

April 2010

35 Shots of Rum

Not rated. Cinema Guild, produced in 2009, released in 2010, 102 minutes.

Lionel is a middle-aged widower who makes his living driving a train and shares an apartment with his twenty-something daughter Josephine. Lionel and Josephine have a warm and caring relationship. Lionel's on-and-off girlfriend Gabrielle and their footloose friend Noe live in the same building, and together the four have fallen into a casual family relationship. Lionel is on edge when Josephine's friendship with Noe begins to evolve into a romantic relationship.

44 Inch Chest

Rated R. Image Entertainment, produced in 2009, released in 2010, 95 minutes.

How far would you go to avenge betrayal? Colin Diamond is about to find out in this gritty, provocative thriller. After he breaks down over the dissolution of his marriage, he kidnaps his wife's lover, and his rage pushes him to the brink of murder as his motley crew of buddies urges him to exact brutal revenge.

According to Greta

Rated PG-13. Anchor Bay Entertainment, produced in 2009, released in 2010, 92 minutes.

A rebellious 17-year-old, who is contemplating suicide, is sent to her grandparents' house for the summer. She soon begins a romance with a young cook who has a criminal past, confronts a tragic family secret, and just may discover the promising young woman hidden beneath her sarcastic shell. Just when she is looking for a way out, will life find a way back in?

Alvin and the Chipmunks - The Squeakquel (Juvenile)

Rated PG. 20th Century Fox, produced in 2009, released in 2010, 88 minutes.

Chipmunk singing sensations Alvin, Simon, and Theodore are back for an encore in this hilarious 'squeakquel' packed with more action and more nutty fun for the whole family. When a concert mishap lands Dave in the hospital, the Chipmunks take a break from superstardom and enroll in school to fit in with kids their age. But they soon face some stiff competition when they meet the Chipettes, a beautiful, talented trio of chipmunks discovered by Ian, the boy's evil ex-manager.

Angus, Thongs and Perfect Snogging

Rated PG-13. Paramount Home Entertainment, produced in 2008, released in 2010, 100 minutes.

On the verge of turning 15, Georgia sets her sights on Robbie, the gorgeous new guy at school who plays bass for the Stiff Dylans. Sadly, he is already dating her evil archrival: blonde, perfect Lindsay. With her flamboyantly dressed cat Angus and her girl posse, the Ace Gang, by her side, Georgia sets her plan in motion to nab the boyfriend of her dreams, and have the best birthday party ever. Includes additional scenes, bloopers, commentary, featurettes, music videos, and photo gallery.

Astro Boy (2009)

Rated PG. Summit Entertainment, produced in 2009, released in 2010, 94 minutes.

Set in futuristic Metro City, Astro Boy is about a young robot with incredible powers created by a brilliant scientist in the image of the son he has lost. Unable to fulfill the grieving man's expectations, our hero embarks on a journey in search of acceptance, experiencing betrayal and a netherworld of robot gladiators, before he returns to save Metro City and reconcile with the father who rejected him.

Avatar

Rated PG-13. 20th Century Fox, produced in 2009, released in 2010, 162 minutes.

Jake Sully is a former Marine confined to a wheelchair. But despite his broken body, Jake is still a warrior at heart. He is recruited to travel light years to the human outpost on Pandora, where a corporate consortium is mining a rare mineral that is the key to solving Earth's energy crisis. He is given a mission to infiltrate the Na'vi, who have become a major obstacle to mining the precious ore. But a beautiful Na'vi female, Neytiri, saves Jake's life, and this changes everything.

Bad lieutenant - Port of Call New Orleans

Rated R. First Look Studios, produced in 2009, released in 2010, 122 minutes.

In the aftermath of Hurricane Katrina, detective Terence McDonagh investigates the murder of five Senegalese immigrants. Complicating matters is his addiction to drugs, and his tumultuous romance with a prostitute. Includes commentary, interviews, trailers, previews, and photos.

Bees Wax

Not rated. Cinema Guild, produced in 2009, released in 2010, 92 minutes.

Revolves around the personal and professional entanglements of twin sisters Jeannie and Lauren. Jeannie co-owns a vintage clothing store with Amanda, a semi-estranged friend who she fears is trying to end their partnership. Lauren leads a looser, less tethered existence and is considering getting out of the country altogether. A story about families, friends, and lovers, and those awkward moments that bring all of them together.

Cheech and Chong's Hey Watch This

Rated R. The Weinstein Company, produced in 2009, released in 2010, 83 minutes.

Cheech and Chong are back in an all-new adventure as they bring their hilarious antics on stage across America. The tour has been a resounding success with sellouts at almost every venue in every major city in the U.S. and Canada.

The Collector

Rated R. Vivendi Entertainment, produced in 2009, released in 2010, 90 minutes.

An ex-con is desperate to repay the debt he owes his ex-wife, and plans a heist at the home of his new employer. Little does he know that a second criminal has already targeted the property and has rigged up a series of deadly traps. Includes commentary, alternate ending, deleted scenes, and music video.

Crazy Heart

Rated R. 20th Century Fox, produced in 2009, released in 2010, 111 minutes.

The powerful story of a country music star's rocky road to redemption. Bad Blake is a boozy, broken-down singer who reaches for salvation with the help of Jean, a journalist who discovers the real man behind the music. But will Bad's hard-livin' ways and crazy heart cost him his last chance at a comeback?

The Damned United

Rated R. Sony Pictures Classics, produced in 2009, released in 2010, 97 minutes.

Recounts Brian Clough's 44-day reign as manager of Leeds United, the reigning champions of English football. Includes a look into his earlier career, which explains his hostility toward Don Revie, who was the team's previous manager and also his bitter rival. Includes deleted scenes, commentary, and featurettes.

Dead Snow

Not rated. IFC Films, produced in 2009, released in 2010, 92 minutes.

A ski vacation turns horrific for a group of medical students, as they find themselves confronted by an unimaginable menace: Nazi zombies.

The Defender

Rated R. Sony Pictures Home Entertainment, produced in 2009, released in 2010, 101 minutes.

Arthur is just an ordinary guy by day, who turns into Defendor, a self-made superhero, by night. His quest is to track down his archenemy, Captain Industry, the person he believes is responsible for killing his mother. But before he can do this, he must convince a court-appointed psychiatrist that he is sane enough to be on the streets, and befriending a teenaged prostitute doesn't help. Includes commentary, featurettes, deleted scenes, and outtakes.

The Descent 2

Rated R. Lions Gate Entertainment, produced in 2009, released in 2010, 94 minutes.

Dazed, bloodied and speechless with trauma, Sarah Carter emerges alone from the Appalachian cave system where the events of the first film took place. Local sheriff Redmond Vaines forces her back underground to help the rescue team which is desperately searching for her five missing girlfriends. Only Sarah knows the terror which lurks in the shadows of the caves. They are about to encounter a new tribe of crawlers, inbred, deformed and even more viciously feral than before.

Disgrace

Rated R. Image Entertainment, produced in 2008, released in 2010, 118 minutes.

Professor David Lurie is a man whose world is shattered when he is fired for seducing a college student. He finds peace at his estranged daughter's modest farm in South Africa until a horrific incident of terror and violence forces Lurie to confront his beliefs and the disturbing racial complexities of the new South Africa.

Dolan's Cadillac

Rated R. National Entertainment Media, produced in 2009, released in 2010, 88 minutes.

Based on the story by Stephen King. After his wife is murdered by notorious crime boss Jimmy Dolan, Robinson, a quiet middle school teacher, devises a diabolical plan to get revenge. Bonus features included.

Fix - A Film by Tao Ruspoli

Rated R. E1 Entertainment, produced in 2009, released in 2010, 93 minutes.

To keep Leo out of prison, Bella and Milo must race against time to raise $5,000 to pay for his rehab. Events take a dangerous and deadly turn when they decide a drug deal is their only chance. Bonus features include a making-of featurette.

A Fork in the Road

Not rated. Well Go USA, produced in 2009, released in 2010, 90 minutes.

Will, an escaped convict, takes refuge in a barn on the same night the owners, April and Martin, get into a terrible fight. After a gunshot is heard, April drags Martin's body outside and discovers Will. He convinces her that they must help each other or they will both go to prison. When the two attempt to dispose of the body, they find he is not dead after all. Now the task of disposal turns into a kidnapping nightmare and they find they must make some hard choices to keep from losing it all.

Gentlemen Broncos

Rated PG-13. 20th Century Fox, produced in 2009, released in 2010, 89 minutes.

The story of Benjamin Purvis, a lovable loner whose life is turned upside down when a pretentious fantasy author steals his story at a writers' camp. Bonus features include: commentary with director/writer Jared Hess, writer Jerusha Hess, and director of photography Munn Powell, deleted scenes, outtakes reel: A Buttload of Keepsakes, and more.

Housebroken

Rated R. Image Entertainment, produced in 2009, released in 2010, 91 minutes.

A newly retired father and his wife want to claim their rec room for themselves, and the only thing standing in their way is their two older sons who won't move out! When the parents decide that the only thing that will solve the problem is for them to move out, the sons must learn how to pay bills, with hilarious results!

Imaginarium of Doctor Parnassus

Rated PG-13. Sony Pictures Home Entertainment, produced in 2009, released in 2010, 123 minutes.

The immortal Dr. Parnassus and his daughter Valentina travel the countryside with his Imaginarium show, a mirror that audience members enter and are given two different paths to follow. If they choose correctly they will find joy and happiness, but choose wrongly and things will be quite the opposite. The doctor must also discover the right course to follow. After making a deal with Mr. Nick years ago, he must choose the correct path if he is to save his beloved daughter from Satan.

It's Complicated

Rated R .universal, produced in 2009, released in 2010, 121 minutes.

A hilarious look at marriage, divorce, and everything in between. With a thriving Santa Barbara bakeshop, a new romance heating up, and her divorce finally behind her, Jane Adler has her life all figured out, until she finds herself trapped between the perfect new beau and her philandering ex-husband, who's determined to win her back. When opposites attract all over again, will love be sweeter the second time around? It's...complicated!

Laila's Birthday

Kino, produced in 2008, released in 2010, 71 minutes.

At eight o'clock, it's Laila's birthday, okay?' Palestinian judge turned cab driver Abu's wife reminds her husband. On his young daughter's birthday, Abu faces a nerve-wracking shift in a Ramallah yellow cab, armed only with an ex-jurist's misplaced pride, a father's loyalty, and a sticker reminding passengers that smoking and carrying AK-47s are prohibited.

Lake Tahoe

Not rated. Film Movement, produced in 2008, released in 2009, 81 minutes.

Teenage Juan crashes his family's car into a telegraph pole on the outskirts of town, and looks for someone to help him fix it. His quest brings him to Don Heber, an old paranoid mechanic, to Lucia, a young mother who wants to be a lead singer of a punk band, and to a teenage mechanic obsessed with martial arts and kung fu philosophy.

Leap Year

Rated PG. Universal, produced in 2010, released in 2010, 101 minutes.

When Anna's four-year anniversary to her boyfriend passes without an engagement ring, she decides to take matters into her own hands. Inspired by an Irish tradition that allows women to propose to men on Leap Day, Anna follows Jeremy to Dublin to propose to him. But after landing on the wrong side of Ireland, she must enlist the help of the handsome and carefree local Declan to get her across the country. Along the way, they discover that the road to love can take you to very unexpected places.

The Lovely Bones

Rated PG-13. Paramount Home Entertainment, produced in 2009, released in 2010, 130 minutes.

When 14-year-old Susie Salmon was murdered, she left her unfinished life behind. Now from her place in a strange but beautiful in-between world, she must help her father catch her killer and protect her family before she can finally move on.

Motherhood

National Entertainment Media, produced in 2009, released in 2010, 94 minutes.

A stay-at-home mother tries to plan her daughter's birthday party, help her absent-minded husband, make up with her best friend, and still have time to write a large essay for a contest in a major magazine.

The New Year Parade

Carnavalesque, produced in 2009, released in 2009, 85 minutes.

When their parents' divorce, Jack and Kat must deal with the repercussions. Philadelphia's annual Mummer's Parade brings to light how divorce can effect young people.

Nine. a film by Rob Marshall

Rated PG-13. Sony Pictures Home Entertainment, produced in 2009, released in 2010, 119 minutes.

With only a week left before shooting begins on his latest movie, world famous film director Guido Contini is desperately searching for a way to overcome his creative block. Escaping to a seaside resort, he attempts to restore the equilibrium to his personal and professional existence by drawing inspiration from the women in his life. Includes deleted scenes, commentary, featurettes, and music videos.

Pirate Radio

Rated R. Universal, produced in 2009, released in 2010, 117 minutes.

The high-spirited story of how 8 DJs' love affair with rock n' roll changed the world forever. In the 1960s this group of rogue DJs, on a boat in the middle of the Northern Atlantic, played rock records and broke the law for the love of music. The film is packed with the music that defined a generation and will leave you rocking out all day and all night.

Pontypool

Not rated. IFC Films, produced in 2008, released in 2010, 96 minutes.

A psychological thriller in which a deadly virus infects a small Ontario town.

Princess and the Frog (Disney 2010) Juvenile

Rated G. Disney, produced in 2009, released in 2010, 98 minutes.

Set in the great city of New Orleans, a beautiful girl named Tiana meets a frog prince who desperately wants to be human again, and a fateful kiss leads them both on a hilarious adventure through the mystical bayous of Louisiana.

Private Lives of Pippa Lee

Rated R. Screen Media Films, produced in 2009, released in 2010, 98 minutes.

After nearly two decades under the wing of an aging, avuncular husband, dutiful mother and housewife Pippa Lee undergoes a midlife breakthrough. Unearthing the sexually curious wild child of her teens, middle-aged Pippa sparks a relationship with a divorcee loner. Pippa Lee is a resilient woman, refusing to let life pass her by.

Seraphine (a film by Martin Provost)

Not rated. Music Box Films, produced in 2008, released in 2010, 125 minutes.

The true story of Seraphine Louis, a simple, devout housekeeper who in 1905, at the age of 41, began painting brilliantly colorful canvases. In 1912, a German art critic discovered her paintings while she was working as his maid. Tells the story of the relationship between the avant-garde dealer and the visionary cleaning lady, forging a testament to the mysteries of creativity and the resilience of one woman's spirit.

A Serious Man

Rated R. Universal, produced in 2009, released in 2010, 106 minutes.

Physics professor Larry Gopnik can't believe his life. His wife is leaving him for his best friend, his unemployed brother won't move off the couch, someone is threatening his career, his kids are a mystery, and his neighbor is tormenting him by sunbathing nude. Struggling to make sense of it all, Larry consults three different rabbis and their answers lead him on a twisted journey of faith, family, delinquent behavior, and mortality.

The Slammin' Salmon

Rated R. Anchor Bay Entertainment, produced in 2010, released in 2010, 98 minutes.

To raise the money to pay the debt that he owes the mob, restaurant owner Slammin' Cleon Salmon challenges his waiters to sell more food than they have ever sold in their lives. As the hours pass, the action becomes more chaotic when Cleon shows up to supervise the contest and changes the rules on a minute to minute basis. Includes featurettes and commentaries.

Tenderness

Rated R. Lions Gate Entertainment, produced in 2007, released in 2010, 101 minutes.

Lori Cranston is a confused fifteen-year-old dreamer in search of an escape from her troubled home life. She discovers and becomes enthralled with Eric, a young man with a violent past. As they embark on a harrowing journey, a hardened local cop, who has been following Eric for years, is intent on exposing him as a serial killer before Lori's fate is determined.

Three Kingdoms

Rated R. Lions Gate Entertainment, produced in 2010, released in 2010, 102 minutes.

In 228 AD, a time when China was plagued by constant war and divided among three kingdoms, a hero arose. Zhao Zilong was a common man who ascended from humble roots to become commander of the army charged with liberating the land from an evil warlord. He led numerous battles of strength and wit, but now he must fight against the impossible to defy the fate of his nation.

Tracing Cowboys

Not rated. Vanguard, produced in 2008, released in 2010, 94 minutes.

Tells the story of two individuals searching for their own identity, while separated from each other. Ethan is a young Englishman obsessed with his hero John Wayne and intent on becoming a Country and Western singer. When his girlfriend Debi leaves without explanation, Ethan travels down to Mexico during the festival of the Day of the Dead intent on finding her. No matter how far he travels the whereabouts of Debi remain elusive, until her photos point Ethan to a dramatic conclusion.

The Vicious Kind

Rated R. Image Entertainment, produced in 2009, released in 2010, 92 minutes.

Caleb tries to convince his brother Peter that his new girlfriend, who he brings home for the holidays, isn't the right girl for him, only to fall for her himself.

Wonderful World

Rated R. Magnolia Home Entertainment, produced in 2009, released in 2010.

Ben Singer is a failed folk singer, unemployed proofreader, and every-other-weekend dad to his young daughter. The only thing he takes comfort in is smoking marijuana and chess games with Ibou, his Senegalese roommate. When Ibou becomes ill, a municipal employee exacerbates the emergency situation, and Ben pours his energy into a lawsuit against the city. Meanwhile, Ibou's beautiful sister Khadi arrives from Senegal, and Ben's life begins to turn around.

The Young Victoria

Rated PG. Sony Pictures Home Entertainment, produced in 2009, released in 2010, 105 minutes.

Chronicles the life and times of Queen Victoria from her childhood to her early rise to power and the first turbulent years of her rule. Her romantic relationship and eventual marriage to Prince Albert culminates in a royal power struggle which ultimately is the key to her happiness when she comes to the realization that he is someone she can fully trust and believe in. Includes: deleted scenes, extended scenes, and featurettes.

March 2010

$9.99 a film by Tatia Rosenthal

Rated R. E1 Entertainment. Produced in 2008, released in 2010, 78 minutes.

An unemployed 20-something man finds that the answers to the meaning of life can be found in a book. Soon his path crosses some of his more unusual neighbors, all looking for something missing in their lives.

2012

Rated PG-13. Sony Pictures Home Entertainment, produced in 2009, released in 2010, 158 minutes.

A geophysical team investigating the effect radiation from other solar systems has on the Earth learns that the core of the Earth is heating up and warns the President of the United States. While the leaders of the world race to build 'arks' to escape the impending doom, volcanic eruptions and earthquakes of unprecedented strength wreak havoc all over the world. Includes commentary, alternate ending, deleted scenes, featurette, and music video.

Alexander (the Last)

Not rated. IFC Films, released in 2010, 72 minutes.

A married actress, her musician husband, her on-stage lover, and her impulsive sister all get caught up in a sexual and creative tangle of commitments, temptations, and performances.

Armored

Rated PG-13. Screen Gems, Inc., produced in 2009, released in 2010, 88 minutes.

A group of veteran officers at an armored transport security firm pressure a new guard into stealing one of their own company's trucks containing 42 million dollars. Using a seemingly surefire plan, the men plan to make off with the money with no harm done until an unexpected witness causes their plan to come apart at the seams. Includes three featurettes, and commentary.

Astropia (Icelandic)

Not rated. Vanguard, produced in 2008, released in 2010, 92 minutes.

When Hildur, a beautiful high-society girl and a regular guest in the national celebrity press, finds out that her boyfriend Jolli is about to go to jail, she realizes she has to learn to stand on her own two feet and quickly. Hildur, possessing no skills that she knows of, or any practical experience, tries to find work without success. She's about to give up when by pure coincidence she lands a job selling roleplaying books and accessories at the popular local fantasy shop, Astropia.

Bandslam

Rated PG. Summit Entertainment, produced in 2009, released in 2010, 111 minutes.

Ultra-popular Charlotte is determined to face off against her ex at the country's biggest music competition. She just needs a band. Newcomer Will knows more about musicians than anyone. He just needs a friend. And rebel guitar player Sa5m has a wicked voice but needs someone to believe in her. Together, this unlikely trio will take on Bandslam in a way no one thought possible.

The Blind Side

Rated PG-13. Alcon Entertainment, produced in 2009, released in 2010, 128 minutes.

The remarkable true story of Michael Oher, a homeless African-American youngster from a broken home, taken in by the Touhys, a well-to-do white family who help him fulfill his potential. At the same time, Oher's presence in the Touhys' lives leads them to some insightful self-discoveries of their own.

Boondock Saints II - All Saints Day

Rated R. Sony Pictures Home Entertainment, produced in 2009, released in 2010, 117 minutes.

The MacManus brothers have been living with their father on a sheep farm in Ireland, far removed from their past vigilante lifestyle. When they learn that their beloved priest has been killed by the mob and they are being framed for the murder, the duo returns to Boston to bring justice to those who are responsible. Includes deleted scenes, commentaries, featurette, and more.

Breakfast with Scot

Rated PG-13. E1 Entertainment, produced in 2007, released in 2010, 109 minutes.

A sports lawyer and his partner, an ex-hockey player, find their lives turned completely upside down when a young boy comes to live with them, which will have them questioning everything they thought they knew about themselves, each other, and love.

Brief Interviews with Hideous Men

Not rated. IFC Films, produced in 2009, released in 2010, 80 minutes.

After being abruptly dumped by her boyfriend, a graduate student decides to interview a series of men about their reasons for behaving badly. What follows is an intimate portrait of the male species at their best, worst, and most hilariously complex, confessing their desires, failures, frustrations, and resentments.

Bronson

Rated R. 6-Shooter Film Series, produced in 2008, released in 2010, 93 minutes.

Michael Peterson was 19 years old in 1974. Reckless, and hoping to make a name for himself, he picked up a homemade sawed-off shotgun and set off to rob a post office. Caught and arrested soon after, he was convicted and sentenced to seven years in prison. Ultimately, Peterson ended up behind bars for 34 years, 30 of which were spent in solitary confinement. While incarcerated, his alter ego, Charles Bronson, surfaced and eventually replaced his own personality.

Brothers (2009)

Rated R. Lions Gate Entertainment, produced in 2009, released in 2010, 105 minutes.

Captain Sam Cahill is embarking on his fourth tour of duty, leaving behind his beloved wife and two daughters. When Sam's Blackhawk helicopter is shot down in the mountains of Afghanistan, the worst is presumed, leaving an enormous void in the family. Despite a dark history, Sam's charismatic younger brother steps in to fill the family void.

Capitalism: A Love Story

Rated R. Overture Films, produced in 2009, released in 2009, 124 minutes.

Michael Moore explores the root causes of the global economic meltdown and takes a comical look at corporate and political shenanigans. Along the way he tries to answer the question: What is the price that America pays for its love of capitalism?

Did you hear about the Morgans?

Rated PG-13. Columbia Pictures, produced in 2009, released in 2010, 103 minutes.

A very successful New York couple are at their wits' end on how to solve their strained marriage. After they become the only witnesses to a brutal murder they are relocated to a small town in Wyoming as part of a witness-protection program. Now these diehard city dwellers will have to work together to survive the weather, bears, fresh air, and forced time with one another if they want to make it out alive. Includes commentary, deleted scenes, featurettes, and bloopers.

An Education

Rated PG-13. Sony Pictures Classics, produced in 2009, released in 2010, 100 minutes.

In the early 1960s, 16-year-old Jenny Mellor lives with her parents in a London suburb. She is smart, pretty, and working toward her goal of being accepted into Oxford. Her life will take a big turn when she meets David, a man twice her age. Now she must decide if she will pursue an education at Oxford, or if she will choose to learn all that a charismatic, older man can teach her. Includes commentary, featurette, deleted scenes, and more.

Everybody's Fine

Rated PG-13. Miramax Films, produced in 2009, released in 2010, 100 minutes.

When Frank Goode's grown children cancel a family reunion, the recent widower sets off on a cross-country journey to reconnect with each of them. A family separated by physical and emotional distance finds a way to come together.

The Fantastic Mr. Fox

Rated PG. 20th Century Fox, produced in 2009, released in 2010, 87 minutes.

Mr. and Mrs. Fox live a happy home life with their eccentric son Ash and visiting nephew Kristopherson. That is, until Mr. Fox slips into his sneaky old ways and plots the greatest chicken heist the animal world has ever seen. Based on the beloved, best selling book by Roald Dahl.

Hachi - A Dog's Tale

Rated G. Sony Pictures Home Entertainment, produced in 2009, released in 2010, 93 minutes.

The heartwarming true story of a loyal dog named Hachiko. This very special friend would accompany his master to the train station every day and return each afternoon to greet him after work. Even after his master passed away, he continued to return to the same spot at the station every day for the next nine years to wait. During his daily visits he touched many lives and taught the local people about love, compassion, and, above all, unyielding loyalty. Includes featurette.

The Men Who Stare at Goats

Rated R. Anchor Bay Entertainment, produced in 2009, released in 2010, 94 minutes.

Reporter Bob Wilton is in search of his next big story when he encounters Lyn Cassady, a shadowy figure who claims to be part of an experimental U.S. military unit. With unparalleled psychic powers, they can read the enemy's thoughts, pass through solid walls, and even kill a goat simply by staring at it.

New Moon (Twilight Saga)

Rated PG-13. Summit Entertainment, produced in 2009, released in 2010, 130 minutes.

Bella Swan is devastated by the abrupt departure of her vampire love, Edward Cullen, but her spirit is rekindled by her growing friendship with the irresistible Jacob Black. Suddenly she is drawn into the world of the werewolves, ancestral enemies of the vampires, and finds her loyalties tested. Special features include a 6-part documentary that takes you behind the scenes.

Ninja Assassin

Rated R. Warner Home Video, produced in 2009, released in 2010, 99 minutes.

Raizo, trained from childhood in the way of the Ozunu Clan ninja, is stalked by fellow warriors for breaking free of them and their iron-willed dojo patriarch. He is on the run with a Europol agent who has proof the clan sells assassination services to governments.

Old Dogs

Rated PG. Disney, produced in 2009, released in 2010, 88 minutes.

Two best friends have their lives turned upside down when they are charged with the care of seven-year-old twins while on the verge of a big business deal. The clueless bachelors stumble in their efforts, leading to one debacle after another, with a gorilla and some pecking penguins.

Paris (A film by Cedric Klapisch)

Not rated. IFC Films, produced in 2008, released in 2010, 129 minutes.

While waiting for a heart transplant that could save his life, Pierre reunites with his sister and her lively children. This rediscovery of his family and observation of the teeming streets outside his window give Pierre hope, and a new sense of how he might spend the time still left to him.

Planet 51 (Juvenile)

Rated PG. Tri Star, produced in 2009, released in 2010, 91 minutes.

American astronaut Captain Charles T. Baker thinks he is the first person to set foot on Planet 51. Little does he know the planet is inhabited by little green people who live in a cheerful, innocent world. The only fear they have is that their planet will be overtaken by alien invaders from planet Earth. Now, before he becomes part of the Planet 51 Alien Invaders Space Museum, Captain Baker, with the help of his new friend Lem, must figure out a way to escape and return back to Earth.

Precious

Rated R. Lions Gate Entertainment, produced in 2009, released in 2010, 109 minutes.

Precious Jones, an inner-city high school girl, is illiterate, overweight, and pregnant with her second child. Naive and abused, Precious responds to a glimmer of hope when a door is opened by an alternative school teacher. She is faced with the choice to follow opportunity and test her own boundaries.

The Prisoner (2009)

Not rated. IFC Films, produced in 2005, released in 2009, 75 minutes.

Arrogant Hollywood director Derek Plato, has announced that his next film will be a violent prison drama. But while scouting locations alone in an abandoned penitentiary, Plato is taken hostage by a sadistic jailer and held captive on death row. Now Derek is faced with two desperate choices; answer a series of brutally personal questions on camera, or be strapped into the electric chair.

Serious Moonlight

Rated R. Magnolia Home Entertainment, produced in 2009, released in 2010, 84 minutes.

What happens when a high-powered attorney accidentally discovers that her husband is having an affair and planning to leave her for his younger mistress? She knocks him out and duct tapes him to the toilet! Then when their home is invaded by drunken burglars, the night really gets complicated. Bonus features include behind the scenes featurette and commentary.

Sherlock Holmes (2010)

Rated PG-13 Warner Home Video, produced in 2009, released in 2010, 128 minutes.

This dynamic new portrayal of Sherlock Holmes sends Holmes and his stalwart partner Watson on their latest challenge. Revealing fighting skills as lethal as his legendary intellect, Holmes will battle as never before to bring down a new nemesis and unravel a deadly plot that could destroy the country.

Troubled Water

Not rated. Film Movement, produced in 2009, released in 2010, 120 minutes.

Jan, recently released from prison after serving time for the murder of a child, has always maintained his innocence. A gifted organist, he takes a job at an Oslo church under his middle name, Thomas. His talent and gentle manner quickly earn him the respect of his superiors, and the love of the pastor, Anna. But his past catches up with him when a local teacher comes to the church on a school visit and recognizes the organist as Jan, the young man who was convicted for the murder of her son.

Up in the Air

Rated R. Paramount Home Entertainment, produced in 2009, released in 2010, 109 minutes.

Ryan Bingham is a corporate downsizing expert who flies all over the world on business. Just as he is on the cusp of reaching ten million frequent flyer miles and meeting the frequent traveler woman of his dreams, his company grounds him. When Bingham goes on his last cross-country firing expedition, he will learn that life isn't about the journey, but about the connections made along the way. Includes commentary, music video, featurette, deleted scenes, and trailers.

Where the Wild Things Are

Rated PG. Village Roadshow Pictures, produced in 2009, released in 2010, 101 minutes.

Maurice Sendak's classic story about Max, a rambunctious and sensitive boy who escapes to where the Wild Things are. Max lands on an island where he meets mysterious and strange creatures whose emotions are as wild and unpredictable as their actions.

February 2010

Amelia (2009)

Rated PG. 20th Century Fox, produced in 2009, released in 2010, 111 minutes.

Bound by ambition and love, Amelia Earhart and husband and business partner George Putnam's enduring marriage could not be broken by Amelia's determination to fly, nor her passionate affair with Gene Vidal. Amelia set off on her most daunting mission yet, a solo flight around the world that she and George both anxiously foresaw as destined, whatever the outcome, to become one of the most talked-about journeys in history.

Amreeka

Rated PG-13. Virgil Films, produced in 2009, released in 2009, 96 minutes.

Muna Farah, a Palestinian single mom, struggles to maintain her optimistic spirit in the daily grind of intimidating West Bank checkpoints, the constant nagging of a controlling mother, and the haunting shadows of a failed marriage. Everything changes one day when she receives a letter informing her that her family has been granted a U.S. green card.

Blood Creek

Rated R Lions Gate Entertainment, produced in 2009, released in 2010, 90 minutes.

In 1936, the Wollners family, who live in Town Creek, West Virginia, take Professor Ricard Wirth into their home as a favor for the Third Reich. Unaware that the Third Reich practices in the occult, the family will end up fighting for their very survival. Now, 71 years later, Evan Marshall returns home after escaping his captors. On a quest for revenge, he and his brother go back to Town Creek on a mission that will test them in every possible way.

The Box

Rated PG-13. Warner Home Video, produced in 2009, released in 2010, 116 minutes.

What if someone gave you a box containing a button that, if pushed, would bring you a million dollars...but simultaneously take the life of someone you don't know? Would you do it? Norma and Arthur face an impossible moral dilemma. What they don't realize is that no matter what they decide, terrifying consequences have already been set in motion.

The Burning Plain

Rated R. Magnolia Home Entertainment, produced in 2008, released in 2010, 107 minutes.

Sylvia is a beautiful restaurant manager whose cool, professional demeanor masks the sexually charged storm within. When a stranger from Mexico confronts her with her mysterious past, Sylvia is launched into a journey through space and time that inextricably connects her to these disparate characters, all of whom are grappling with their own romantic destinies.

Coco Before Chanel

Rated PG-13. Sony Pictures Classics, produced in 2009, released in 2010, 110 minutes.

Years after being abandoned at an orphanage by her father, Gabrielle Chanel finds a job in a tailor shop where she meets and soon begins an affair with French millionaire Etienne Balsan. Through Baron Balsan she is introduced into French society and given the opportunity to design her own style of hats. Though her career takes off, her personal life becomes more complicated when she falls in love with Balsan's former best friend, Arthur Capel. Includes commentary, and featurettes.

Cold Souls

Rated PG-13. 20th Century Fox, produced in 2009, released in 2010, 101 minutes.

Paul very well might have found the key to happiness for which he's been searching: soul storage. But complications arise when he is the unfortunate victim of 'soul trafficking.' Balancing a tightrope between deadpan humor and pathos, and reality and fantasy, a true soul-searching comedy emerges.

Couples Retreat

Rated PG-13. Universal, produced in 2009, released in 2010, 114 minutes.

Eight friends are on vacation in paradise, one they'll never forget. Their group-rate vacation comes at a price when they discover that participation in the resort's unconventional couples therapy activities is anything but optional. Bonus material includes: alternate ending - 'Back in Chicago,' gag reel, extended scenes, and more.

A Dangerous Man

Not rated. Paramount Home Entertainment, produced in 2010, released in 2010, 94 minutes.

After serving six years for a murder he didn't commit, ex-Special Forces operative Shane Daniels gets released from prison. Back on the street, he wields a devastating combination of street-fighting smarts and martial arts skills when he suddenly finds himself in a deadly showdown with international drug merchants and the local corrupt cops. They're about to discover just how dangerous one man can be when they stand between him and his newfound freedom.

Dare

Rated R. Image Entertainment, produced in 2009, released in 2010, 91 minutes.

A young high school senior finds herself in the middle of a love triangle between her boyfriend Johnny and her best friend Ben.

The Donner Party (2009)

Rated R. First Look Studios, produced in 2009, released in 2010, 95 minutes.

A group of people, nicknamed 'Forlorn Hope,' find themselves lost, freezing, and without any source of food when they are steered off course in the Sierra Nevada Mountains. With the threat of death and imminent starvation hanging over their heads, they are forced to sacrifice one another as a source of nourishment. Surviving only on the flesh of the fallen members of their party, the remaining travelers must weigh their consciences against their will to survive.

Endgame

Rated PG-13. Monterey Video, produced in 2009, released in 2010, 109 minutes.

Working for P. W. Botha, Dr. Neil Barnard opens talks with imprisoned Nelson Mandela. But lesser known are the secret talks that take place in a rural English manor house. Both sides may win or lose all, including their own lives. Botha learns of the U.K. talks and, with the inevitable demise of apartheid, he intends to control the endgame by using the tactics of divide and rule.

Give me your Hand (French)

Not rated. Strand Releasing, produced in 2008, released in 2010, 77 minutes.

Antoine and Quentin are 18-year-old twins who live with their father in France. When their estranged mother dies in Spain, they set off to attend the funeral, without telling their father. The journey turns out to be more difficult than either had anticipated and a rift threatens to split the brothers apart. The brothers must struggle to accept each other as individuals, and to find their places in an uncertain world.

Good Hair

Rated PG-13. Lions Gate Entertainment, produced in 2009, released in 2010, 95 minutes.

Comedian Chris Rock tackles the very personal issue of hair, and how attaining good hair can affect relationships, wallets, and a person's self-esteem. Features interviews with Dr. Maya Angelou, Nia Long, Ice-T, Raven Symone, and more. Bonus features include deleted scenes, featurette, and commentary.

Halloween II (2009)

Rated R. Sony Pictures Home Entertainment, produced in 2009, released in 2010, 105 minutes.

Michael Myers has returned home to sleepy Haddonfield, Illinois to take care of some unfinished family business with his sister Laurie. Unleashing a trail of terror, Myers will stop at nothing to bring closure to the secrets of his twisted past. But the town's got an unlikely new hero, if they can only stay alive long enough to stop the unstoppable. Includes commentary, deleted scenes, alternate scenes, bloopers, music videos, and more.

Hello Goodbye

Not rated. Liberation Entertainment, produced in 2008, released in 2010, 99 minutes.

Following a dream vacation to Israel, where Alain explores his Jewish roots, Gisele insists they change their life and move to Tel Aviv. While Gisele, a Jewish convert, finds her new life inspiring, Alain fights to embrace Hebrew, Jewish tradition, and a new circumcision. Will Alain and Gisele learn whether 'shalom' represents 'hello' or 'goodbye'? Includes trailer and featurette.

I Hate Valentine's Day

Rated PG-13. IFC Films, produced in 2009, released in 2010, 89 minutes.

Genevieve is an independent single woman with a strict philosophy on dating: no more than five dates per guy to ensure that she will never get dumped or hurt. But when she meets restaurateur and all-around nice guy Greg, the rule that she swore to never break could end up breaking her heart.

Ice Castles (2010)

Rated PG. Sony Pictures Home Entertainment, produced in 2010, released in 2010, 95 minutes.

Alex Winston is a young girl who loses all hope of becoming a champion figure skater after an accident while practicing causes her to lose her sight. After meeting Nick, she realizes her dreams can still come true, both on the ice and in love. Includes featurette and deleted scenes.

The Informant!

Rated R. Warner Home Video, produced in 2009, released in 2010, 108 minutes.

The U.S. government decides to go after an agri-business giant with a price-fixing accusation based on the evidence submitted by their star witness, vice president turned informant Mark Whitacre. The FBI needs evidence, so Whitacre eagerly agrees to wear a wire and carry a hidden tape recorder in his briefcase, imagining himself as a kind of de facto secret agent.

The Invention of Lying

Rated PG-13. Warner Bros. Entertainment Inc., produced in 2009, released in 2010, 99 minutes.

In a world where people speak the truth and have no concept of deception, a young man about to lose everything invents the 'lie' and goes on to not just change the nature of movie-making, but also creates the basis of religion. After much effort, he also gets the girl he loves.

Law Abiding Citizen

Rated R. Anchor Bay Entertainment, produced in 2009, released in 2010, 109 minutes, $73M, sales rank: 36

After his family was murdered ten years earlier, a man takes out his revenge on not only the killers but everyone involved, including the District Attorney who was assigned to the case. Includes commentary, behind the scenes, trailer, and featurettes.

Little Ashes

Rated R. E1 Entertainment, produced in 2008, released in 2010, 112 minutes.

As Madrid wavers on the edge of social change, Salvador Dali is drawn into the decadent lifestyle of Federico Garcia Lorca and Luis Bunuel. But as the three explore the art world together, a forbidden attraction develops which changes their lives forever. Includes interviews and featurette.

Love Happens

Rated PG-13. Universal, produced in 2009, released in 2010, 109 minutes.

When self-help author Dr. Burke Ryan arrives in Seattle to teach a sold-out seminar, he unexpectedly meets florist Eloise Chandler, the one person who might be able to help him help himself. But will two people who have met the right person at exactly the wrong time be able to give love another chance? They'll find that sometimes when you least expect it...love happens.

New York, I Love You

Rated R. Vivendi Entertainment, produced in 2009, released in 2010, 103 minutes.

A collection of ten different love stories set in one of the most beloved cities in the world, from Brooklyn to Tribeca to Central Park.

No Boundaries

Rated R. Breaking Glass Pictures, produced in 2009, released in 2010, 101 minutes.

Isabel Moreno crosses the border into the United States, thinking only of making enough money to save her deathly ill mother. In Philadelphia, she finds comfort in her cousin Martin and is embraced by his neighbors, Gloria and Maurice. She is surprised to find a new family far from home, but even more surprised to fall in love with the one man that could put her right back where she started.

Perfect Sleep

Rated R. Magnet, produced in 2009, released in 2009, 106 minutes.

In order to save the woman he loves but can never have, a tortured man goes back to the city he swore he would never return to.

Peter and Vandy

Not rated. Strand Releasing, produced in 2009, released in 2010, 80 minutes.

A journey through the romantic beginnings and shaky turns that inevitably develop after Peter, an insecure architect, falls for art gallery employee Vandy.

Rome & Jewel

Not rated. Well Go USA, produced in 2008, released in 2010, 80 minutes.

Coming from two completely different worlds, Rome and Jewel meet at a party, and it is love at first sight. Their interracial romance ensues and causes jealousy, betrayal, and murder.

The September Issue

Rated PG-13. Lions Gate Entertainment, produced in 2009, released in 2010, 90 minutes.

An unprecedented behind-the-scenes look at the making of the coveted September issue of Vogue in 2007, which was the largest and most sold to date. Features audio commentary, deleted scenes, photo gallery, and interviews with cast and fashion icons, including Anna Wintour, Vera Wang, Oscar de la Renta, John Galliano, Karl Lagerfeld, and others.

A Serious Man

Rated R. Universal, produced in 2009, released in 2010, 106 minutes.

Physics professor Larry Gopnik can't believe his life. His wife is leaving him for his best friend, his unemployed brother won't move off the couch, someone is threatening his career, his kids are a mystery, and his neighbor is tormenting him by sunbathing nude. Struggling to make sense of it all, Larry consults three different rabbis and their answers lead him on a twisted journey of faith, family, delinquent behavior, and mortality.

Sorority Row

Rated R. Summit Entertainment, produced in 2009, released in 2010, 101 minutes.

When five sorority girls inadvertently cause the murder of one of their sisters in a prank gone wrong, they agree to keep the matter to themselves and never speak of it again, so they can get on with their lives. This proves easier said than done, when after graduation a mysterious killer goes after the five of them and anyone who knows their secret.

The Stepfather (2009)

Unrated. Screen Gems, Inc., produced in 2009, released in 2010, 102 minutes.

When Michael returns home from military school, he discovers that his mother has a new live-in boyfriend, David. Though he appears to fit in well with the family, Michael has a bad feeling about him. As the two men get to know each other, Michael's suspicions rise to the surface and he starts to delve into David's past. Is the man who will soon be his stepfather too good to be true? It just might be too late to find out! Includes commentary, featurette, and gag reel.

The Time Traveler's Wife

Rated PG-13. New Line Cinema, produced in 2009, released in 2010, 107 minutes.

Clare has been in love with Henry her entire life. She believes they are destined to be together, even though she never knows when they will be separated. Henry is a time traveler, cursed with a rare genetic anomaly that causes him to live his life on a shifting timeline, skipping back and forth through his lifespan with no control. Despite the fact that Henry's travels force them apart with no warning, Clare desperately tries to build a life with her one true love..

Trucker

Rated R. Monterey Video, produced in 2009, released in 2010, 93 minutes.

A long-haul trucker living a carefree life is forced to take care of the son she hasn't seen since he was a baby when his father is in the hospital. Now the child and mother must learn to live together and leave their strained past behind.

The Vampire's Assistant - Cirque du Freak

Rated PG-13. Universal, produced in 2009, released in 2010, 109 minutes.

Based on the popular series of books by Darren Shan is a fantasy-adventure about a teenager who unknowingly breaks a 200-year-old truce between two warring factions of vampires. Pulled into a fantastic life of misunderstood sideshow freaks and grotesque creatures of the night, one teen will vanish from the safety of a boring existence and fulfill his destiny in a place drawn from nightmares.

The Vanished Empire

Kino, produced in 2008, released in 2010, 104 minutes.

Trapped by obligations to his pre-teen brother, single mother, and aging grandfather, 18-year-old Sergey rebels by shirking responsibility altogether. Aided by the privileged, Westernized diplomat's son Kostya, and straight-laced schoolmate Styopa, Sergey pursues girls, drugs, and rock n' roll. But the arrival of gorgeous, innocent Lyuda threatens to break Sergey out of his rootless cycle of teenage kicks, even as it tests his already tenuous connection to friends, family, past, and future.

XIII The Conspiracy

Rated R. Phase 4 Films, produced in 2008, released in 2010, 136 minutes.

The first female U.S. President is shot dead by a sniper during her Independence Day speech. Three months later, a wounded man is found hanging from a tree with no memory of his identity. The only clue is a tattoo on his neck, 'XIII.' Submerged in a far-reaching conspiracy which threatens to overthrow the entire government, XIII's identity becomes the key to unraveling a complex and dangerous truth. And the only way for XIII to get his life back is to play bait in a deadly cat and mouse game.

You the Living

Not rated. Palisades Tartan Video, produced in 2007, released in 2010, 95 minutes.

A series of vignettes depicting the greatness and tragedy of life. Bonus features include exclusive interview with director Roy Andersson, preview of the making of the film, exclusive interviews with the directors of the documentary, and deleted scenes.

Zombieland

Rated R. Columbia Pictures, produced in 2009, released in 2010, 88 minutes.

In a world that has become overrun with zombies, two men must figure out how to survive. Wimpy Columbus is afraid of his own shadow, while Tallahassee is the biggest, baddest gun-toting zombie-slayer who ever lived. When they meet two sisters, Wichita and Little Rock, the four strike out for an amusement park that is said to be zombie-free. This mismatched group will have to rely on each other to survive, which could be worse than surrendering to the zombies. Bonus: commentaries and more.

January 2010

Across the Hall

Rated R. Image Entertainment, produced in 2009, released in 2010, 93 minutes.

After learning that his fiancée has gone to a hotel room to meet another man, Terry decides to call his best friend Julian and announce his intentions to kill both his fiancée and the man she's with. Now it's up to Julian to risk his own life to stop his friend.

Adam (2009)

Rated PG-13. 20th Century Fox, produced in 2009, released in 2010, 99 minutes.

A delightful romantic story about two strangers in search of an extraordinary connection. Adam is a brilliant but awkward astronomy buff who is drawn out of his sheltered existence by his beautiful and outgoing new neighbor, Beth.

Beyond a Reasonable Doubt

Rated PG-13. Anchor Bay Entertainment, produced in 2009, released in 2009, 105 minutes.

An ambitious journalist frames himself for murder in order to catch an unscrupulous district attorney, who he believes is tampering with evidence to secure his near perfect conviction rating.

Big Fan

Rated R. First Independent Pictures LLC., produced in 2009, released in 2010, 87 minutes.

A diehard New York Giants fan meets his hero, the quarterback of the team, with disastrous results that impact his entire life and those around him.

Bright Star

Rated PG. Sony Pictures Home Entertainment, produced in 2009, released in 2010, 119 minutes.

Nineteenth century poet John Keats and the girl next door, Fanny Brawne, started out as unlikely lovers who were totally at odds with each other. However, when Brawne offers to help Keats nurse his seriously ill brother, the two soon become involved in an unstoppable romance that only his untimely death at age 25 could bring to a shattering end. Includes deleted scene and featurettes.

Cloudy with a Chance of Meatballs (Juvenile)

Rated PG. Columbia Pictures, produced in 2009, released in 2010, 90 minutes.

In a town where food drops from the sky like rain, a young inventor hopes to create something that will change everyone's life. However, when the weather takes a turn for the worse, the residents of the town of Chewandswallow will find their eating habits have drastically changed. Includes featurettes, deleted scenes, game, and sing-along.

Departures (Japanese)

Rated PG-13. E1 Entertainment, produced in 2008, released in 2010, 131 minutes.

After the orchestra he plays with breaks up, Daigo, a cellist, returns to his hometown and gets a job preparing the dead for their final resting place. Although his wife and family are disgusted by his new position, Daigo finds that by taking care of the dead, he is learning how to finally live. Includes interview with director Yoshiro Takita.

Final Destination, the (2009)

Rated R. New Line Home Video, produced in 2000, 98 minutes.

On a class trip to Paris, a student who's afraid of flying has a terrible premonition which comes devastatingly true. Now, having dodged death, he and his friends are haunted by the fate they can only escape once, and the terror has just begun.

Gamer

Rated R. Lions Gate Entertainment, produced in 2009, released in 2010, 95 minutes.

Kable is the superstar and cult hero of the ultraviolent Slayers. Kable is controlled by Simon, a young gamer with rock star status who continues to defy all odds by guiding Kable to victory each week. Taken from his family, imprisoned, and forced to fight against his will, the modern-day gladiator must survive long enough to escape the game, free his family, regain his identity, and save mankind from this ruthless technology.

Gomorra

The Criterion Collection, produced in 2008, released in 2009, 137 minutes.

A contemporary Neapolitan mob drama that exposes Italy's criminal underbelly by telling five stories of individuals who think they can make their own compact with Camorra, the area's Mafia. Bonus features include documentary, interviews, deleted scenes, and an essay by critic Chuck Stephens.

Hunger

Maple Pictures, produced in 2008, released in 2009, 96 minutes.

The final months of Bobby Sands, the Irish Republican Army activist who protested his treatment at the hands of British prison guards with a hunger strike, are chronicled in this historical drama.

The Hurt Locker

Rated R. Summit Entertainment, produced in 2009, released in 2010, 130 minutes.

When a new sergeant, James, takes over a highly trained bomb disposal team amid violent conflict, he surprises his two subordinates, Sanborn and Eldridge, by recklessly plunging them into a deadly game of urban combat. As the men struggle to control their wild new leader, the city explodes into chaos, and James' true character reveals itself in a way that will change each man forever.

I Can do Bad All by my Self

Rated PG-13. Lions Gate Entertainment, produced in 2009, released in 2010, 113 minutes.

After Madea catches some children looting her home, she turns them over to their Aunt April, a nightclub singer who wants nothing to do with her late sister's kids. The hard-living singer discovers the importance of family with the help of a handsome Mexican immigrant.

I Hope they Serve Beer in Hell

Unrated. 20th Century Fox, produced in 2009, released in 2010, 105 minutes.

A connoisseur of fast times and faster women, Tucker Max unleashes his wit and wants on every unsuspecting female around, from horny hotties to aroused cougars to one amorous dwarf, for one night of non-stop debauchery. But the night gets out of control when the boys meet a stripper who can match their misogynist mouths, and Tucker becomes the butt of a vengeful practical joke.

In the Loop

Not rated. IFC Films, produced in 2009, released in 2010, 106 minutes.

The British Prime Minister and the President of the United States think that the best thing for both countries would be a war against the Middle East, and now it's up to the military generals and PR people on both sides of the Atlantic to stop this before it escalates out of control. Bonus features include deleted scenes and IFC exclusive material.

Janky Promoters

Rated R. Vivendi Entertainment produced in 2009, released in 2009. 85 minutes.

A pair of shady promoters take a chance and try to book a superstar rapper, which leads to trouble.

Lorna's Silence

Rated R. Sony Pictures Classics, produced in 2008, released in 2010, 105 minutes.

Lorna, a young Albanian woman, dreams of opening up a snack bar with her boyfriend. Without the money, she finds herself entwined in a vicious plan devised by mobster Fabio. A false marriage between Lorna and Claudy will allow her to get her Belgian citizenship. She is then expected to marry a Russian Mafioso who is anxious to get his hands on the Belgian identity papers, after Fabio kills Claudy to speed up the second marriage. But can Lorna keep quiet?

Michael Jackson's This is It

Rated PG. Columbia Pictures, produced in 2009, released in 2010, 111 minutes, $72M, sales rank: 21

Presents a rare, behind-the-scenes look at Jackson as he developed, created, and rehearsed for his sold-out concerts at London's O2 Arena. Drawn from more than one hundred hours of behind-the-scenes footage, the singer, dancer, filmmaker, architect, creative genius, and great artist at work is captured in raw and candid detail as he created and perfected his planned final London shows. Includes featurettes and auditions.

Moon

Rated R

Sony Pictures Classics, produced in 2009, released in 2009, 97 minutes.

Astronaut Sam Bell is completing a three-year contract with Lunar Industries to mine Earth's primary source of energy, Helium-3. His declining health is causing headaches and hallucinations that lead to a near-fatal accident, rendering him unconscious. After recuperating, an unexpected discovery leads him to doubt his sanity, his identity, and the integrity of the company. Believing he is alone on his mission, his sole purpose is getting back home on his own. Includes commentary and featurette.

My one and Only

Alliance, produced in 2009, released in 2009, 107 minutes.

Ann Devereaux has just left her philandering husband Dan, a society bandleader, and taken to the road with her teenage sons, George and Robbie, in search of a suitable new mate. But it's 1953, years past Ann's courting days. Now it seems that the losers and playboys outnumber the eligible and willing bachelors.

Pandorum

Rated R. Anchor Bay Entertainment, produced in 2009, released in 2009, 108 minutes.

Two astronauts awaken in a hyper-sleep chamber aboard a seemingly abandoned spacecraft. They can't remember anything. Who are they? What is their mission? Slowly the spacecraft's shocking, deadly secrets are revealed and the astronauts find their own survival is more important than they could ever have imagined.

Paranormal Activity (2009)

Unrated. Paramount Home Entertainment, produced in 2009, released in 2009, 86 minutes.

Katie and Micah are a young middle-class couple who are engaged to be married. After moving into a suburban 'starter' house in San Diego, California, they begin hearing noises while trying to sleep. Not knowing if the presence is demonic or not, they attempt communicating through a Ouija board, angering the spirit further. Now they may never sleep again, or they may never wake up!

Passing Strange - The Movie

Not rated. IFC Films, produced in 2009, released in 2010, 135 minutes.

A young man leaves behind his mother and life in a Los Angeles neighborhood and sets out on a journey of self-discovery in Europe during the '70s in order to find his purpose in life through his music. A theatrical stage production of the Tony Award-winning Broadway musical.

Post Grad

Rated PG-13. 20th Century Fox, produced in 2009, released in 2010, 88 minutes.

Ryden Malby has a master plan. Graduate college, get a great job, hang out with her best friend, and find the perfect guy. But her plan spins out of control when she's forced to move back home with her eccentric family. By the time she lands her dream job, Ryden realizes it's meaningless without the man of her dreams, and the people she loves.

Saw VI

Rated R. Lions Gate Entertainment, produced in 2009, released in 2010, 91 minutes.

Special Agent Strahm is dead, and Detective Hoffman has emerged as the unchallenged successor to Jigsaw's legacy. However, when the FBI draws closer to Hoffman, he is forced to set a game into motion, and Jigsaw's grand scheme is finally understood.

Shorts - The Adventures of the Wishing Rock (Juvenile)

Rated PG. Warner Home Video, produced in 2009, released in 2009, 89 minutes.

A young boy's discovery of a colorful, wish-granting rock causes chaos in the suburban town of Black Falls when jealous kids and scheming adults alike set out to get their hands on it.

Smokin' Aces 2 - Assassins' Ball

Unrated. Universal, produced in 2010, released in 2010, 88 minutes.

Packed with insane mercenaries, sexy assassins, and more of the fan-favorite Tremor family, this all-new explosive film brings together a cast of grizzled veterans and sizzling newcomers to tell the story of a low-level FBI agent with a high-price on his head. May the best hit man survive. Bonus material includes deleted scenes, gag reel, featurettes, and more.

Surrogates

Rated PG-13. Touchstone Home Video, produced in 2009, released in 2010, 89 minutes.

People are living their lives remotely from the safety of their own homes via robotic surrogates - sexy, physically perfect mechanical representations of themselves. It's an ideal world where crime, pain, fear, and consequences don't exist. When the first murder in years jolts this utopia, FBI agent Greer discovers a vast conspiracy behind the surrogate phenomenon and must abandon his own surrogate, risking his life to unravel the mystery.

Whip It

Rated PG-13. 20th Century Fox, produced in 2009, released in 2010, 111 minutes.

Bliss Calendar is a small-town teenager with a big dream: to find her own path in the world. Tired of following in her family's footsteps of compliance and conformity, Bliss discovers a way to put her life on the fast track, literally. She lands a spot on a rough-and-tumble roller derby team and becomes 'Babe Ruthless,' the hottest thing on eight wheels.

Whiteout

Rated R. Warner Bros. Entertainment Inc., produced in 2009, released in 2010, 101 minutes.

A U.S. marshal tracking a vicious murderer through the Antarctic must locate the killer before the sun sets for six months, or risk being trapped in the dark with the madman for months on end.

New Arrivals – December 2009

500 Days of Summer

Rated PG-13

20th Century Fox, produced in 2009, released in 2009, 95 minutes.

A young greeting card writer is hopelessly, helplessly searching for the girl of his dreams, and his new co-worker, Summer Finn, may just be 'the one.' But the 500 days of their offbeat relationship reveal (in no particular order) that the road to happiness can be unpredictable, uncontrollable, and unbelievably funny!

9 (Tim Burton, 2009)

Rated PG-13

Universal, produced in 2009, released in 2009, 80 minutes.

In the final days of humanity, a dedicated scientist gives the spark of life to nine of his creations. The world has turned into an unrecognizable landscape of machines and spare parts, but this group of nine finds that if they band together, their small community might just be able to change the course of history.

All About Steve

Rated PG-13

20th Century Fox, produced in 2009, released in 2009, 99 minutes.

When eccentric but lovable Mary gets set up with Steve, a news channel cameraman, she falls hard. He does not. Mary decides to follow Steve on a cross-country hunt for breaking news and soon finds herself entangled in the story. But despite the media storm surrounding her, Mary may just discover her true place in the world, and the man of her dreams.

David & Layla

Rated R

Vanguard, produced in 2005, released in 2009, 106 minutes.

Can a modern-day Romeo and Juliet follow their hearts and blast through centuries of religious animosity, or will their cultural differences and their headstrong families keep them apart forever?

District 9

Rated R

Tri Star, produced in 2009, released in 2009, 112 minutes.

Twenty years ago, aliens from another planet made contact with Earth. Now, the refugee camp they are forced to live in has deteriorated into a slum-like ghetto. When field operative Wikus van der Merwe is put in charge of evicting the aliens, he contracts a strange virus that changes his DNA to match that of the refugees. As his body begins to mutate, he becomes a hunted man, and the aliens' only hope for freedom. Includes commentary, deleted scenes, and documentary.

Extract (2009)

Rated R

Miramax Films, produced in 2009, released in 2009, 92 minutes.

Joel is one step away from selling his flavor extract factory and retiring to easy street when a freak workplace accident sets in motion a series of disasters that puts his business and personal life in jeopardy.

G-Force

Rated PG

Disney, produced in 2009, released in 2009, 88 minutes.

A team of trained secret agent guinea pigs takes on a mission for the U.S. government to stop a diabolical billionaire, who plans on taking over the world with household appliances.

Half-Life

Not rated

Wolfe Video LLC, produced in 2008, released in 2009, 106 minutes.

Wendell, a Korean adoptee, struggles to come out to his fundamentalist parents. In his effort to communicate with them, he accidentally jeopardizes his boyfriend's job, and their entire relationship. Wendell's best friend, Pam, and her precocious brother Timothy must deal with their mother's younger, charming, and manipulative boyfriend. Using their imaginative powers, they escape their confining home life and reinvent their world in a mind-bending conclusion. Includes featurette and trailer.

The Hangover

Rated R

Warner Home Video, produced in 2009, released in 2009, 100 minutes.

They planned a Vegas bachelor party that they would never forget. Now they really need to remember what exactly went down! A baby? A tiger? Why is one of them missing a tooth and where is the groom? They have to piece together all their bad decisions from the night before - one hazy clue at a time.

Hardwired

Rated R

Sony Pictures Home Entertainment, produced in 2009, released in 2009, 94 minutes.

A man must race against time as he unwittingly becomes the target of a dangerous corporation that is hellbent on controlling mankind through mind manipulation. Includes featurette.

Harry Potter and the Half Blood Prince

Rated PG

Warner Home Video, produced in 2009, released in 2009, 153 minutes.

Harry Potter returns to Hogwarts for another year of schooling and learns more about the dark past of the boy who grew up to become Lord Voldemort. There was a time when Hogwarts was thought of as a safe haven, but thanks to Voldemort's tightening grip on both the Muggle and wizarding worlds, that simply isn't the case anymore.

How to Be

Not rated

IFC Films, produced in 2008, released in 2009, 85 minutes.

Arthur is a twenty-something supermarket clerk and depressed musician who's just been dumped by his girlfriend and has to move back home to his emotionally distant parents. But when Arthur discovers the best selling self-help book, It's Not Your Fault, he spends his inheritance on hiring the oddball author to be his live-in life coach. Featuring original songs performed by Robert Pattinson.

Inglorious Basterds

Rated R

Universal, produced in 2009, released in 2009, 153 minutes.

During World War II, a group of Jewish-American guerilla soldiers led by Lt. Aldo Raine, known as 'The Basterds,' are chosen specifically to spread fear throughout the Third Reich by scalping and brutally killing Nazis. The Basterds soon cross paths with a French-Jewish woman who runs a movie theater in Paris which is targeted by the soldiers. A plot is set in motion to kill the Nazis at the theater's movie premiere, including Adolf Hitler.

Is Anybody There?

Rated PG-13

Magnolia Home Entertainment, produced in 2009, released in 2009, 94 minutes.

Ten-year-old Edward lives in his family-run retirement home. While his mother struggles to keep the family business afloat and his father copes with the onset of a midlife crisis, Edward leads an increasingly lonely existence until he meets Clarence, a retired magician and grieving widower who refuses to give in gracefully to old age.

Jennifer's Body

Rated R

20th Century Fox, produced in 2009, released in 2009, 102 minutes.

Jennifer is a gorgeous, seductive cheerleader who takes evil to a whole new level after she's possessed by a sinister demon. Steamy action and gore galore ensue as the male student body succumbs to Jennifer's insatiable appetite for human flesh. Now it's up to her best friend to stop Jennifer's reign of terror before it's too late!

Julie & Julia

Rated PG-13

Columbia Pictures, produced in 2009, released in 2009, 123 minutes.

Julia Child's beginning in the cooking profession is intertwined with the life of thirty-year-old Julie Powell, who decides to cook all 524 recipes in Child's first book in one year to escape from the monotony of her daily life. Includes commentary and featurette.

The Maiden Heist

Rated PG-13

Yari Film Group, produced in 2009, released in 2009, 90 minutes.

Charles, Roger, and George are museum security guards who take their jobs very seriously. But when they learn their favorite artworks are being sent to another museum, they concoct a plan to switch the real masterpieces with fakes. All goes well until a mistake forces these first-time thieves into a last-minute escapade. Includes commentary, featurette, deleted scenes, and bloopers.

The Narrows

Rated R

Image Entertainment, produced in 2008, released in 2009, 106 minutes.

In order to pay for a prestigious university in Manhattan, a young man from Brooklyn joins up with the mob. When his assignments start getting more and more dangerous, he learns the meaning of true loyalty and finds help from a very unlikely source.

Night at the Museum - Battle of the Smithsonian

Rated PG

20th Century Fox, produced in 2009, released in 2009, 105 minutes.

History is larger than life, and twice as funny, in this monumental comedy sequel. Larry Daley is a former night watchman at the Museum of Natural History, where the exhibits come to life after dark. Now Larry's nocturnal friends are being retired to the archives of the Smithsonian Institution, luring him back for a hilarious, all-out battle against museum misfits who plan to take over the Smithsonian, and the world.

A Perfect Getaway

Unrated

Universal, produced in 2009, released in 2009, 108 minutes.

A suspense thriller about an island vacation that turns deadly. Honeymooners Cliff and Cydney are hiking a jungle trail to a remote Hawaiian beach when they hear that police have uncovered a grisly murder scene and the suspected killers are somewhere nearby. Unsure whether to stay or flee, they join two other couples when things start to go horribly wrong.

Public Enemies (2009)

Rated R

Universal, produced in 2009, released in 2009, 140 minutes.

No one could stop Dillinger and his gang. No jail could hold him. His charm and audacious jailbreaks endeared him to almost everyone, from his girlfriend Billie Frechette to an American public who had no sympathy for the banks that had plunged the country into the Depression. But while the adventures of Dillinger's gang thrilled many, Hoover made Dillinger America's first Public Enemy Number One.

The Skeptic

Not rated

IFC Films, produced in 2009, released in 2009, 89 minutes.

Bryan Becket is a cynical control freak who inherits his aunt's creepy Victorian mansion after her mysterious death. But when this die-hard doubter begins to experience a series of increasingly vicious and personal paranormal events, he turns to his business partner and an eccentric medium for answers. There are ghostly forces in our world that cannot be explained by science or understood by a rational mind.

Staten Island

Rated R

National Entertainment Media, produced in 2009, released in 2009, 96 minutes.

In the shadow of Manhattan, the lives of three ambitious men intersect when Sully, a dim-witted septic tank cleaner, decides to rob $50,000 from the local mob boss.

Taking Woodstock

Rated R

Universal, produced in 2009, released in 2009, 121 minutes.

In 1969, Elliot Tiber, an interior designer in Greenwich Village, New York, has to move back upstate to help his parents run their dilapidated Catskills motel, the El Monaco. Upon hearing that a planned music and arts festival has lost its permit from the neighboring town of Wallkill, Elliot calls producer Michael Lang at Woodstock Ventures to offer his family's motel to the promoters and generate business. Three weeks later, half a million people are on their way to his neighbor's farm.

Terminator – Salvation

Rated PG-13

Warner Home Video, produced in 2009, released in 2009, 115 minutes.

John Connor's path into the future is altered by the appearance of Marcus Wright, a stranger whose last memory is of being on death row, and he must decide whether Marcus has been sent from the future or rescued from the past. As Skynet prepares its final onslaught, Connor and Marcus embark on an odyssey that takes them into the heart of Skynet's operations, where they uncover the terrible secret behind the possible annihilation of mankind.

Thirst - a Park Chan-Wook film.

Rated R

Universal, produced in 2009, released in 2009, 134 minutes.

Sang-hyun is a priest who cherishes life - so much so that he selflessly volunteers for a secret vaccine development project meant to eradicate a deadly virus. But the virus takes the priest, and a blood transfusion is urgently ordered up for him. The blood he receives is infected, so Sang-hyun now exists as a vampire.

Wild Child

Rated PG-13

Universal, produced in 2008, released in 2009, 99 minutes.

Sixteen-year-old Poppy is an LA teen diva who does what she wants, whenever she wants. But after an over-the-top prank pushes her father one step too far, she finds herself shipped off to the one place where everything will change: a British boarding school. No cell phones, no designer clothes, no way.

World's Greatest Dad

Rated R

Magnolia Home Entertainment, produced in 2009, released in 2009, 99 minutes.

Lance Clayton once dreamed of a career as a rich and famous writer. He has only managed to be a single dad and high school poetry teacher. His son is a jerk who won't give him the time of day, and his girlfriend won't acknowledge publicly that they are dating. A freak accident provides Lance his worst tragedy, and greatest opportunity at fame, fortune, and popularity. But can he live with the knowledge of how he got there?

You're welcome America : a final night with George W. Bush.

Rated TV-MA

Home Box Office, produced in 2009, released in 2009, 90 minutes.

In his first-ever HBO special, Will Ferrell takes viewers on a sentimental journey through the life, legend, and legacy of the 43rd U.S. President, portraying George W. Bush in this live performance from Broadway's Cort Theater.

New Arrivals – November 2009

Angels & Demons

Rated PG-13. Columbia Pictures, produced in 2009, released in 2009, 138 minutes.

Harvard symbologist Robert Langdon discovers evidence of the resurgence of the most powerful underground organization in history, the Illuminati. Upon learning of an unstoppable terrorist act against the Vatican, Langdon travels to Rome and joins forces with Italian scientist Vittoria Vetra, and together they will follow the 400-year-old Path of Illumination that leads to the Vatican's only chance for survival. Includes featurettes.

Bring it On - Fight to the Finish

Rated PG-13. Universal, produced in 2009, released in 2009, 103 minutes.

Sassy cheer captain Lina Cruz's world is turned upside down when her family moves from the urban streets of East Los Angeles to the wealthy beach town of Malibu. At her new school she meets ultra-competitive Avery, the all-star cheer captain with attitude to spare, and her super-cute brother who's hard to resist.

Bruno

Rated R. Universal, produced in 2009, released in 2009, 82 minutes.

As Bruno travels the world in search of fame, no one, whether they are celebrities, politicians, or even terrorists, will be spared from his signature sense of style and his wickedly off-kilter manner. And, yes, they are all real situations. Prepare yourself for non-stop laughs and outright gasps when you experience the unforgettable antics of Bruno.

The Christmas Clause

MTI Home Video, produced in 2008, released in 2009, 90 minutes.

Sophie Kelly is a top-rated lawyer with three kids and a husband that take up all her time. All of her family and work stress comes to a chaotic halt at the shopping mall, days before Christmas, when she sees Santa and wishes for a different life. However, the grass is not always greener as a single, successful lawyer with her own firm and the most eligible bachelor vying for her attention.

Four Christmases

Rated PG-13. New Line Home Video, produced in 2008, released in 2009, 88 minutes.

When happily unmarried San Francisco couple Kate and Brad find themselves socked in by fog on Christmas morning, their exotic vacation plans morph into the family-centric holiday they had, until now, gleefully avoided. Out of obligation, and unable to escape, they trudge to not one, not two, but four relative-choked festivities.

Funny People

Unrated. Universal, produced in 2009, released in 2009, 146 minutes.

A very successful stand-up comedian, George learns that he has less than a year to live. Ira, a struggling up-and-coming comedian, works at a deli. One night the two perform at the same club, and George decides to make Ira his best friend. This lopsided relationship gradually takes on aspects of true friendship as Ira forces George to try to reconnect with the people in his life, including his ex-girlfriend Laura.

G.I. Joe - The rise of Cobra

Rated PG-13. Paramount Home Entertainment, produced in 2009, released in 2009, 117 minutes.

Armed with the coolest hi-tech gadgets and weapons, the ultimate elite fighting force known as G.I. Joe travels the world in high-stakes pursuit of Cobra, an evil international organization threatening to use a technology so powerful that it could bring the world to its knees. Includes commentary.

The Goods

Rated R. Paramount Vantage, produced in 2009, released in 2009, 89 minutes.

Fast-talking, foul-mouthed used-car liquidator Don Ready and his disorderly crew descend upon a small town to save a struggling auto dealership from bankruptcy by revving up the sales and moving out the cars at the Fourth of July sale. Ready soon discovers that he will have to rely on more than his crafty skills to make the weekend a success when he unexpectedly falls for the owner's daughter.

I Love You, Beth Cooper

Rated PG-13. 20th Century Fox, produced in 2009, released in 2009, 102 minutes.

When Denis, the geekiest guy in high school, proclaims his love for super-popular Beth Cooper during his valedictorian speech, everyone is speechless. But the real shock comes that night when Beth shows up at Denis' house with her two best friends to show him how the cool kids party.

My Sister's Keeper (2009)

Rated PG-13. New Line Cinema, produced in 2009, released in 2009, 109 minutes.

Sara and Brian live an idyllic life with their young son and daughter. Suddenly, their baby girl falls ill, and her only hope for survival rests in her parents' ability to find a compatible bone marrow donor. Their desperate decision to conceive another child raises both ethical and moral questions and begins to erode their relationship. Their actions ultimately set off a court case that threatens to tear the family apart.

Star Trek (2009)

Rated PG-13. Paramount Home Entertainment, produced in 2009, released in 2009, 126 minutes.

When the Romulan Nero comes from the future to take revenge on the Federation, the new recruits of the U.S.S. Enterprise will voyage through unimaginable danger to stop him from destroying everything they know. Includes commentary, trailers, gag reel, and featurette.

Taking of Pelham 1 2 3 (2009)

Rated R. Columbia Pictures, produced in 2009, released in 2009, 106 minutes.

Dispatcher Walter Garber's day is turned upside down when he must face off against the criminal mind that is holding the passengers of a New York City subway train hostage after it is hijacked. Includes commentary and featurettes.

The Ugly Truth

Rated R. Columbia Pictures, produced in 2009, released in 2009, 96 minutes.

The search for 'Mr. Right' has left a romantically challenged morning show producer hopelessly single. She receives an eye-opening education when she gets teamed up with a hardcore TV personality who wants to prove his theories on what makes men tick by helping her find true love. The unexpected results may surprise them both. Includes deleted scenes, extended scenes, alternate endings, gag reel, and more.

Up (Juvenile)

Rated PG. Disney, produced in 2009, released in 2009, 96 minutes.

Seventy-eight-year-old balloon salesman Carl Fredricksen finally fulfills his lifelong dream of a great adventure when he ties thousands of balloons to his house and flies away to the wilds of South America. He discovers too late that an 8-year-old Wilderness Explorer named Russell has stowed away. Includes an exclusive animated short film, Dug's Special Mission.

New Arrivals – October 2009

Adoration

Rated R. Sony Pictures Classics, produced in 2008, released in 2009, 101 minutes.

For his French class assignment, a high school student writes his family history and weaves a real story concerning a terrorist plot into the mix. He stirs up a controversy after he places it on the Internet and invites viewers to comment. Includes featurettes and deleted scenes.

American Violet

Rated PG-13. Image Entertainment, produced in 2008, released in 2009, 103 minutes.

A young woman is wrongly accused of selling drugs near a school and is offered a plea deal that would force her to admit to a crime she didn't commit. Rather than ruin her life with a conviction, she decides to sue the DA in a case that changes her life as well as the laws of her state. Based on a true story.

Assassination of a High School President

Rated R. Sony Pictures Home Entertainment, released in 2009, 93 minutes.

The most popular girl at a Catholic high school joins forces with a sophomore newspaper reporter to investigate the disappearance of a case of SAT exams. They uncover a much larger conspiracy once they have fingered their suspects. Includes deleted scenes, commentary, and alternate opening scenes.

Bart got a Room

Rated PG-13. Anchor Bay Entertainment, produced in 2008, released in 2009, 79 minutes.

Danny seems to have everything ready for his Senior Prom...except a date. With his hormones and his reputation on the line, Danny must find a date so he isn't worse off than the biggest nerd in school.

The Brothers Bloom

Rated PG-13. Summit Entertainment, produced in 2009, released in 2010, 113 minutes.

Two brothers have perfected the art of swindling fortunes through years of fraternal teamwork. Now they have decided to take on one last job that turns into an elaborate plot that takes them around the world. Bonus material included

Cheri (2009)

Rated R. Miramax Films, produced in 2009, released in 2009, 93 minutes.

The story of the love affair between beautiful retired courtesan Lea and Cheri, the son of her old colleague and rival, Madame Peloux. After six years Madame Peloux has secretly arranged a marriage between Cheri and Edmee, the daughter of another rich courtesan. As the inevitable moment of parting approaches, Lea and Cheri begin to understand, too late, how much they mean to one another.

The Class

Rated PG-13. Sony Pictures Home Entertainment, produced in 2008, released in 2009, 130 minutes.

Francois Marin and his fellow teachers gear up for another school year at a racially mixed high school in Paris. With the best of intentions, each teacher will try his or her own way to inspire their students. Through the ups and downs, successes and failures, Marin himself sometimes comes to his own breaking point, and when all is said and done next year will bring another group of students. Includes commentaries and featurette.

Dakota Skye

Rated R. E1 Entertainment, produced in 2008, released in 2009, 89 minutes.

Dakota Skye has a super power. She is cursed with the ability to see the truth in any lie she hears. Now seventeen, Dakota has become apathetic toward life, until her boyfriend's best friend Jonah arrives and catches her eye.

Dark Country

Rated R. Sony Pictures Home Entertainment, produced in 2009, released in 2009, 88 minutes.

Two honeymooners rescue a mysterious car crash survivor in the Las Vegas desert. But their decision to save the man becomes increasingly regrettable when he turns on them, forcing the newlyweds to do the unthinkable. In a blur of paranormal chaos, the couple must take drastic measures to cover up their actions from the local police, ultimately leading each character to an inescapable fate. Includes commentary, and featurettes. Directed by Thomas Jane. Directed by Thomas Jane.

Drag me to Hell

Unrated. Universal, produced in 2009, released in 2009, 99 minutes.

An original tale of a young woman's desperate quest to break an evil curse. Christine Brown is an ambitious L.A. loan officer. Life is good until the mysterious Mrs. Ganush arrives at the bank to beg for an extension on her home loan. Christine denies the extension to impress her boss and get a leg up on a promotion, shaming Mrs. Ganush and dispossessing her of her home. She finds herself the recipient of a supernatural curse, which turns her life into a living hell.

Gigantic (2009)

Rated R. Vivendi Entertainment, produced in 2008, released in 2009, 98 minutes.

Brian is a mattress salesman who gets swept up into a romance with Harriet when she falls asleep on one of the beds in his store. To win her over, he must compete with her father, an art-collecting loudmouth with a bad back and deep pockets. Includes alternate ending, deleted scenes, commentary, and behind the scenes.

Gomorra

Not Rated. The Criterion Collection, produced in 2008, released in 2009, 137 minutes.

A contemporary Neapolitan mob drama that exposes Italy's criminal underbelly by telling five stories of individuals who think they can make their own compact with Camorra, the area's Mafia. Bonus features include documentary, interviews, deleted scenes, and an essay by critic Chuck Stephens.

The Haunted Airman

Rated R. E1 Entertainment, produced in 2006, released in 2009, 70 minutes.

After being wounded during the war and confined to a wheelchair, Toby finds himself recovering at a hospital, where he begins to distrust the hospital staff and psychologists when other patients begin to die.

Ice Age: Dawn of the Dinosaurs

Rated PG. 20th Century Fox, produced in 2009, released in 2009, 94 minutes.

Just when you thought they couldn't get any cooler, your favorite prehistoric pals are back. This time around, Manny and the herd discover a lost world of ferociously funny dinosaurs, including a cranky T-Rex who has a score to settle with Sid. Meanwhile, Scrat goes nuts over the beautiful Scratte, but is she trying to win his heart or steal his acorn?

Imagine That

Rated PG. Paramount Viacom Company, produced in 2009, released in 2009, 107 minutes.

A highly competitive financial executive finds his career is quickly rolling downhill after he loses confidence in his abilities. When his 7-year-old daughter invites him into her fantasy world, he may find the solutions to all of his problems waiting for him. As father and daughter embark on a whirlwind journey of comic proportions, they are about to discover that sometimes all you need is a little imagination, and a lot of love. Includes commentary, featurettes, deleted scenes, and outtakes.

Killing Room

Rated R. Genius Products, Inc., produced in 2009, released in 2009, 93 minutes.

A psychological research study turns deadly for four individuals when they learn that they are the guinea pigs for a brutal, classified government program.

Land of the Lost (2009)

Rated PG-13. Universal, produced in 2009, released in 2009, 102 minutes.

Scientist Dr. Rick Marshall, a researcher, is sucked into a space-time vortex and spat into another dimension. Now, Marshall has no weapons, few skills, and questionable smarts to survive in an alternate universe full of marauding dinosaurs and fantastic creatures from beyond our world.

Last Templar

Not Rated. Rhi Entertainment Inc., produced in 2009, released in 2009, 170 minutes.

An archaeologist discovers that a missing ancient decoder is linked to the Knights Templar, and together with the help of a NYC detective, tries to find the stolen artifact before it falls into the wrong hands.

Love takes wing

Not Rated. 20th Century Fox, produced in 2009, released in 2009, 88 minutes.

The Love Series continues, as Dr. Belinda Davis leaves small-town life for the big city.

My Life in Ruins

Rated PG-13. 20th Century Fox, produced in 2009, released in 2009, 95 minutes.

Georgia is a recently laid-off, though anything but laid-back, history professor turned travel guide to a motley crew of hilariously crass tourists. Georgia is fed up and ready to give up, until her new confidant Irv opens her eyes and heart to a simple fact: There's no finer way for a woman to find her kefi (a.k.a. mojo) than to lose herself in the arms of the 'Greek god' who's been hiding right under her nose.

Nothing Like the Holidays

Rated PG-13. Anchor Bay Entertainment, produced in 2008, released in 2009, 98 minutes.

For the first time in years, the entire Rodriguez clan is home for the holidays in Chicago, to celebrate one member's safe return from Iraq, and each learns something about themselves...and each other. Bonus features include blooper reel, commentary, and featurette.

Orphan (2009)

Rated R. Warner Home Video, produced in 2009, released in 2009, 123 minutes.

After the loss of their unborn baby, Kate and John Coleman decide to adopt a child as a way to bring some joy and normalcy into their lives. The couple is drawn to Esther, a 9-year-old orphan, and they welcome her into their home. As soon as Esther moves in, a series of events begins to unfold, leading Kate to believe that there's something wrong with Esther - this seemingly angelic little girl is not what she appears to be. Includes additional scenes and an alternate ending.

The Proposal

Rated PG-13. Touchstone Home Video, produced in 2009, released in 2009, 108 minutes.

High-powered book editor Maggie is everyone's worst nightmare: ruthless, driven, and tactless. When she finds herself faced with deportation back to Canada, she coerces her much younger assistant into marrying her. However, when the government becomes suspicious, they embark upon a charade in order to make the marriage seem legitimate.

Rudo y Cursi

Rated R. Sony Pictures Home Entertainment, produced in 2008, released in 2009, 102 minutes.

Two brothers put their relationship in jeopardy and almost let their dreams slip through their fingers when they become rivals who play on opposing soccer teams. Includes deleted scenes, featurette, commentary, music videos, and Q&A with director.

Tinkerbell and the Lost Treasure (Juvenile)

Rated G. Disney, produced in 2009, released in 2009, 80 minutes.

Tinker Bell and her fairy friends are trying to change summer into fall and get ready for the big fall celebration, and learn about the magic of true friendship along the way. Bonus features include deleted scenes, fairy bloopers, a magical guide, and more.

Tracy Takes On.. The Complete & Final Seasons

Rated TV-14. Eagle Media, produced in 1999, released in 2009, 381 minutes.

Each week, each episode would focus on, or 'take on,' a certain topic, around which each installment would revolve. Ullman's new roster of characters for the show would appear repeatedly for the run of the series. Bonus material includes three segments of never-before-seen material.

The Unknown Woman

Rated R. Image Entertainment, produced in 2006, released in 2009, 120 minutes.

A Ukrainian woman with a secret works her way into the lives of an affluent young family. She stops at nothing to become the couple's trusted maid and beloved nanny to their fragile young daughter. But deep cracks underneath Irena's dedication soon become apparent as her horrific past and chilling obsession are revealed. Includes commentary, behind the scenes, trailer, and TV spots.

Whatever Works

Rated PG-13. Sony Pictures Classics, produced in 2009, released in 2009, 92 minutes.

A crotchety old man with very extreme views on life finds his world has become further complicated after the naive young runaway he has married is tracked down by her straight-laced parents.

Year One

Rated PG-13. Columbia Pictures, produced in 2009, released in 2009, 97 minutes.

Zed and Oh, a couple of numbskull cavemen from the year one, set out on a journey into the ancient world when their laziness gets them banished from their primitive village. Includes commentary, extended scenes, alternate scenes, gag reel, and featurettes.

New Arrivals – September 2009

Away We Go

Rated R. Focus Features, produced in 2009, released in 2009, 98 minutes.

This heartfelt film explores the comedic twists and turns in one couple's journey across contemporary America. Anticipating the birth of their first child, longtime couple Burt and Verona embark on an ambitious itinerary to visit friends and family in order to find their perfect home.

Battle for Terra

Rated PG. Lions Gate Entertainment, produced in 2009, released in 2009, 84 minutes.

The inhabitants of a peaceful planet are set to battle the last remaining humans, who are fleeing their own dying home, and the hope for both civilizations rests in the hands of one girl, who tries to settle the war peacefully. Bonus features include deleted scenes, commentary, and short film.

Crank 2 - High Voltage

Rated R. Lions Gate Entertainment, produced in 2009, released in 2009, 95 minutes.

Chev Chelios returns to track down a ruthless Chinese mobster who has stolen his most prized possession: his heart. As he hunts down his enemy in Los Angeles, his battery-operated ticker requires regular jolts of electricity in order to work. Chev is determined to get his real heart back and wreak vengeance on whoever stole it.

Dance Flick

Rated PG-13. Paramount Home Entertainment, produced in 2009, released in 2009, 82 minutes.

Sweet, innocent Megan's ballet dreams are shattered when she is forced to attend an inner-city high school where she meets Thomas, a young hip-hop dancer from the wrong side of the tracks. With a new crew of friends, can this suburban girl with no street 'cred' step up her game and achieve her dreams in the mother of all dance-offs? This edition does not include director commentaries or bonus features.

Easy Virtue

Rated PG-13. Sony Pictures Classics, produced in 2008, released in 2009, 96 minutes.

A young Englishman falls madly in love with a sexy, glamorous American woman, and marries her impulsively. When he takes her to the family home, his mother takes an instant disliking to her and undermines her every move. Will their love be in danger of slipping away? Includes deleted scenes, gag reel, and more.

Four Dragons

Rated R. Lions Gate Entertainment, produced in 2008, released in 2009, 92 minutes.

This gripping tale, action-packed with relentless and brutal martial arts scenes, begins in 1881 as Chinese immigrants flood a mining valley, eager to find their fortune. Contrary to their expectations, what they encountered was a lethal gang of betrayed brothers on a mission of vengeance. To fight for the honor of the people, one man must unleash the ancient art of Wushu.

Friday the 13th (2009)

Rated R. New Line Home Video, produced in 2009, released in 2009, 97 minutes.

Against the advice of police and cautions from the locals, Clay and Jenna pursue a lead in the search for his missing sister. Little do they know they've entered the domain of the infamous killer who haunts Crystal Lake - Jason Voorhees.

Ghosts of Girlfriends Past

Rated PG-13. New Line Cinema, produced in 2009, released in 2009, 100 minutes.

A committed bachelor who thinks nothing of breaking up with several women on a conference call is visited by the ghosts of his former jilted girlfriends, who take him on a hilarious adventure through his failed relationships - past, present, and future.

Goodbye Solo

Rated R. Lions Gate Entertainment, produced in 2008, released in 2009, 91 minutes.

A Senegalese cab driver is filled with hope for a new life in America. A tough, Southern good ol' boy is convinced there is nothing left to live for. Together, this unlikely couple will embark on a journey that will change them both forever.

Julia (2009)

Rated R. Magnolia Home Entertainment, produced in 2008, released in 2009, 144 minutes

A 40-year-old alcoholic whose life has spun out of control convinces herself to commit a violent crime.

Management

Rated R. Image Entertainment, produced in 2008, released in 2009, 93 minutes.

A slacker hotel manager tries to change his ways when he falls for one of his guests and then follows her across the country to her home, where he must now deal with her crazed punk-rock ex-boyfriend and her move from one state to another.

Monsters Vs. Aliens

Rated PG. Dreamworks Pictures, produced in 2009, released in 2009, 94 minutes.

Susan Murphy gets turned into a giant monster on her wedding day when a meteorite from outer space hits her. When she is taken to a secret government compound she meets up with a scruffy group of monsters who have also been sent to the compound over the years. A desperate order from the president will send the group of monsters into action to save the planet from aliens who are on a mission to destroy it. Includes commentary, featurettes, deleted scenes, trailers, and more.

Next Day Air

Rated R. Summit Entertainment, produced in 2009, released in 2009, 84 minutes.

A haze-brained courier sparks off a chain of uproarious events after he mistakenly delivers a package containing some high-grade product to the wrong address and into the hands of two bumbling wannabe gangsters. But these two fools have no clue that their neighbors down the hall, the real gangster and his feisty girlfriend, are connected to the Mexican mob and will do whatever it takes to recover their package.

Observe and Report

Rated R. Warner Home Video, produced in 2009, released in 2009, 87 minutes.

Driven by his personal duty to protect and serve the mall and its patrons, security guard Ronnie seizes an opportunity to showcase his underappreciated law enforcement talents on a grand scale. He hopes catching a flasher will earn him a coveted spot at the police academy, and the heart of his elusive dream girl Brandi.

Pavee Lackeen (The Traveller Girl)

Not Rated. Synkronized Usa, produced in 2005, released in 2009, 87 minutes.

A young girl who lives in a traveller community in Dublin struggles with who she is amongst the poor of Ireland. The film presents an unflinching portrait of a marginalized community often living in third world poverty in a modern, prosperous Ireland.

Silent Light

Not Rated. Tartan Video Usa, produced in 2007, released in 2009, 136 minutes.

In a Mennonite community in Mexico, a man betrays his family by having an affair with another woman, which changes the course of events with both his wife and his mistress. Bonus features include documentary, interviews, and deleted scenes.

Sin Nombre

Rated R. Universal, produced in 2009, released in 2009, 96 minutes.

A beautiful young Honduran woman, Sayra, joins her father and uncle on an odyssey to cross the gauntlet of the Latin American countryside en route to the United States. Along the way she crosses paths with a teenage Mexican gang member, El Casper, who is maneuvering to outrun his violent past and elude his unforgiving former associates.

Smile Pretty

Maverick Entertainment, released in 2009, 87 minutes

Nastalia is too young to have experienced many things in life, but as an abused child she has already experienced the darkest side of it. Now a young teen she takes it upon herself to change her life for the better, but the torment that is so interlaced with her childhood will haunt her every step forward.

State of Play

Rated PG-13 Universal, produced in 2009, released in 2009, 128 minutes.

When D.C. reporter Cal McCaffrey is assigned to investigate the murder of an assistant to an up-and-coming politician, he uncovers a conspiracy that threatens to bring down the nation's power structures. In a town of spin doctors and wealthy power brokers, he will discover one truth: when fortunes are at stake, no one's integrity, love, or life is safe.

Sugar

Rated PG-13. Sony Pictures Home Entertainment, produced in 2008, released in 2009, 114 minutes.

After seeing the movie Field of Dreams, Dominican baseball star Miguel 'Sugar' Santos hopes to break into the big leagues in the United States to earn money to support his impoverished family. His dreams may become a reality when he is recruited to play for a minor league team in the United States. Includes featurettes, deleted scenes, commentary and interviews.

Surveillance (2009)

Rated R. Magnet, produced in 2008, released in 2009, 97 minutes.

Two FBI agents are sent to investigate a series of murders and interrogate three witnesses with very different stories. As the agents begin to expose the hidden truths each witness is trying to conceal, they soon discover the truth may come at a very high cost.

The Toe Tactic

Kino International, produced in 2008, released in 2009, 84 minutes.

A young woman visits her childhood home and not only deals with the grief of her deceased father but of an alternate reality filled with talking dogs, an elevator man, a single man, and her son. Bonus features include short films, deleted scenes, and stills gallery.

Tulpan

Not Rated. Zeitgeist Films, produced in 2008, released in 2009, 100 minutes.

A young man returns home from the navy in order to become a shepherd and find a wife, and the only single girl for miles around turns out to be his neighbor.

X-Men origins: Wolverine

Rated PG-13. 20th Century Fox, produced in 2009, released in 2009, 107 minutes.

Tells the story of Wolverine's epically violent and romantic past, his complex relationship with Victor Creed, and the ominous Weapon X program. Along the way, Wolverine encounters many mutants, both familiar and new, including surprise appearances by several legends of the X-Men universe whose appearances in the film series have long been anticipated.

New Arrivals – August 2009

17 Again

Rated PG-13. New Line Home Video, produced in 2009, released in 2009, 102 minutes.

What would you do if you got a second shot at life? Mike's glory days are decidedly behind him. His marriage has fallen apart, he's been passed over for a promotion, and his kids think he's a loser. But Mike is given another chance when he is miraculously transformed back to the age of 17.

Unfortunately, Mike may look 17 again, but his thirtysomething outlook is totally uncool in the class of 2009.

Adventureland

Rated R. Miramax Films, produced in 2009, released in 2009, 107 minutes.

When James Brennan has to cancel his dream summer vacation and make some money for grad school, the only job he can get is at Adventureland, a tacky amusement park where the games are rigged and the rides make you hurl. But it's where he meets Em, and his rollercoaster ride to nowhere turns into the best summer ever.

Chaos Experiment

Rated R. Genius Products, Inc., produced in 2009, released in 2009, 90 minutes

A professor takes six strangers hostage in a steam room and will only release them if a newspaper publishes a paper he wrote on global warming.

Duplicity

Rated PG-13. Universal, produced in 2009, released in 2009, 125 minutes.

Two sexy spies turned corporate operatives attempt to pull off one of the biggest heists ever. As the stakes rise in the ultimate game of cat and mouse, they'll put everything on the line to remain one double-cross ahead of the rest.

Hannah Montana - The Movie (Juvenile)

Rated G. Disney, produced in 2009, released in 2009, 102 minutes

When stardom threatens to take over Miley's life as pop sensation Hannah Montana, her father takes the entire family back home to the country, where Miley finds herself in the middle of fun adventures and even a little romance!

I Love You, Man

Last House on the Left

Obsessed (2009)

Soloist, the (2009)

Sunshine Cleaning

New Arrivals – July 2009

Bracelet of Bordeaux (Juvenile)

Rated PG. Monterey, produced in 2009, released in 2009, 99 minutes.

Someone is dognapping the canine citizens of Chem City, Texas! Two tween girls overcome danger and conspiracies as they set out to solve the crime with the help of a magical bracelet. As they battle the mob, a punk gang, and a crooked cop, they learn about friendship, courage, and the importance of hanging with the right crowd.

Break

Not rated. Cinema Epoch, produced in 2009, released in 2009, 93 minutes.

A stylistic noir drama, shot like a comic book come to life, about an introverted hit man named Frank who is contracted to carry out an unusual job. When the city's crime boss, known only as 'The Man,' discovers that he's terminally ill, he enlists Frank to carry out his own assassination, only he doesn't want to die alone.

Coco Chanel

Rated PG. Screen Media Films, produced in 2008, released in 2009, 139 minutes.

Charts the rise of one of the most influential designers of the 20th century, from her humble childhood and early days as a young dressmaker's assistant to her passionate love affair with a dashing Englishman and ultimate success as a pioneering fashion icon.

The Color of Magic

Not rated. RHI Entertainment Inc., produced in 2008, released in 2009, 197 minutes

A tourist on vacation in the magical town of Discworld finds himself accidentally paired up with a hapless wizard, and learns that they are part of an elaborate board game being played by the gods.

Coraline (2d and 3d versions) (Juvenile)

Rated PG. Universal, produced in 2009, released in 2009, 101 minutes.

A young girl walks through a secret door in her new home and discovers an alternate version of her life. This parallel reality is eerily similar to her own life, only much better. When the adventure turns dangerous, Coraline must count on her resourcefulness, determination, and bravery to get back home and save her family.

Dim Sum Funeral

Rated R. Home Box Office, produced in 2008, released in 2009, 96 minutes.

An Irish funeral has what's called a wake, a Jewish funeral has what's called sitting shiva, and a traditional Chinese funeral is something else entirely, which is what the estranged siblings of a Westernized Chinese-American family discover as they try to fulfill their mother's last wish.

Dragonball Evolution (Live action) (Juvenile)

Rated PG. 20th Century Fox, produced in 2009, released in 2009, 85 minutes.

Goku is a powerful warrior who protects the Earth from an endless stream of rogues bent on dominating the universe and controlling the mystical objects known as Dragonballs. Roshi is the Master who guides Goku on the young man's epic quest to save the Earth from the forces of darkness.

The Echelon Conspiracy

Rated PG-13. Paramount Home Entertainment, produced in 2009, released in 2009, 105 minutes.

Max Peterson finds himself in the middle of a deadly international plot after he receives a series of mysterious cell phone messages promising him untold wealth. While Max attempts to unravel the conspiracy that threatens the stability of the entire world, he is chased across the planet by a lethal team of government operatives.

The Edge of Love

Rated R. Image Entertainment, produced in 2008, released in 2009, 111 minutes.

When legendary poet Dylan Thomas reconnects with Vera, his teenage sweetheart, a romantic rivalry begins between her and his wife Caitlin. As the women begin to bond, an unusual trio is formed. The threesome live in bliss until Vera's husband, a handsome soldier, returns from abroad and sends their unbridled lives whirling out of control.

El Camino

Not rated. Koch Entertainment, produced in 2008, released in 2009, 87 minutes.

Set against a changing American landscape, follows Lily as she travels across the country with Gray and Elliot with their friend's ashes in hand. As these young adults confront their unrealized selves and their grief, nothing happens the way they expect.

Fast and Furious (2009)

Rated PG-13. Universal, produced in 2009, released in 2009, 107 minutes.

The gang is back! Dom, now a fugitive on the run, must team up with his onetime friend Brian, now an FBI agent, to find a loved one's killer. Bonus features include gag reel and commentary with director Justin Lin.

The Great Buck Howard

Rated PG. Magnolia Home Entertainment, produced in 2008, released in 2009, 90 minutes.

Buck Howard is a mentalist extraordinaire who has been out of the limelight for a while and doesn't realize his act has lost its sparkle. He is convinced that with the help of his personal assistant and new road manager his comeback is imminent.

Grey Gardens (HBO Films)

Rated TV-PG. Home Box Office, produced in 2009, released in 2009, 103 minutes.

Tells the tender, intimate story of an eccentric mother and daughter. They were raised as Park Avenue debutantes but withdrew from New York society, taking shelter at their Long Island summer home, 'Grey Gardens.'

The Haunting in Connecticut (2009)

Rated PG-13. Lions Gate Entertainment, produced in 2009, released in 2009, 102 minutes.

Based on the true story of one family and their new house, which was once a funeral parlor where some of the most heinous acts took place. Now their son is being used as a messenger for the evil spirits that still lurk in the house.

Horsemen (2009)

Rated R. Lions Gate Entertainment, produced in 2009, released in 2009, 90 minutes.

After the death of his wife, a hardened police detective grows increasingly distant from his two young sons at home, while at work he is thrust into an investigation of perverse serial killings rooted in the Biblical prophecy of the Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse. Includes commentary.

Knowing (2009)

Rated PG-13. Summit Entertainment, produced in 2009, released in 2009, 121 minutes.

A college professor opens a time capsule that has been dug up at his son's elementary school. In it are some chillingly accurate predictions of disaster: when, where, and how many will die. Most of these events have already happened, but he must uncover the details of the next disasters in hopes of preventing them. If he fails, who knows how many will die?

Lost in Austen

Image Entertainment, produced in 2008, released in 2009, 176 minutes, 0 comments

Amanda Price gets propelled into the scheming 19th century world of Pride and Prejudice while the book's Elizabeth Bennet is hurled into hers. As the plot unfolds, Amanda triggers new romantic twists and turns as she tries to help the Bennet sisters nab husbands and even manages to captivate the tantalizing Mr. Darcy. But what about Elizabeth, and what will become of one of the world's greatest love stories? Includes behind the scenes. Features all four episodes.

Miss March

Unrated. 20th Century Fox, produced in 2009, released in 2009, 90 minutes.

A young man awakens from a four-year coma to hear that his once virginal high school sweetheart has since become a naked centerfold in Playboy magazine. He and his sex-crazed best friend decide to take a cross-country road trip in order to crash a party at the magazine's legendary headquarters and win back the girl.

Night Train

Rated R. National Entertainment Media, produced in 2009, released in 2009, 91 minutes.

While on a night train, three strangers discover a corpse and a box of diamonds. At first, the three scheme to ditch the body and split the fortune, until their greed and paranoia pit them against each other. Over 50 minutes of bonus features.

Princess Protection Program

Rated TV-G. Disney, produced in 2009, released in 2009, 89 minutes.

When Princess Rosalina is threatened by an evil dictator bent on taking control of her country, she is whisked away and placed into the Princess Protection Program, a secret agency that watches over imperiled princesses around the world.

Push

Rated PG-13. Summit Entertainment, produced in 2009, released in 2009, 111 minutes.

A group of young Americans with extraordinary psychic abilities must band together and use their different talents on a mission that will enable them to escape a clandestine government agency.

Race to Witch Mountain (Juvenile)

Rated PG. Disney, produced in 2009, released in 2009, 99 minutes.

When Las Vegas cab driver Jack Bruno encounters two teens with supernatural powers, he finds himself in an adventure in the middle of the Nevada desert known for unexplained phenomena and strange sightings - Witch Mountain.

Ruby Blue

Cinequest Films, Inc., produced in 2007, released in 2009, 112 minutes

With the help of 8-year-old Florrie, Jack is able to rekindle his passion for life after the death of his wife. Meanwhile, a glamorous French neighbor comes into Jack's life and he can't help but fall for her charms. When Florrie goes missing and the town suspects Jack, will he be able to fight for himself, and can he win the love of Stephanie, his French neighbor?

Ryan and Sean's not so Excellent Adventure

Not rated. Polychrome, produced in 2008, released in 2009, 80 minutes.

The story of two young web celebrities who find themselves brought to Hollywood to audition and screen test for starring roles in the next big 'buddy' film. Ryan and Sean are put through the grueling process of makeovers, massages, tanning beds, singing, dancing, and action picture auditions.

Sherman's Way

Not rated. Polychrome, produced in 2008, released in 2009, 98 minutes.

Two strangers are forced into a road trip of convenience only to veer off the path into a quirky exploration of friendship, fatherhood, and the task of finding one's place in the world, where one wrong turn can change your destination.

A Song of Innocence

Not rated. Synkronized USA, produced in 2005, released in 2009, 90 minutes.

A new father feels the need to assert his authority over his wife and the live-in wet nurse after the two women develop an affectionate relationship with each other and he is excluded from family decisions.

True True Lie

Rated R. The Weinstein Company, produced in 2006, released in 2008, 90 minutes.

Years after being sent to a mental institution for events she was told never happened, a young woman is released only to learn that she may not have been delusional after all.

The Unborn

Unrated. Universal, produced in 2009, released in 2009, 89 minutes.

Enter a world of unrelenting evil as terror finds a new form. A young woman is plagued by chilling dreams and tortured by a demonic ghost that haunts her waking hours. Her only hope to break the debilitating paranormal curse is in an exorcism with spiritual advisor Sendak.

The Watchmen

Rated R. Warner Home Video, produced in 2009, released in 2009, 162 minutes.

Someone's killing our superheroes. The year is 1985 and superheroes have banded together to respond to the murder of one of their own. They soon uncover a sinister plot that puts all of humanity in grave danger. The superheroes fight to stop the impending doom only to find themselves a target for annihilation. But if our superheroes are gone, who will save us?

New Arrivals – June 2009

Baby on Board

Rated R. National Entertainment Media, produced in 2008, released in 2009, 94 minutes.

Hormonal and emotional mood swings, a totally demanding boss, and the drama of their best friends turn Angela and Jerry's lives into a battle of the sexes when an unexpected pregnancy wreaks havoc in a perfect relationship. Includes commentary, photo gallery, and trailer.

The Betrayed

Not rated. Metro Goldwyn Mayer Home Entertainment, produced in 2008, released in 2009, 98 minutes.

The story follows a young woman as she's tortured by a mysterious figure who suspects her husband of stealing millions from a crime syndicate.

Body Armour

Rated R. Image Entertainment, produced in 2007, released in 2009, 91 minutes.

John Ridley, disgraced body guard, is hired to protect the cold-blooded assassin who ruined his career. Now it is time for payback, and Ridley will get it any way he can.

The Butterfly Tattoo

Cinema Epoch, produced in 2008, released in 2009, 101 minutes.

Jenny and Chris are two teenage lovers who get caught in the crossfire of a revenge killing with fatal results. Based on the book by Philip Pullman

The Code

Rated R. First Look Home Entertainment, produced in 2009, released in 2009, 103 minutes.

Two thieves try to pull off a dangerous heist with FBI, NYPD, and KGB operatives on their trail, and try to escape with their loot and their lives.

Crossing Over

Rated R. The Weinstein Company, produced in 2009, released in 2009, 113 minutes.

An immigration officer must protect the U.S. border in Los Angeles from those trying to pursue the American Dream, as those around him try to break the rules by fraud, blackmail, and work-site enforcement.

Defiance

Rated R. Paramount Home Entertainment, produced in 2008, released in 2009, 136 minutes.

The extraordinary true story of the Bielski brothers who turn a band of war defectors into commanding freedom fighters and motivate hundreds of private citizens to join their fight against the Nazi regime. Includes commentary and featurettes.

Dr. Horrible's Sing-Along Blog

New Video Group, produced in 2008, released in 2009, 42 minutes.

Billy, AKA Dr. Horrible, is a budding supervillain whose plans for world domination continually go awry. Includes over 90 minutes of bonus material.

Education of Charlie Banks

Rated R. Anchor Bay Entertainment, produced in 2007, released in 2009, 101 minutes.

A riveting tale about college students learning to deal with life, love, and ultimately facing their fears. This coming-of-age drama spans from the playgrounds of Greenwich Village to the idyllic greens of Vassar College.

Elsewhere

Rated R. E1 Entertainment, produced in 2008, released in 2009, 106 minutes.

Girls are mysteriously disappearing in a small town, and no one seems to care. Sarah has been meeting men online and is now missing. Her diary and a cryptic message sent from her cell phone are the only clues to her whereabouts. Includes commentary, behind-the-scenes footage, interviews, deleted scenes, and photo gallery.

Fired Up

Rated PG-13. Sony Pictures Home Entertainment, produced in 2009, released in 2009, 90 minutes.

Shawn and Nick, the two stars of the Gerald R. Ford High School football team, decide to ditch football camp for cheerleading camp because of the gorgeous girls. When Shawn falls for the captain of the cheer squad, the boys must come up with some new moves and prove they are 'in it to win it' at the all-important cheer competition finals. Includes featurettes, gag reel, and commentary.

Gran Torino

Rated R. Warner Home Video, produced in 2008, released in 2009, 116 minutes.

A Korean War vet stops a young Hmong teen from stealing his prized car, and reluctantly proceeds to reform the boy, learning about himself along the way. Bonus features include featurettes.

Harder they Fall (2009)

Rated R. Lions Gate Entertainment, produced in 2005, released in 2009, 97 minutes.

Two fighters from different backgrounds must come together for a bout where the one who survives is the one who rises to the top.

He's Just not that into you

Rated PG-13. New Line Video, produced in 2008, released in 2009, 129 minutes.

Tells the stories of a group of interconnected, Baltimore-based twenty and thirty-somethings as they navigate their various relationships from the shallow end of the dating pool through the deep, murky waters of married life, trying to read the signs of the opposite sex...and hoping to be the exceptions to the 'no-exceptions' rule.

The International

Rated R. Sony Pictures Home Entertainment, produced in 2009, released in 2009, 118 minutes.

An Interpol agent and a Manhattan Assistant District Attorney find themselves in a high-stakes chase around the globe when they uncover a multitude of illegal activities at one of the world's most powerful banks, which will stop at nothing when it comes to financing war and terror. Special features include commentary, extended scene, and featurette.

Lying

Not rated. Virgil Films, produced in 2006, released in 2009, 94 minutes.

When a long weekend brings four women together in the countryside, each of them is forced to navigate the depths of social interaction as virtual strangers. How well do we really know the friends we make in adulthood? And in an age of lies, what can be made of the person who tells untruths so small they serve no obvious purpose?

New in Town

Rated PG. Lions Gate Entertainment, produced in 2009, released in 2009, 97 minutes.

A Miami businesswoman trying to get a huge promotion agrees to oversee a big project in a small town in Minnesota. Now she must deal with frozen roads, icy weather, and chilly locals, and finds along the way something more than just a job assignment. Bonus features include deleted scenes, documentary, and more.

Pink Panther 2

Rated PG. Metro Goldwyn Mayer Home Entertainment, produced in 2009, released in 2009, 92 minutes.

When legendary treasures from around the world are stolen, including the priceless Pink Panther diamond, Clouseau is assigned to a dream team of international detectives who are under pressure to bring the master thief to justice before he strikes again. Includes a bonus disc.

Revolutionary Road

Rated R. DreamWorks Pictures, produced in 2008, released in 2009, 118 minutes.

Frank and April Wheeler are a young couple living in suburban Connecticut in 1955. On the outside their lives appear to be perfect, but they really aren't happy. They decide to break away from the ordinary and move to Paris, but can they do it without breaking their marriage apart? Includes commentary, deleted scenes, and featurette.

Secrets of the Furious Five (Juvenile)

Not rated. DreamWorks Pictures, produced in 2008, released in 2009, 24 minutes.

He may have defeated the ferocious Tai Lung, but our Dragon Warrior must now face Shifu's biggest challenge with the help of Viper, Tigress, Monkey, Crane, and Mantis. Discover that it takes more than fast feet and fists to become a kung fu master as the Furious Five are finally revealed. Includes featurettes.

Street Fighter: The Legend of Chun-Li

Unrated. 20th Century Fox, produced in 2009, released in 2009, 97 minutes.

This powerful martial arts adventure explores the origins of the Street Fighter universe through Chun-Li, who avenges her father's death at the hands of Bison and his evil Shadaloo Empire. Now the stage is set, the challenge is clear, the legend will be forged, but who will prevail?

Two Lovers

Rated R. Magnolia Home Entertainment, produced in 2008, released in 2009, 110 minutes.

After moving back into the home he grew up in to mend a broken heart, Leonard must decide between the woman his parents think would be perfect for him and the gorgeous neighbor he can't get out of his mind. Bonus features include deleted scenes, behind-the-scenes featurette, commentary, and more.

Waltz with Bashir

Rated R. Sony Pictures Home Entertainment, produced in 2008, released in 2009, 90 minutes.

After not being able to recall the time he spent on an Israeli Army mission during the Lebanon War, Ari attempts to unravel the mystery by traveling around the world to interview old friends and comrades. As the pieces of the puzzle begin to come together, his memory begins to return in illustrations that are surreal. Includes featurette, animatics, Q&A with director, and commentary.

New Arrivals – May 2009

Bedtime Stories (Juvenile)

Rated PG. Disney, produced in 2008, released in 2009, 99 minutes.

Skeeter, the handyman of a hotel once belonging to his father, agrees to watch his sister's two children and finds his life changed when the stories he tells the kids at bedtime begin to come true.

The Eddie Black Story

Not Rated. Polychrome, released in 2009, 85 minutes.

Eddie Black is a first-year college student on the honor roll with street credibility and dreams of becoming an attorney. But the pain of a broken heart draws him to Psycho, his childhood friend who's second in command of the Decepticons. A web of lies, murder, and mayhem traps him in a world of crime.

Fanboys

Rated PG-13. The Weinstein Company, produced in 2008, released in 2009, 90 minutes.

Four diehard Star Wars fans take a road trip to break into the ranch owned by George Lucas to steal a copy of Star Wars: Episode I before it's released, in order to fulfill a dying friend's wish.

How it All Went Down

Not rated. Koch Entertainment, produced in 2003, released in 2009, 91 minutes.

To finance his new film, Carmine returns to selling cocaine on the streets. The consequences of his actions affect the lives of everyone around him. Includes deleted scenes and a trailer.

Incendiary

Rated R. Image Entertainment, produced in 2008, released in 2009, 100 minutes.

When London is hit by a terrorist bombing, a young wife and mother is devastated to find out that her husband and son were killed while she was in the arms of her secret lover. Her guilt leads her to become involved in the police investigation only to find out that the authorities will do whatever it takes to keep the truth hidden.

Just Another Love Story (Danish)

Koch Lorber Films, produced in 2007, released in 2009, 100 minutes.

After Jonas unintentionally causes a car accident that leaves Julia crippled with amnesia, her family mistakes him for her boyfriend. Jonas embraces his new role and ends up falling for Julia. All goes well until the day her memory returns.

Momma's Man

Kino, produced in 2008, released in 2009, 98 minutes.

Mickey returns to his childhood home, presided over by his bohemian parents. What begins as a respite from adult responsibility becomes a premature mid-life crisis. Mickey starts to regress and drift back to an awkward youth he never outgrew.

My bloody Valentine

Rated R. Lions Gate Entertainment, produced in 2009, released in 2009, 103 minutes.

Years after miner Harry Warden murdered twenty-two people with a pickaxe, something from the town of Harmony's dark past has returned. Wearing a miner's mask and armed with a pickaxe, an unstoppable killer is on the loose and the townspeople realize that it just might be Harry Warden who's come back.

Passengers

Rated PG-13. Tristar Pictures, Inc., produced in 2008, released in 2009, 93 minutes.

After a plane crash, the grief counselor assigned to work with the survivors finds herself in the middle of a cover-up as one by one the survivors begin to disappear. Includes featurettes, deleted scenes, and commentary.

Paul Blart - Mall Cop

Rated PG. Sony Pictures Home Entertainment, produced in 2009, released in 2009, 91 minutes.

A mild-mannered security guard gets his chance to show the world what he is made of when a heist shuts down the mall complex and he becomes the police department's eyes on the inside. His sense of duty prompts him to try to save the day all by himself and prove that an average Joe can make a difference. Includes commentary, deleted scenes, featurettes, stunts, and more.

Personal Effects

Rated R. Screen Media Films, produced in 2009, released in 2009, 110 minutes.

Walter is a rising star in the NCAA wrestling world until his life is ripped apart by the brutal murder of his sister. Returning home to console his mother Gloria, he seeks vengeance on the man who is accused of the crime.

The Seeker - The Dark is Rising

Rated PG. 20th Century Fox, produced in 2007, released in 2008, 99 minutes.

During Christmas break from school, a seemingly typical teenager discovers he's anything but ordinary. As the seventh son of a seventh son, Will is the Seeker - a chosen warrior destined to restore the delicate earthly balance between Light and Dark.

Smother

Rated PG-13. Screen Media Films, produced in 2008, released in 2009, 92 minutes.

When Noah Cooper is fired from his job as a therapist, he thinks his day can't possibly get worse. Arriving home, he discovers his overbearing mother Marilyn has moved in with her five dogs in tow. Hilarity ensues as Noah learns to deal with the pressures of finding a job, a wife who desperately wants a baby, and more.

Taking Chance (HBO Films)

Rated TV-PG. Home Box Office, produced in 2009, released in 2009, 78 minutes.

After hearing of the heroic death of a young Marine in Iraq, veteran officer Lt. Colonel Michael Strobl volunteers to escort the remains of Lance Corporal Chance Phelps back to his hometown, where he embarks on an unexpected emotional journey.

Underworld - Rise of the Lycans

Rated R. Screen Gems, Inc., produced in 2009, released in 2009, 92 minutes.

The blood feud between the elite vampires and their slaves is traced in this prequel story. Lucian, a young Lycan, leads the werewolves to rise up against Viktor, the cruel vampire king who has enslaved them. Sonja, Lucian's secret lover, accompanies him in his quest against the vampire army and his battle for Lycan freedom. Includes featurette, commentary, and music video.

Valkyrie (2009)

Rated PG-13. Metro Goldwyn Mayer Home Entertainment, produced in 2008, released in 2009, 120 minutes.

Based on the incredible true story of Colonel Claus von Stauffenberg and his ingenious assassination plot targeting Adolf Hitler, this engrossing thriller reenacts the daring operation to eliminate one of the most evil tyrants the world has ever known.

Wendy and Lucy

Rated R. Oscilloscope Pictures, produced in 2008, released in 2009, 80 minutes.

Wendy is a down-on-her-luck girl who's hoping to turn things around for herself with a summer job in Alaska, but finds herself stranded with no money in a small Oregon town.

New Arrivals – April 2009

Ben X (Dutch)

Not rated. Film Movement, produced in 2007, released in 2008, 93 minutes.

Ben has Asperger's Syndrome, a mild form of autism that prevents normal communication and makes him ideal fodder for all the school bullies. With the help of an online friend, he devises a plan to confront the bullies and make them pay for their torment.

Bride Wars

Rated PG. 20th Century Fox, produced in 2008, released in 2009, 89 minutes.

Best friends Liv and Emma have shared a dream since childhood: Each yearns for the perfect June wedding at New York's famed Plaza Hotel. When a clerical error puts them both down for nuptials on the same day at the same time, one of them will just have to switch the date, right? As if!

The Day the Earth Stood Still (2008)

Rated PG-13. 20th Century Fox, produced in 2008, released in 2009, 104 minutes.

A remake of the 1951 classic. As governments and scientists race to unravel the mystery behind the visitor's appearance, a woman and her young stepson get caught up in his mission, and come to understand the ramifications of Klaatu calling himself a 'friend to the Earth.'

Doubt

Rated PG-13. Miramax, produced in 2008, released in 2009, 103 minutes.

It's 1964, St. Nicholas in the Bronx. A charismatic priest, Father Flynn, is trying to upend the school's strict customs, which have long been fiercely guarded by Sister Aloysius Beauvier, the iron-gloved principal who believes in the power of fear and discipline. When Father Flynn pays too much attention to a new student, Sister Aloysius sets off on a personal crusade to unearth the truth and to expunge Flynn from the school.

Frost / Nixon

Rated R. Universal, produced in 2008, released in 2009, 123 minutes.

When disgraced President Richard Nixon agreed to an interview with jet-setting television personality David Frost, he thought he'd found the key to saving his tarnished legacy. But, with a name to make and a reputation to overcome, Frost became one of Nixon's most formidable adversaries.

The Guitar

Rated R. Anchor Bay Entertainment, produced in 2008, released in 2009.

After Melody is diagnosed with terminal cancer and given two months to live, she blows her savings and maxes out her credit cards to pursue her dreams, which include romance and learning to play the electric guitar.

Last Stop for Paul

Rated PG-13. Mandt Bros. Productions, produced in 2006, released in 2009, 82 minutes.

The adventures of Cliff and Charlie, two friends who travel around the world to scatter the ashes of their recently deceased friend. As they travel from country to country they meet many interesting characters and have the adventure of a lifetime.

Not Easily Broken

Rated PG-13. Sony Pictures Home Entertainment, produced in 2009, released in 2009, 100 minutes.

Clarice and Dave's marriage reaches a breaking point when a car accident reveals more than just her physical injuries. To complicate matters, an innocent friendship between Dave and the physical therapist becomes a serious temptation. Now Dave and Clarice must decide if they are meant to be together, and if so, how they will restore their marriage. Includes featurette, and deleted scenes.

Nothing But the Truth

Rated R. Sony Pictures Home Entertainment, produced in 2008, released in 2009, 107 minutes.

A political journalist finds herself behind bars after she writes a story about a government scandal, then refuses to reveal the source that named the CIA agent involved. Includes commentary, deleted scenes, and featurette.

Notorious

Rated R. 20th Century Fox, produced in 2008, released in 2009, 123 minutes.

Chronicling the extraordinary life of Christopher 'The Notorious B.I.G.' Follow the young rapper from the tough streets of Brooklyn to the heights of superstardom as he juggles the increasing demands of fatherhood, marriage, and a music career amid chaos and controversy. Includes the R Rated and Unrated Director's Cut ***

The Reader

Rated R. The Weinstein Company, produced in 2008, released in 2009, 124 minutes.

A young man begins an affair with an older woman and learns years later about a secret she's been harboring, when she must stand trial for Nazi war crimes.

Slumdog Millionaire

Rated R. 20th Century Fox, produced in 2008, released in 2009, 121 minutes.

Jamal Malik is just one question away from winning a fortune on India's version of Who Wants to Be a Millionaire? How has this uneducated young man from the slums succeeded in providing correct responses to questions that have stumped countless scholars before him?

The Spirit

Rated PG-13. Lions Gate Entertainment, produced in 2008, released in 2009, 108 minutes.

Once a police officer of Central City, a masked man has returned from beyond the grave to take care of the crime-infested streets while resisting the seductive enemies that come his way.

Tale of Despereaux (Juvenile)

Rated G. Universal, produced in 2008, released in 2009, 94 minutes, $51M, 0 comments

Once upon a time, in the far away kingdom of Dor, there lived a brave and virtuous mouse who had comically oversized ears and dreamt of becoming a knight. Banished from his home for having such lofty ambitions, Despereaux sets off on an amazing adventure with his good-hearted rat friend Roscuro.

Timecrimes (Spanish)

Rated R. Magnolia Home Entertainment, produced in 2007, released in 2009, 89 minutes.

A man accidentally finds a time machine and travels back in time, where he is involved in a mystery filled with murders, terror, and another version of himself.

The Uninvited

Rated PG-13. DreamWorks Pictures, produced in 2009, released in 2009, 87 minutes.

After their mother's mysterious death, sisters Anna and Alex are confronted with terrifying nightmares, ghostly visions, and deadly consequences when they begin to investigate their father's new fiancée. Includes featurette, deleted scenes, and alternate ending.

What Doesn't Kill You

Rated R. Sony Pictures Home Entertainment, produced in 2008, released in 2009, 100 minutes.

Childhood friends Brian and Paulie do whatever it takes to survive in the dog-eat-dog neighborhood they live in. As they grow up they find themselves involved in organized crime and jail becomes part of doing business on the streets they call home. Brian uses his time in jail to get clean while Paulie makes plans for one last job that requires Brian's help. Brian must decide if he should stand by his friend or salvage his family. Includes: commentary, featurette, and deleted and alternate scenes

The Wrestler

Rated R. 20th Century Fox, produced in 2008, released in 2009, 109 minutes.

A former superstar is now paying the price for twenty years of grueling punishment in and out of the ring. But he's about to risk everything to prove he has one more match left in him: a re-staging of his famous Madison Square Garden bout against 'The Ayatollah.'

Yes Man

Rated PG-13. Warner Home Video, produced in 2008, released in 2009, 104 minutes.

Carl Allen signs up for a self-help program based on one simple principle: say yes to everything...and anything. Unleashing the power of 'yes' transforms Carl's life in amazing and unexpected ways, but he soon discovers that embracing every opportunity might just become too much of a good thing.

New Arrivals – March 2009

Australia

Rated PG-13. 20th Century Fox, produced in 2008, released in 2009, 165 minutes.

An English aristocrat inherits a large ranch. English cattle barons plot to take her land, and she reluctantly joins forces with a rough-hewn cattle drover to protect her ranch. Together they experience four life-altering years, a love affair, and the bombing of Darwin during WWII.

Beverly Hills Chihuahua

Rated PG. Disney, produced in 2008, released in 2009, 91 minutes

A pampered Beverly Hills Chihuahua named Chloe finds herself accidentally lost in the mean streets of Mexico. Alone for the first time in her spoiled life, she must rely on some unexpected new friends to lend her a paw.

Bolt (Juvenile)

Rated PG. Disney, produced in 2008, released in 2009, 96 minutes.

Super-dog Bolt, the star of a hit TV show, is accidently shipped from Hollywood to New York City. He begins his biggest adventure yet on a cross-country journey through the real world to get back to his owner and co-star Penny. Along the way Bolt discovers he doesn't need superpowers to be a hero.

The Boy in the Striped Pajamas

Rated PG-13. Miramax, produced in 2008, released in 2009, 94 minutes.

Bruno's new house in Poland is boring, and a high fence separates him from the people he can see through it. He follows the fence and meets a boy wearing striped pajamas. Bruno is happy to have a friend, but he knows no one can find out.

Cadillac Records

Rated R. Sony Pictures Home Entertainment, produced in 2008, released in 2009, 108 minutes.

The history of Chicago-based Chess Records is chronicled along with the turbulent lives of some of America's musical legends, such as Muddy Waters; Etta James; and Chuck Berry. Includes commentary, deleted scenes, and featurette.

Elegy

Rated R. Sony Pictures Home Entertainment, produced in 2008, released in 2009, 112 minutes.

The life of a renowned college professor is turned inside out when he becomes involved in a passionate relationship with a beautiful young woman. As their sexual relationship evolves, an incredible love story is born. Includes commentary and featurette.

Happy Go Lucky

Rated R. Miramax, produced in 2008, released in 2009, 119 minutes.

Free-spirited and effervescent, Poppy is a schoolteacher whose unstoppable optimism guides her life. Bubbling forth with giggles, laughter, and jokes, life's a bowl of cherries - even when she comes across a few pits.

I've Loved you So Long

Rated PG-13. Sony Pictures Home Entertainment, produced in 2008, released in 2009, 117 minutes.

Juliette is released from prison after serving 15 years for murdering her young son. As life has moved on, she must relearn certain basics, especially how to reconnect with her younger sister and hopefully learn to forgive herself in the process. Includes deleted scenes.

Let the Right One In (Sweedish)

Rated R. Magnolia Home Entertainment, produced in 2008, released in 2009, 115 minutes.
A young boy who is constantly being bullied at school makes friends with the new girl in the neighborhood. When strange disappearances and murders start happening in the town, all signs point to the new girl and her father, who only come out at night.

Marley & Me

Rated PG. 20th Century Fox, produced in 2008, released in 2009, 115 minutes.
A memoir of Philadelphia Inquirer columnist John Grogan's life with his yellow Labrador retriever. The heartwarming and unforgettable story of a family in the making and the wondrously neurotic dog who taught them what really matters in life.

Milk

Rated R. Focus Features, produced in 2008, released in 2009, 129 minutes.
His life changed history. His courage changed lives. Based on the inspiring true story of the first openly gay man elected to major public office. Follow Harvey Milk's powerful journey to inspire hope for equal rights during one of the least tolerant times in our nation's history.

Punisher 2 - War Zone

Rated R Lions Gate Entertainment, produced in 2008, released in 2009, 103 minutes.
Waging his one-man war on the world of organized crime, ruthless vigilante-hero Frank Castle sets his sights on mob boss Billy Russoti. After Russoti is left horribly disfigured by Castle, he sets out for vengeance under his new alias: Jigsaw.

Quantum of Solace

Rated PG-13. Metro Goldwyn Mayer Home Entertainment, produced in 2008, released in 2009, 106 minutes.
Betrayed by Vesper, the woman he loved, 007 fights the urge to make his latest mission personal. Bond and M interrogate Mr. White, who reveals the organization which blackmailed Vesper and who is far more complex and dangerous than anyone had imagined.

Rachel Getting Married

Rated R. Sony Pictures Home Entertainment, produced in 2008, released in 2009, 113 minutes.
After being in and out of rehab for ten years, Kym returns to the family home to attend her sister's wedding. Though friends and relatives have gathered for a joyful weekend of celebration, Kym's passion for drama incites tension in the family. Includes deleted scenes, featurette, and commentary.

Role Models

Unrated. Universal, produced in 2008, released in 2009, 102 minutes.
Two salesmen trash a company truck on an energy-drink-fueled bender. Upon their arrest, the court gives them a choice: do hard time or spend 150 service hours with a mentorship program. After one day with the kids, however, jail doesn't look so bad.

A Secret (French)

Unrated. Strand Releasing, produced in 2007, released in 2009, 110 minutes.

A young boy who has a vivid imagination dreams up a brother for himself and a better past for his family. On his 15th birthday he finds his dreams shattered when he uncovers a shocking secret that ties his family to the Holocaust.

Synecdoche New York

Rated R. Sony Pictures Home Entertainment, produced in 2008, released in 2009, 124 minutes.

As part of his new play, a theater director constructs a replica of New York in an old warehouse. As his city grows, his personal life falls apart. A celebrated actress may be just what he needs to change the direction his life is headed in. Includes featurette.

Transporter 3

Rated PG-13. 20th Century Fox, produced in 2005, released in 2006, 87 minutes.

Retired from his chosen profession of moving dangerous goods with no questions asked, Frank Martin makes a living driving for a wealthy family. When their son is abducted, Frank must save the boy and thwart the kidnapper's master plan.

Twilight

Rated PG-13. Summit Entertainment, produced in 2008, released in 2009, 122 minutes.

Bella Swan moves to a small town in Washington. There she meets the mysterious and handsome Edward Cullen, a boy who's hiding a dark secret: he's a vampire. Edward must battle the bloodlust raging inside himself, as well as the undead that would make Bella their prey.

Seven Pounds.

Rated PG-13. Sony Pictures Home Entertainment, produced in 2008, released in 2009, 123 minutes.

In order to redeem himself, an IRS agent begins an amazing journey where he will sacrifice all to change the lives of seven strangers forever. Includes deleted scenes, commentary, and 4 featurettes.

Tell No One

Not Rated. MPI Home Video, produced in 2006, released in 2009, 125 minutes.

Eight years after the heinous murder of his wife, doctor Alex Beck receives an ominous email from an unknown source. The message contains a video image of Alex's thought-to-be dead wife in real time.

New Arrivals – February 2009

Baghead

Rated R. Sony Pictures Home Entertainment, produced in 2008, released in 2008, 81 minutes.

Four struggling actors go to a cabin in Big Bear, California to write a screenplay that will make them all stars. Problem is their story idea - a horror flick about a group of friends tormented by a villain with a bag over his head - starts to come true.

Blindness

Rated R. Miramax, produced in 2008, released in 2009, 121 minutes.

When a sudden plague of blindness devastates a city, a small group of the afflicted band together to triumphantly overcome the horrific conditions of their imposed quarantine. Based on the Nobel Prize-winning novel by Jose Saramago.

Body of Lies

Rated R. Warner Home Video, produced in 2008, released in 2009, 128 minutes.

A former journalist injured in the Iraq war is hired by the CIA to track down an Al-Qaeda leader in Jordan, who is aided by the head of Jordan's covert operations in an uneasy alliance that leads to cultural and moral clashes between those involved.

Bottle Shock

Rated PG-13. 20th Century Fox, produced in 2008, released in 2009, 109 minutes.

1976. Napa Valley. One small American winery and its workers are about to show the French that the world's finest wines will now come from the other red, white, and blue. Based on an inspiring true story.

Changeling

Rated R. Universal, produced in 2008, released in 2009, 142 minutes.

When single mother Christine Collins leaves for work, her son vanishes without a trace. Five months later, the police reunite mother and son, but he isn't her boy. One woman's relentless quest for the truth exposes a world of corruption.

Choke

Rated R. 20th Century Fox, produced in 2008, released in 2009, 92 minutes.

A dark and wickedly funny joyride from the depths of sexual compulsion to the heights of the Second Coming. Victor Mancini courts the love and money of complete strangers via a demented con that might just kill him. But first, Victor must save his dying, delusional mother.

Days and Clouds

Not Rated. Film Movement, produced in 2007, released in 2008, 115 minutes.

Elsa leaves her job and fulfills an old dream of studying art history. Her life changes when she finds out her husband hasn't worked in two months. They eventually break up and realize they risk losing their most precious possession.

Entry Level

Not Rated. Porchlight Entertainment, produced in 2007, released in 2008, 85 minutes.

A chef finds himself starting his life over after he loses his restaurant and must start at the bottom of the corporate ladder. Includes short film Full Disclosure.

Flash of Genius

Rated PG-13. Universal, produced in 2008, released in 2009, 120 minutes.

Based on the true story of college professor and part-time inventor Robert Keams' long battle with the U.S. automobile industry. Tells the tale of one man who fought to receive recognition for his ingenuity at any price.

Frozen River

Rated R. Sony Pictures Home Entertainment, produced in 2008, released in 2009, 93 minutes.

Driven by financial hardship during the Christmas season, two women from different walks of life make extra money by forming a partnership to smuggle illegal aliens across the frozen St. Lawrence River to Canada. Includes commentary.

God on Trial

Not Rated. WGBH, produced in 2008, released in 2009, 86 minutes

In the tradition of the Jewish religion, a group of prisoners in Auschwitz argue against God for their fate, as they await their executions in the gas chamber.

Haunting of Molly Hartley

Rated PG-13. 20th Century Fox, produced in 2008, released in 2009, 85 minutes.

Molly Hartley hopes that with her mother locked away in a mental ward, she can forget the violence of her family's past and start over. Molly fears she has inherited her mother's psychosis. What she doesn't know is that she's inherited something else: a horrifying secret.

High School Musical 3 - Senior Year (Juvenile)

Rated G. Disney, produced in 2008, released in 2009, 112 minutes.

Troy, Gabriela, and their friends are about to face their biggest year. Between prom, the basketball championships, the spring musical, and getting ready for college, their relationships are all about to be tested. Includes featurette Cast Goodbyes.

Hounddog

Rated R. Hannover House, produced in 2007, released in 2009.

A young girl's life takes a tragic turn when she tries to get enough money to see Elvis in concert, and it's up to one person to try to help her reclaim her innocence...and her soul. Includes a documentary on the making of the film

How to Lose Friends and Alienate People

Rated R. Metro Goldwyn Mayer Home Entertainment, produced in 2008, released in 2009, 110 minutes

Sidney Young is a gate-crashing British journalist who loves exposing the shallowness of the celebrity world, yet desperately wants to join it. Accepting an offer from renowned editor Clayton Harding to write for an ultra-chic magazine, Sidney finally gets to rub elbows with A-list celebrities.

Librarian 3 - Curse of the Judas Chalice

Not Rated. Sony Pictures Home Entertainment, produced in 2008, released in 2008, 90 minutes.

When a professor at the University of Bucharest is kidnapped, Flynn goes to New Orleans to rescue the professor and at the same time stop an evil vampire plot. Includes deleted scenes and featurettes.

Madagascar 2 - Escape from Africa (Juvenile)

Rated PG. DreamWorks Pictures, produced in 2008, released in 2009, 89 minutes.

The animals leave the island in an old plane and find themselves landing in the wilderness of Africa. While discovering their roots they learn the differences between the concrete jungle and the heart of Africa. It's a great place, but not Central Park!

Miracle at St. Anna

Rated R. Touchstone Home Video, produced in 2008, released in 2009, 160 minutes.

Four black American soldiers, who are members of the U.S. Army's all-black 92nd 'Buffalo Soldier' division stationed in Italy during World War II, find themselves trapped behind enemy lines after they risk their lives to save a young Italian boy.

Nick & Norah's infinite Playlist.

Rated PG-13. Sony Pictures Home Entertainment, produced in 2008, released in 2009, 90 minutes.

Nick and Norah have nothing in common except their taste in music. A chance meeting and a crusade to find a legendary rock band's secret show ends up being a first date and a night that will change their lives forever. Includes outtakes and more.

Nights in Rodanthe

Rated PG-13. Warner Home Video, produced in 2008, released in 2009, 97 minutes.

A surgeon trying to make sense of his life stays in a remote inn managed by a woman trying to do the same thing. When a storm forces them to lean on each other for strength, they find more than comfort in each other.

Quarantine

Rated R. Sony Pictures Home Entertainment, produced in 2008, released in 2009, 89 minutes.

An apartment complex is quarantined when residents become viciously infected with an unknown substance. A television reporter and her crew are trapped inside with nothing but their videotape to prove that something has happened. Includes commentary and featurettes.

Racing Daylight

Not Rated. Vanguard, produced in 2007, released in 2008, 83 minutes.

A ghost story, and a supernatural love story transcending time. Sadie is a librarian in the present time who's returned to the family farm. She's pretty content with life, until a man appears in her mirror, calling her Anna before he disappears.

Religulous

Rated R. Lions Gate Entertainment, produced in 2008, released in 2009, 101 minutes.

Comedian and TV host Bill Maher takes a pilgrimage across the globe on a mind-opening journey into the ultimate taboo: questioning religion. Meeting the high and low from different religions, Maher asks questions, like 'Why is faith good?' and more.

Repo! The Genetic Opera

Rated R. Lions Gate Entertainment, produced in 2008, released in 2009, 97 minutes. By fusing Rocky Horror Picture Show and Blade Runner, this futuristic tale of horror modernizes the 'rock opera' genre with original music and rich, dark production design.

The Secret Life of Bees

Rated PG-13. 20th Century Fox, produced in 2008, released in 2009, 110 minutes
14-year-old Lily Owens is haunted by the memory of her late mother. Lily flees with Rosaleen, her caregiver and only friend, to a South Carolina town that holds the secret to her mother's past. She finds solace in their mesmerizing world of beekeeping.

Sex Drive

Rated R and Unrated. Summit Entertainment, produced in 2008, released in 2009, 129 minutes
Eighteen-year-old Ian Lafferty sets out on a cross-country drive with his two best friends in order to lose his virginity to a red-hot babe he met on the Internet. But the journey teaches all three more than they expected about life and love. Bonus features include new footage; outtakes; and more.

Soul Men

Rated R. The Weinstein Company, produced in 2008, released in 2009, 98 minutes
With the recent passing of their former band leader, two legends of soul agree to a reunion performance at the Apollo Theater in his honor. Now, after a twenty-year grudge, they must find a way to bury the hatchet

Space Buddies (Juvenile)

Rated G. Disney, produced in 2008, released in 2009, 84 minutes.
Moving at warp speed, dodging asteroids and more, the Buddies and their new friends must summon their courage and ingenuity to launch plans for a moon landing and a rocketing trip back home. Will they have the right stuff?

W.

Rated PG-13. Lions Gate Entertainment, produced in 2008, released in 2009, 129 minutes.
A look at the life of the 43rd President of the United States, including how he used Christianity to turn his life around, met and married his wife, and the days before his decision to declare war on Iraq. Includes featurettes, deleted scenes, and more.

What Just Happened

Rated R. Magnolia Home Entertainment, produced in 2008, released in 2009, 104 minutes.
A look at two hectic weeks in the life of a Hollywood producer as he tries to balance the egos of major stars, studio executives, artistic directors, and agents while dealing with two ex-wives and a family crisis. Bonus features include exclusive interview with Robert De Niro.

New Arrivals – January 2009

All For Melissa

Not rated, from Echo Bridge Home Entertainment, produced in 2007, released in 2008, 90 minutes.

In a quirky romantic comedy, an aspiring filmmaker finds himself torn between his fixation with a red-hot actress, who doesn't know he exists, and the chance at a realistic romance.

American East

Rated R, from Metro Goldwyn Mayer Home Entertainment, produced in 2008, released in 2009, 111 minutes.

A timely, poignant drama about Arab Americans living in post-9/11 Los Angeles, American East examines long-held misunderstandings about Arabic and Islamic culture. Since the attacks, the Arab community has borne the burden of racial discrimination.

Appaloosa

Rated R, from Warner Home Video, produced in 2008, released in 2009, 115 minutes.

A classic western about two friends hired to protect a small town in the Old West who find their job complicated by the arrival of a young widow.

Babylon A.D - Raw and Uncut

Unrated, from 20th Century Fox, produced in 2008, released in 2009, 90 minutes.

The rules are simple: kill or be killed. A ruthless mercenary is hired to smuggle a mysterious young woman from the post-apocalyptic confines of Eastern Europe to the glittering megalopolis of New York City.

Bangkok Dangerous

Rated R, from Lions Gate Entertainment, produced in 2008, released in 2009, 100 minutes.

Joe is a career assassin who lands in Bangkok to handle some obligations and finds himself unexpectedly training a young protege and falling for a woman who has no knowledge of his true job.

Beautiful Ohio

Not rated. From IFC Films, produced in 2008, released in 2008, 90 minutes.

A young boy, who idolizes his math whiz of an older brother, learns of a secret that will change the family forever involving the older brother's girlfriend, and a secret language between two best friends.

Brick Lane

Rated PG-13. From Sony Pictures Home Entertainment, produced in 2007, released in 2009, 102 minutes.

After an arranged marriage, a young woman leaves her family in Bangladesh to live with her new husband. When she finds that life is not at all what she expected, she starts an affair that changes her life forever. Includes deleted scenes and more.

Brideshead revisited (2008)

Rated PG-13. From Miramax, produced in 2008, released in 2009, 133 minutes.

A Londoner of lower class befriends and begins a romantic relationship with an aristocrat that becomes complicated when the aristocrat introduces his new friend to his sister.

Burn After Reading

Rated R. From Focus Features, produced in 2008, released in 2008, 96 minutes.

When a disc filled with some of the CIA's most irrelevant secrets gets in the hands of two determined but dim-witted gym employees, the duo is intent on exploiting their find.

Center Stage - Turn it Up

Rated PG-13. From Sony Pictures Home Entertainment, produced in 2008, released in 2009, 95 minutes.

A self-taught dancer dreams of being a member of the American Academy of Ballet. After not making the cut the first time, a cutting-edge hip-hop club and a good-looking former hockey player help her find the passion within to make her dreams come true.

Children of Huang Shi

Rated R. From Sony Pictures Home Entertainment, produced in 2008, released in 2009, 125 minutes.

Set in the 1930s in war-torn China, a young English journalist, aided by a Chinese partisan group leader and an American nurse, leads sixty orphaned boys over a thousand miles to safety, discovering the meaning of courage and love along the way.

City of Ember

Rated PG. From 20th Century Fox, produced in 2008, released in 2009, 95 minutes.

For centuries, the residents of the underground City of Ember have flourished in an amazing world of glittering lights and quiet contentment. When the City's power generator begins to fail, the streetlamps fade, along with the hopes of the townspeople.

College (2008)

Unrated from Metro Goldwyn Mayer Home Entertainment, produced in 2008, released in 2009, 95 minutes.

Three high school seniors visit Fieldmont University as prospective freshmen. They're expecting the weekend of their lives, but their raunchy F.U. adventure takes a turn when they're subjected to endless humiliation by the rowdiest frat house on campus.

Crashing

Rated R. From Image Entertainment, produced in 2007, released in 2008, 80 minutes.

It sounds like a budding writer's dream - a best selling first novel, a luxurious house in Malibu, and a trophy wife - but it all unravels when writer's block and a failed marriage send McMurray out into the streets.

Crusade - A March Through Time (Juvenile)

Rated PG. From Allumination FilmWorks, produced in 2007, released in 2008, 100 minutes.

A young boy loses a big soccer match and decides to go back in time to try and win the game. Instead of going back 12 hours, he goes back to the year 1212. Now he must try and get home, with the help of the Children's Crusade.

Disaster Movie

Rated PG-13. From Lions Gate Entertainment, produced in 2008, released in 2009, 87 minutes.

The comic misadventures of a group of ridiculously attractive twenty-somethings during one fateful night as they try to make their way to safety while every known natural disaster and catastrophic event hits the city.

The Duchess (2008)

Rated PG-13. From Paramount Home Entertainment, produced in 2008, released in 2008, 109 minutes.

Georgiana, Duchess of Devonshire, was loved by a nation but betrayed by her husband. Now she must face an agonizing choice between her hopeless but passionate love affair with Earl Grey or her responsibilities. Includes featurettes.

Eagle Eye

Rated PG-13, From DreamWorks Pictures, produced in 2008, released in 2008, 117 minutes.

A young man and a single woman are coerced into carrying out the high-tech assassination plot of an unscrupulous artificial intelligence system. Includes deleted scenes and featurette.

The Express (2008)

Rated PG. From Universal, produced in 2008, released in 2009, 130 minutes.

Witness the inspirational true story of a real American hero. Rising from the humblest of beginnings, Ernie Davis overcame impossible odds to become the first African American to win college football's greatest honor, the Heisman Trophy.

Fireproof

Rated PG. From Sony Pictures Home Entertainment, produced in 2008, released in 2009, 118 minutes.

Caleb is a fearless firefighter whose marriage is headed for divorce, when his father challenges him to approach his marriage the same way he fights fires. The 'Love Dare' helps Caleb reclaim his wife and his faith in God at the same time.

Ghost Town

Rated R. From Lions Gate Entertainment, produced in 2007, released in 2008, 115 minutes.

Love, hate, family, forgiveness, redemption, and sacrifice rock this small Western town. Family honor is defended while the gold rush surges forward.

Henry Poole is Here

Rated PG. From Anchor Bay Entertainment, produced in 2008, released in 2008, 99 minutes.

When Henry discovers that he has only six weeks to live, he plans to spend his last days in seclusion. But when a miracle transforms his life, his neighbors disrupt his plan and make it much harder to live his remaining days in quiet desperation.

Igor (Juvenile)

Rated PG. From Metro Goldwyn Mayer Home Entertainment, produced in 2008, released in 2009, 87 minutes.

Determined to prove he can create his own diabolical invention, a mad scientist's nice-guy assistant, Igor, creates a female Franken-monster. But his creation, Eva, is sweet and sings. That is, until she falls into the clutches of Dr. Schadenfreude.

Lakeview Terrace

Rated PG-13. From Sony Pictures Home Entertainment, produced in 2008, released in 2009, 110 minutes.

When a newlywed couple becomes the target of their neighbor, a police officer who is harassing them, they decide to fight back. Includes commentary, deleted scenes, and featurettes.

Max Payne

Unrated. From 20th Century Fox, produced in 2008, released in 2009, 103 minutes.

Max Payne is a maverick cop with little regard for rules and nothing left to lose. Hell-bent on revenge, he's determined to track down those responsible for the brutal murder of his family. Max is forced to battle enemies beyond the natural world.

Mirrors

Unrated. From 20th Century Fox, produced in 2008, released in 2009, 111 minutes.

A security guard is exposed to unspeakable acts of evil from the past, present, and future, only visible to him in the reflection of mirrors. Suddenly, his life is exposed to the evil and he must stop it before everyone he knows is dead.

My Best Friend's Girl

Rated R. From Lions Gate Entertainment, produced in 2008, released in 2009, 103 minutes.

When guys get dumped, they hire Tank to take their ex-girlfriends out on the worst date of their lives and they run gratefully back to their beau. When Tank's best friend is dumped, Tank offers to help out...and ends up meeting the challenge of his life.

On the Road with Judas

From Cinequest Films, Inc., produced in 2007, released in 2009, 92 minutes.

A delightfully fun romp about crime, love, and David Lee Roth. As a young writer struggles to write his new book, his main character, Judas, takes on a life of his own, leading a double life as a successful entrepreneur and a criminal.

Open Season 2 (Juvenile)

Rated PG. From Sony Pictures Home Entertainment, produced in 2009, released in 2009, 76 minutes.

Elliot and Boog find themselves on an adventure when Mr. Weenie, a dachshund, is kidnapped and they must find and return him to his owners before Elliot's trip down the aisle with his true love Giselle. Includes music video, deleted scenes, and more.

Pineapple Express

Rated R. From Sony Pictures Home Entertainment, produced in 2008, released in 2009, 112 minutes.
Dale is a constantly stoned court clerk that finds himself on the run with his dealer, after Dale witnesses the murder of a drug lord and leaves a rare form of marijuana at the scene that can be traced back to him and his dealer. Includes gag reel.

Ping Pong Playa

Rated PG-13. From Image Entertainment, produced in 2007, released in 2009, 96 minutes.
When a champion ping pong player gets hurt, his brother C-Dub, a gansta-rapper wannabe, must face off against a devious rival player in the ping pong tournament of the year. With help from some unusual kids, C-Dub just might be up to the challenge.

Pride and Glory

Rated R. From New Line Video, produced in 2008, released in 2009, 130 minutes.
The moral codes of a multi-generational family of New York City police officers are tested when Ray Tierney investigates a case that reveals an incendiary police corruption scandal involving his own brother-in-law.

Righteous Kill

Rated R. From Anchor Bay Entertainment, produced in 2008, released in 2009, 103 minutes.
After 30 years as partners on the NYPD, Detectives 'Turk' and 'Rooster' should be ready for retirement. But before they can retire, they are called in to investigate the murder of a notorious pimp, which has ties to a case they solved years before.

Rocknrolla

Rated R. From Warner Home Video, produced in 2008, released in 2009, 115 minutes.
In London, a real-estate scam puts millions of pounds up for grabs, naturally attracting the attention of some of the city's scrappiest tough guys, its more established underworld players, and others - all of whom are looking to get rich quick.

Savage Grace

From IFC Films, produced in 2007, released in 2008, 98 minutes.
The true story of a young woman who married into a wealthy family whose extremely close relationship with her son turns into a deadly tragedy. Bonus features include director commentary and behind-the-scenes featurettes.

Saw V

Rated R. From Lions Gate Entertainment, produced in 2008, released in 2009, 94 minutes.
A police detective and an agent both investigating the infamous Jigsaw murders are involved in an intricate plot, as 5 people are kidnapped and forced to complete a series of tasks in order to survive.

Swing Vote

Rated PG-13. From Touchstone Home Video, produced in 2008, released in 2009, 120 minutes.
Bud, an apathetic, beer-slinging, lovable loser, is coasting through a life that has passed him by when his 12-year-old daughter accidentally sets off a chain of events which culminates in the presidential election coming down to one vote...her dad's.

Tyler Perry's The family that preys

Rated PG-13. From Lions Gate Entertainment, produced in 2008, released in 2009, 109 minutes.

Alice, a working-class woman of high ideals, and wealthy Charlotte have enjoyed a lasting friendship throughout many years. Suddenly, their lives become mired in their adult children's turmoil. Can they find a way to save their families from ruin?

Vicky Cristina Barcelona

Rated PG-13. From The Weinstein Company, produced in 2008, released in 2008, 97 minutes.

Two American women, one engaged to be married and the other sexually flirtatious, both become romantically involved with a painter while on vacation in Barcelona, only to find they have competition in the form of the painter's ex-wife.

The Wackness

Rated R. From Sony Pictures Home Entertainment, produced in 2008, released in 2009, 99 minutes.

A pot-dealing teen forms an unlikely friendship with a psychiatrist as they exchange marijuana for therapy sessions. Includes deleted scenes; The Luke Shapiro Show episode 1; commentary; and featurettes.