment, the couple that introduced them, Clyde and Lucy, confront their own unresolved issues, and each couple comes face to face with the inevitable path of their relationship.

Legacy

Rated R. Code Black Entertainment, produced in 2010, released in 2010, 90 minutes.

Malcolm Gray is a decorated anti-terrorist black-ops soldier. When a military effort to tackle an arms dealer ends in Gray's capture and torture, he later finds himself back in his Brooklyn apartment, struggling to overcome the effects of severe paranoia and anxiety.

Let Me In

Rated R. Anchor Bay Entertainment, produced in 2010, released in 2011, 115 minutes.

Abby, an eerily self-possessed young girl, emerges from her heavily curtained apartment only at night and always barefoot, seemingly immune to the bitter winter elements. Owen, an alienated 12-year-old boy, recognizes a fellow outcast and opens up to her, forming a unique bond. But as a string of grisly murders occupies his town, Owen has to confront the reality that this seemingly innocent girl might be hiding an unthinkable secret.

Love Hurts

Rated PG-13. e one, produced in 2009, released in 2011, 95 minutes.

Ben Bingham has slipped into a fossilized middle age, unlike his vibrant wife Amanda. When she finally leaves him, Ben is at a loss. He drowns himself in gin and refuses to get out of his pajamas until his popular 17-year-old son Justin takes over. He changes Ben's 'look' and pushes him out into the social scene. Before Ben knows what is happening, he is the most popular single man in town, pursued by his nurse, his trainer, and karaoke-singing twins.

Mademoiselle Chambon

Lorber Films, produced in 2009, released in 2010, 101 minutes.

Jean is a burly and happily married housing contractor. One fateful afternoon, he picks up his son from school and meets the teacher, a willowy beauty named Mademoiselle Chambon. Their flirtation slowly builds over lingering glances and an impromptu violin solo in Chambon's apartment. Jean soon comes to a crossroads, having to choose between the intensity of his bond with Chambon or the responsibility and care he feels for his wife and child.

Mr. Nobody

Les Films Chrystal, released in 2010, 157 minutes.

A young boy stands on a station platform. The train is about to leave. Should he go with his mother or stay with his father? Many possibilities rise from this decision. As long as he doesn't choose, anything is possible. Every life deserves to be lived.

Nowhere Boy

Rated R. Sony Pictures Home Entertainment, produced in 2009, released in 2011, 98 minutes.

Set in Liverpool in 1955, the adolescent years of John Lennon are chronicled. Raised by his Aunt Mimi, his world is turned inside out when his free-spirited mother re-enters his life, opening up old wounds that release pain, anger, frustration, and his artistry. Bonus features include deleted scenes, and featurettes.

Red

Rated PG-13. Summit Entertainment, produced in 2010, released in 2011, 111 minutes.

Frank is a former black-ops CIA agent living a quiet life alone, until the day a hit squad shows up to kill him. With his identity compromised, Frank reassembles his old team - Joe, Marvin, and Victoria - and sets out to prove that they still have a few tricks up their sleeves. Stand back and watch the bullets fly in this explosive action-comedy.

The Social Network

Rated PG-13. Columbia Pictures, produced in 2010, released in 2011, 120 minutes.

In a fury of blogging and programming, what begins in computer programming genius Mark Zuckerberg's dorm room soon becomes a global social network and a revolution in communication. A mere six years and 500 million friends later, Zuckerberg is the youngest billionaire in history, but for this entrepreneur, success leads to both personal and legal complications. Bonus features include commentary, documentaries, featurettes, and more.

Soul Kittens Cabaret

Image Entertainment, produced in 2010, released in 2010, 147 minutes.

Fueled by the bright lights and illusion of fame, we follow seven women on their journey to self-discovery as they struggle with temptation, personal demons and false promises. While trying to revive Detroit's hottest club in town, the Soul Kittens take customers on the ride of their lives with sultry sex appeal and silky vocals. Along the way, the Soul Kittens learn the real meaning of sisterhood from the yin and yang of reasoning.

The Temptations

Not rated. Vivendi Entertainment, released in 2011, 175 minutes.

The true story of the Temptations, the vocal soul group of the 1960s, as seen from the viewpoint of the last surviving member, Otis Williams. Beginning from their humble origins in the late '50s and continuing through the '90s and the deaths of the other four members.

The Ticking Clock

Rated R. Sony Pictures Home Entertainment, produced in 2010, released in 2011, 101 minutes.

The journal of a serial killer, which contains the names of the people who will be butchered, is stumbled upon by a reporter. Every path the reporter takes throughout his investigations leads to a nine-year-old orphan who is living in a group home.

Touching Home

Rated PG-13. ARC Entertainment, produced in 2009, released in 2011, 111 minutes.

Lane and Clint Winston, twin brothers from a working-class background, pursue professional baseball careers while trying to save their homeless, alcoholic father Charlie. A coming-of-age drama, an account of overcoming enormous odds, and a tale about family and the bonds that matter.

The Traveler

Rated R. Paramount Home Entertainment, produced in 2011, released in 2011, 91 minutes.

Mr. Nobod, is a mysterious stranger whose past threatens to haunt the lives of six unsuspecting sheriff's deputies. The moment he arrives in their small town police station, confessing to multiple murders, their lives are forever changed.

Triggerman

Rated PG. Lions Gate Entertainment, released in 2011, 97 minutes.

A legendary poker-playing outlaw, Triggerman, arrives in town for the wildest gambling tournament this side of the West. As the tournament begins, he'll get caught up in a violent showdown as bandits try to cheat their way to the finals. With his hand on the trigger, this outlaw won't let anything come between him and his winning hand. Special features included.

Wall Street Money Never Sleeps

Rated PG-13. 20th Century Fox, produced in 2010, released in 2010, 133 minutes.

Following a lengthy prison term, Gordon Gekko finds himself on the outside looking in at a world he once commanded. Hoping to repair his relationship with his daughter Winnie, Gekko forges an alliance with her fiance, Jake. But Winnie and Jake learn the hard way that Gekko is still a master manipulator who will stop at nothing to reclaim his rightful place at the top of Wall Street.

Welcome to the Rileys

Rated R. Sony Pictures Home Entertainment, produced in 2010, released in 2011, 111 minutes.

Doug and Louise have been married for many years, but their marriage began to grow cold after their teenage daughter was killed in a car accident. When Doug goes to New Orleans to attend a convention, he meets Mallory, a teenage stripper/prostitute who is on a path to self-destruction. Doug decides to help her whether she appreciates it or not. This act will help to heal his marriage.

The Yellow Handkerchief

Rated PG-13. Samuel Goldwyn Films, produced in 2008, released in 2010, 96 minutes.

Three strangers of two generations embark on a road trip through post-Katrina Louisiana. Along the way, relationships forge and change in a myriad of ways, leading to the possibility of second chances at life and love.
